How To Use This Calendar

Step 1: Get Your Bazi Chart Plotted

Go to <http://bazi-calculator.com> to help you plot out your birthchart. Don't let the complexity of the calculator scare you off. Put in your date of birth, hour of birth (if you don't know the hour, you can note that you don't know on the calculator, you don't need to have your birth hour calculated in order to use this calendar).

Note down your gender (male and female charts are different) - this is important!

Make sure you check off the "Pillars : English" and uncheck 'Date to Compare'.

Once you have hit 'Calculate' it will display your birth chart at the bottom of the page. Now write down your Day, Month and Year information in the graph below.

Hour	Day	Month	Year
				HEAVENLY STEM
				EARTHLY BRANCH

Step 2: Cross out your Clash Days (Personal Break Days)

These are the days where the animal sign in your Year Pillar (also known as your Astrological Animal) clashes with the animal sign of the day. Based on the notes below, check what is the animal sign you're in direct clash with, go through the calendar and cross these dates off as they won't be strong dates for important activities.

ALSO note which is the MONTH that clashes with your Astrological Animal and not make any big decisions that much.

Rat	子	↔	午	Horse
Ox	丑	↔	未	Goat
Tiger	寅	↔	申	Monkey
Rabbit	卯	↔	酉	Rooster
Dragon	辰	↔	戌	Dog
Snake	巳	↔	亥	Boar

Step 3: Determine your Direct and Indirect Wealth Days (for your financially-important days)

Direct Wealth Days are great for career-related activities (ie. Job interviews, asking for promotion) and Indirect Wealth Days are great for business or investment-related activities.

Look at the element of your Day Stem (you'll want to be looking at the upper box of the Day Stem and use the chart on the right to determine your Direct Wealth and Indirect Wealth Days.

DAY STEM	DIRECT WEALTH	INDIRECT WEALTH
Yang Wood	Yin Earth	Yang Earth
Yin Wood	Yang Earth	Ying Earth
Yang Fire	Yin Metal	Yang Metal
Yin Fire	Yang Metal	Yin Metal
Yang Earth	Yin Water	Yang Water
Yin Earth	Yang Water	Yin Water
Yang Metal	Yin Wood	Yang Wood
Yin Metal	Yang Wood	Yin Wood
Yang Water	Yin Fire	Yang Fire
Yin Water	Yang Fire	Yin Fire

Step 4: Determine your Heavenly Doctor Days for your health-related activities

BIRTH MONTH	HEAVENLY DOCTOR STAR
TIGER	OX
RABBIT	TIGER
DRAGON	RABBIT
SNAKE	DRAGON
HORSE	SNAKE
GOAT	HORSE
MONKEY	GOAT
ROOSTER	MONKEY
DOG	ROOSTER
PIG	DOG
RAT	PIG
OX	RAT

Step 5: Look Into 6 Harmony Combinations

Use this chart as your guideline to choose dates that give you bit of a boost (as long as your astrological friend is having a good year) - refer to the annual astrological wheel.

28 Constellations

The Twenty-Eight Constellations are actual constellations of stars in the sky.

The ancient Europeans weren't the only ones to watch the sky and have constellations like Orion, Aquarius etc. The ancient Chinese did the same, only difference is that they have different patterns! Use these 28 constellations for your date selection.

PLEASE NOTE : These guidelines for which constellations are good for which activities are simply guidelines.

If the Day Officers are good, it's not a personal clash and no negative energies (Month Breaker / Year Beaker, Month 3 Killing etc), then it's still a very usable date)

Monthly Flying Star Feng Shui Energies

This calendar also includes the monthly flying star charts for each month, and I've noted when the new month starts based on the Chinese Calendar both above the flying star grids as well as on the calendar itself (marked with a red box).

Each number in the flying star chart holds a dominant energy, positive or negative. Be vigilant if your main door, kitchen or bedroom is visible by inauspicious energy for the month. Refer to the guidelines below on how you can update your feng shui placements to ensure you make use of the good monthly stars, and protect yourself from the less auspicious monthly energies.

#1 holds prosperous energy for wealth, and can boost creativity. INCREASE usage here.

#2 will have negative impact on your health, you'll likely feel tired, stressed out or be sickly. Try to use different room if possible.

#3 will trigger more conflicts and arguments, even legal trouble. General remedy is with some yellow.

#4 promotes scholarly and creative pursuits, can also boost love luck. INCREASE usage in this space but be careful if you're married / in a committed relationship so as not to trigger third party.

