SHE IS CLOTHED IN STRENGTH AND DIGNITY

Hi, we're Tricia & Regan!

A mother and daughter who built Faithfully She to help women become rooted in faith and rise in confidence.

Welcome to Faithful Finances...

If you've ever tithed on payday and then wondered by the 20th where the rest of it went, you're in the right place. This planner isn't about guilt or perfection. It's about seeing clearly, so you can steward what God has given you with peace instead of panic. You don't need the whole map. You just need the next faithful step. Let's take it together.

With love, Tricia & Regan

This planner is a budgeting and organization tool.

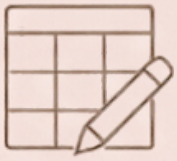
Your First 10 Minutes

1. Open the Start Here tab and read the welcome.
2. On Setup, type the year and your bank balance on January 1.
3. Add your income and your monthly plan for each category. Rename categories to fit your life.
4. List your debts on Debt Snowball and your savings goals on Sinking Funds.
5. Add your regular bills to the Bill Calendar and pick a category for each.
6. Log your first purchase on Transactions and watch everything else fill in.



Pink cells are for typing.
White cells do the math for you.

A Tour of Your Tabs

Start Here:	how it all works
Setup:	your year, income and plan
Monthly Budget:	plan vs. real life, plus a bill calendar
Transactions:	log it once, see it everywhere
Bill Calendar:	bills check themselves off
Debt Snowball:	your payoff order and date
Sinking Funds:	save for what you know is coming
Giving:	your tithes and generosity, tracked
Provision Log:	how God provided this month
Annual Dashboard:	your whole year at a glance

QUICK WIN

Step 1: Find Your Leak in 7 Days

Most women don't have a spending problem. They have a seeing problem. Money slips out in small, forgettable amounts, like a slow drip under the sink you don't notice until the cabinet is ruined. You don't need a whole budget yet. You just need to look.

Your action steps

- [ ] Log every purchase for 7 days on the Transactions tab.
- [ ] On day 7, open Monthly Budget and circle the category that surprised you.
- [ ] Choose one small swap for next week.

Step 2: Give Every Dollar a Job

Money with no plan doesn't sit still. It wanders off. Giving each dollar a purpose before the month starts means you decide where it goes, instead of the month deciding for you. That's what stewardship looks like on paper.

Your action steps

- [ ] List your income and bills, with giving first.
- [ ] Plan an amount for groceries, gas and fun.
- [ ] Add one sinking fund for something you know is coming.
- [ ] Check Left to give a job on Setup. Aim for zero.

Step 3: The 10-Minute Sunday Check-In

A budget isn't a one-time event. It's a weekly conversation. Ten minutes once a week keeps small slips from turning into month-end panic.

Your action steps

- [ ] Pick your check-in time, like Sunday afternoon with coffee.
- [ ] Log any missed purchases and check off what shows on your bank.
- [ ] Look at the Check Against Your Bank box.
- [ ] Write one line in your Provision Log.

Questions & Quick Fixes

Do I need a Google account?

Yes, a free one.

Can I use it on my phone?

Yes, in the Google Sheets app, though setup is easier on a computer.

I missed two weeks. Now what?

Not perfectly. Faithfully. Log what you remember and pick up from today.

A row says Check category.

Choose the category from the dropdown so it matches your list.

It's a new year.

Make a fresh copy from your link and type the new year on Setup.
