

TACTICAL COURTROOM BINDER SYSTEM[™]

“THIS ISN'T PAPERWORK.
THIS IS ARMOR.”

TACTICAL COURTROOM BINDER SYSTEM

Tactical Courtroom Binder System™

“This isn’t paperwork. This is armor.”

The Tactical Courtroom Binder System™ is your physical war file. It shows the judge, attorneys, and opposing party that you are prepared, organized, and credible. This system prevents confusion and projects command presence.

Section 1: Required Supplies

Gather the following physical items:

- 1 Black 3-inch D-ring binder (professional, not flashy)
- 8-10 tabbed dividers
- Plastic sheet protectors
- Hole puncher (for scanned evidence)
- Label maker or printed labels
- Sticky notes for last-minute notes/flags

Section 2: Binder Tab Structure

Use these tabs in the following order:

- 00 – Cover Sheet (Name, Case #, Contact Info)
- 01 – Timeline Overview
- 02 – Accusation Summary + Responses
- 03 – Screenshots (Text, Social Media, Emails)
- 04 – Police Reports / CPS Documentation
- 05 – Financial Statements / Support Records
- 06 – Visitation Logs / Calendars
- 07 – Witness Letters / Affidavits
- 08 – Court Orders / Filings
- 09 – Closing Statement + Supporting Documents

Section 3: Presentation Tips

- Never shuffle papers in court — know which tab holds what.
- Label everything clearly, including sub-documents inside sheet protectors.
- Use bullet points on your timeline and responses — judges don't read essays.
- Place a copy of your Mirror Test or Anchor Phrases inside the front cover.
- Do not include emotional rants, journal entries, or texts that make you look unstable.

Section 4: Final Readiness Check

- ☐ Cover sheet printed and inserted?
- ☐ All sections tabbed and labeled?
- ☐ All evidence printed, punched, and filed?
- ☐ Sticky notes for any key questions or flags?
- ☐ Binder stored in weather-proof bag with pens, notepad, ID, and backup USB?