#5 has malevolent energies that can cause general challenges, loss, mishaps and illness. This needs to be tamed with a permanent salt cure.

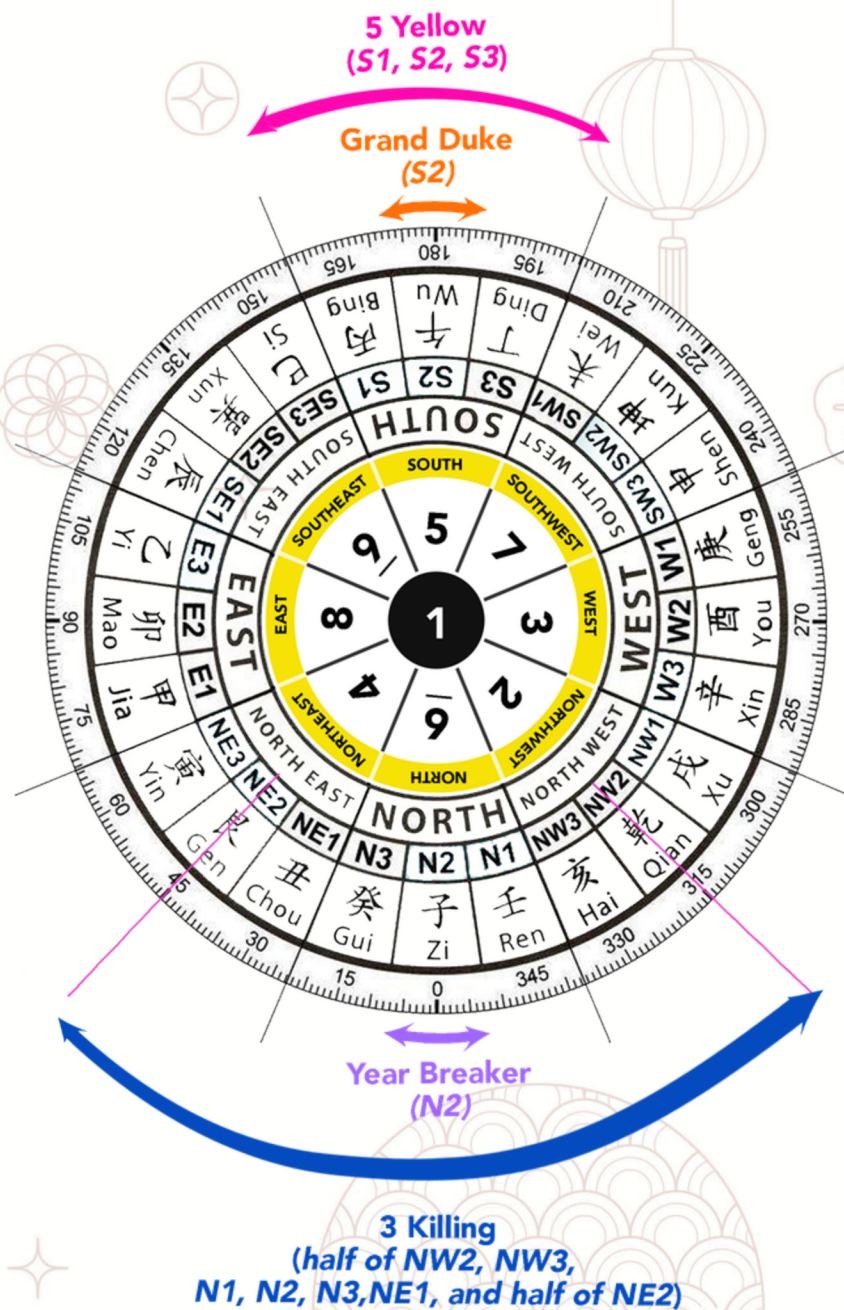

#6 can help you gain recognition and support from those who can help you progress, especially in your career. Use this space more for the month.

#7 usually means backstabbing, robberies, emotional turbulence and illness. REMEDY with stagnant water (NOT moving) or more blues here.

#8 we now consider as weakening wealth star, though still usable. Spend as much time here and keep the light on as much as possible EXCEPT when it visits the Southwest and South and South in 2026.

#9 is known as THE wealth star as we go into Period 9. You can activate it by increasing usage and keeping this space brightly lit as much as possible EXCEPT when it visits South and Southwest in 2026.
