Reading passage: Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

Now they came to Jericho. As He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the road begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

Then many warned him to be quiet; but he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called. Then they called the blind man, saying to him, “Be of good cheer. Rise, He is calling you.” And throwing aside his garment, he rose and came to Jesus.

So Jesus answered and said to him, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

The blind man said to Him, “Rabboni, that I may receive my sight.”

Then Jesus said to him, “Go your way; your faith has made you well.” And immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus on the road.

Mark 10: 46 - 52

Questions to Discuss

Have you ever needed to ask God for something with all your heart?

Why is it sometimes hard to believe what we can't see?

What does spiritual blindness mean to you?

Have you ever been “blind” to something?

What does “faith” mean in your own life?

Relevant Scriptures

Jesus said, “For judgement I came into this world, that those who do not see may see, and those who see may become blind.”

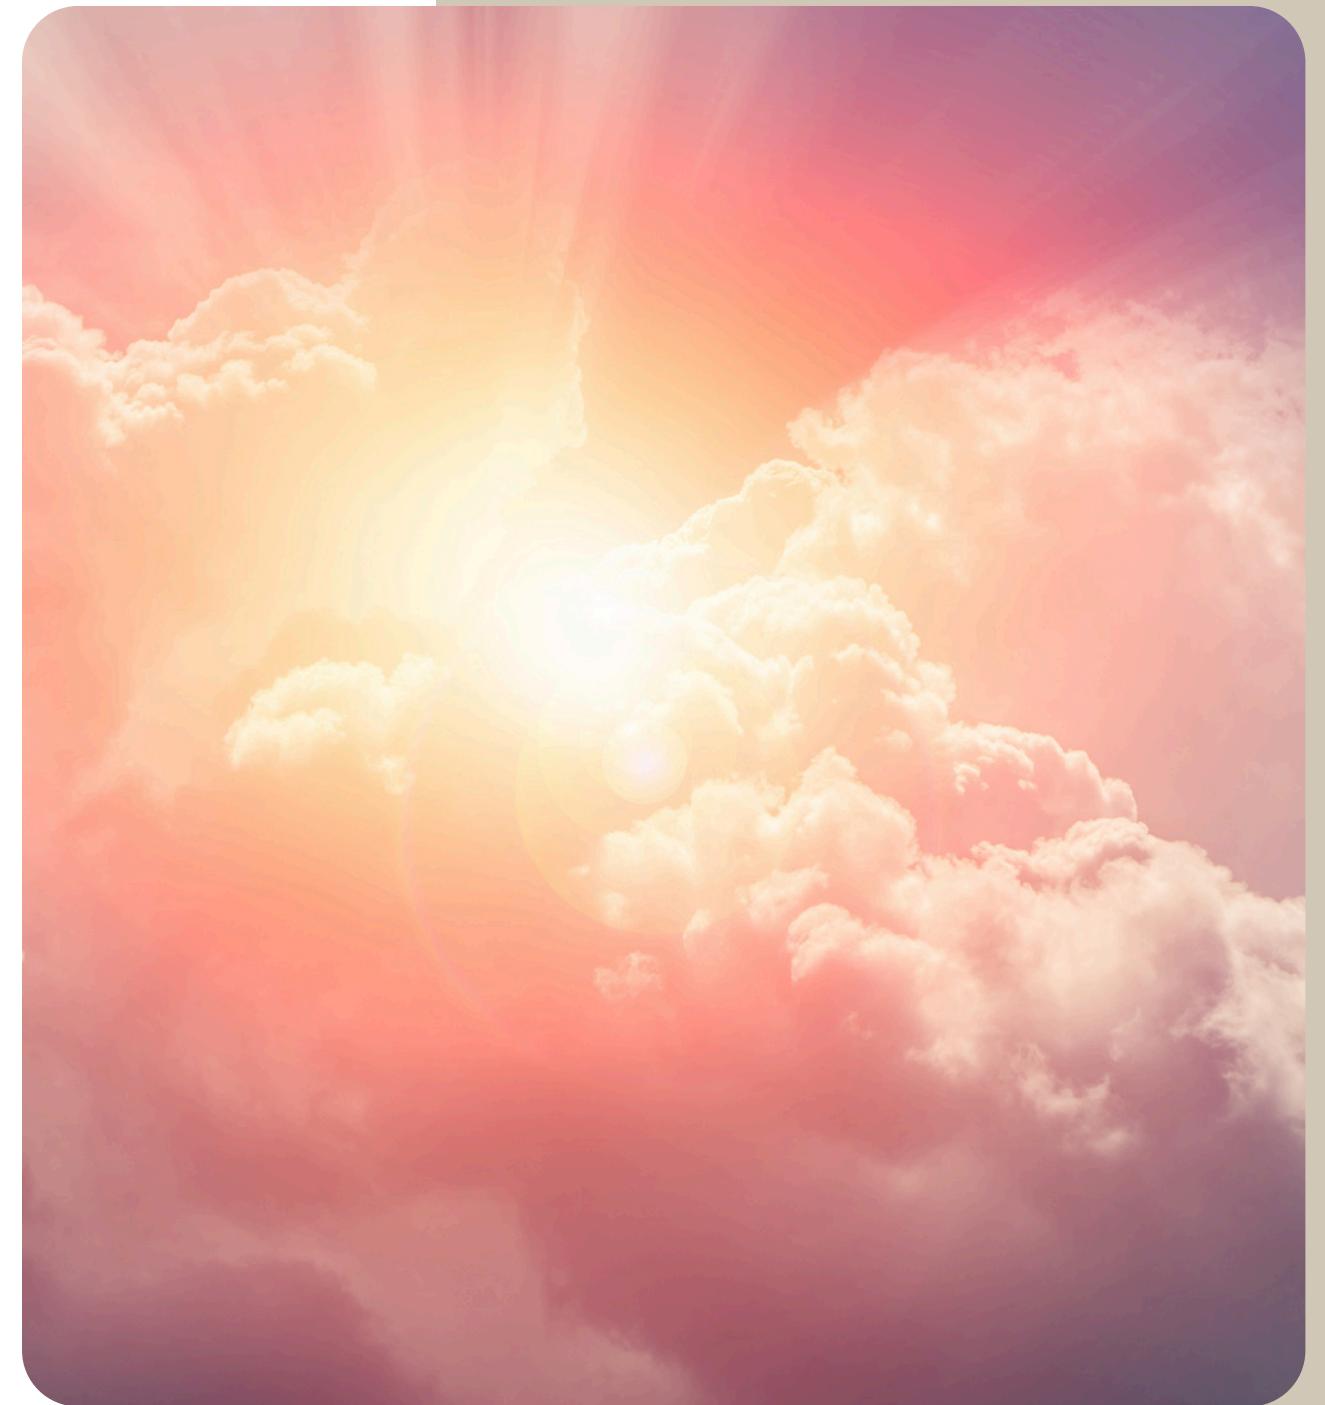

John 9:39

“He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, lest they see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and turn, and I would heal them.”

John 12:40

In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

2 Corinthians 4:4

Departing Thoughts

Bartimaeus teaches us that even when others tell us to be quiet, we must keep calling on Jesus.

Faith is not only belief - it is action.

Jesus hears us, sees us, and He responds when we call out in faith. May we always behold his glory - eyes wide open with clear vision.

Closing Prayer

Lord Jesus, thank You for Your mercy and love. Like Bartimaeus, we want to follow You with open eyes and hearts full of faith. Strengthen our belief and help us keep on calling Your name. Jesus! Jesus! Son of David!

Help us see with our hearts, look beyond our own needs, and show compassion and love towards others, possibly helping them find their true vision through Your loving kindness. In the mighty name of Jesus.
Amen.
