

I have a HAM/amateur radio license and equipment:	I have advanced first aid or medical training (beyond basic CPR & first aid):
I have experience fixing small engines, electrical wiring, or setting-up alternative energy systems:	I have experience in conflict resolution, grief counselling or community organizing:
I know how to inspect structural, gas or electrical systems for safety:	I have a chainsaw and am comfortable cutting hazard trees and removing debris:
I am a long distance runner and could carry messages if roads are not travel-able:	I have experience in organizing events or groups:
I have experience caring for the very young or the elderly:	I have experience in fire suppression:
I speak another language & could be a translator:	I know how to set-up improvised water filtration systems:
I have another valuable post disaster skill not listed here, it is: (can add multiple on back of sheet)	I grow, wild forage, or hunt/fish, and could supply food for others in a crisis: