

Terms & Conditions

Agreement to Terms

By enrolling in the Executive Brand Accelerator (“Program”), you agree to the following Terms & Conditions, which govern your participation.

Scope of Services

The Company (A Vita Group / AVSuccess) will provide the Client with the Program deliverables as described in the Statement of Work, proposal, or sales materials. The Company does not directly manage, upload, or post content to third-party platforms (e.g., LinkedIn, social media) on the Client’s behalf. The Client is responsible for implementation.

Fees & Payment

Program fees are due in full at the time of enrollment, unless a written payment plan has been agreed. All fees are non-refundable. The Client acknowledges that this policy is necessary due to the proprietary nature of the Company’s processes, intellectual property, and allocation of resources.

No Refund Policy

All sales are final. No refunds, partial refunds, or cancellations will be issued once payment is received. In cases of payment plans, the Client remains responsible for completing all scheduled payments.

Revisions

The Program includes up to two rounds of revisions on core deliverables (e.g., written copy, branding materials). Additional revisions beyond this scope may be subject to additional fees.

Client Responsibilities

The Client agrees to provide timely information, feedback, and materials necessary for completion of deliverables. Delays caused by the Client (e.g., failure to respond, missing materials) may impact timelines. The Company is not liable for missed deadlines due to Client delay.

Intellectual Property

All frameworks, processes, and templates remain the intellectual property of the Company. The Client receives a limited, non-transferable license to use materials delivered for their own business or personal branding. Resale or distribution without written permission is prohibited unless covered by a separate licensing agreement.

Limitation of Liability

The Company will not be liable for indirect, incidental, or consequential damages arising from the Program. The Client accepts full responsibility for implementing strategies and acknowledges that results may vary.

Jurisdiction

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Wisconsin, United States. Venue for any disputes shall be in Ozaukee County, Wisconsin.

Acceptance

By enrolling in the Program and submitting payment, the Client acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agreed to these Terms & Conditions. All sales are final and no refunds will be issued.