Overview

Smart Beauty Revolution uses cookies and similar technologies to improve the user experience on our website smartbeautyrevolution.com, provide personalized services, and analyze traffic. This policy explains what cookies are, how we use them, and how you can manage your preferences.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that websites can store on a user's device when they visit the site. Cookies are widely used to make websites work more efficiently and to provide information to site owners.

How do we use cookies?

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential to allow users to navigate the site and use its features. Without these cookies, services such as managing purchases or accessing secure areas cannot be provided.

Performance Cookies

These cookies collect information about how users interact with the site, such as which pages are visited most frequently. This data helps us optimize the website and make navigation easier.

Functionality Cookies

These cookies allow the site to remember choices made by users (such as language or region) and provide enhanced, personalized features.

Targeting or Advertising Cookies

These cookies are used to display ads relevant to the user's interests, to limit the number of times an ad is shown, and to help measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns. This site uses Meta Pixel (Facebook) for this purpose.

How to manage cookies

You can control and manage cookies through your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to refuse all cookies or accept only some. Please note that if you block all cookies, some parts of our site may not function as intended.

Changes to This Cookie Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time. We encourage users to review this page regularly to stay informed about how we use cookies.
