You're not just an agent, you're the brand, the boss, the empire.

About Medlife Holidays

Medlife Holidays was born out of two travel-obsessed directors with different passports but the same mission: to make booking holidays smarter, bolder, and way more personal.

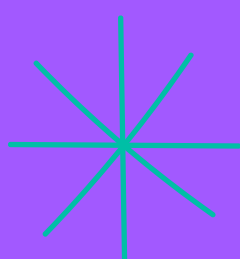

Janine, originally from South Wales, has lived and breathed travel for over 20 years. She started as a holiday rep in Malia, became a destination manager for Kosmar Holidays in Greece, moved into hotel contracting, and eventually into business coaching. Today, as a certified Business & Entrepreneurship Coach, she helps others build their own travel empires through our Medlife Homeworking programme, while steering Medlife Holidays itself.

Emre, based in Turkey, brings over a decade of experience running a leading Destination Management Company. He's handled everything from excursions to transfers, ground ops to hotel services, and knows Turkey inside out. Thanks to him, our customers don't just get amazing value, they get unbeatable support on the ground.

Together, Janine and Emre combined UK travel know-how, Greek island living, and Turkish hospitality to build something different: a travel company that's personal, flexible, and future-proof.

We're not backed by shareholders or corporate targets. We're backed by experience, passion, and people who genuinely care.

From Cardiff to Kos, from sunshine getaways to destination weddings in Rhodes, Medlife gives you more than just a booking. We give you confidence, flexibility, and real support from people who know both the industry - and the destinations -inside out.

Why Medlife Homeworking Exists!

BECAUSE THE TRAVEL INDUSTRY NEEDED A SHAKE-UP.

Too many companies are still stuck in the 90s! Clunky systems, generic websites, agents treated like numbers, and customers left with nothing but call-centre scripts. We knew there had to be a better way. Medlife was built to change that.

We believe:

- Travel should be personal. Not a copy-and-paste package.
- Agents deserve better. Real tools, real freedom, and proper support.
- Customers want confidence. Protection, value, and people who actually know the destinations.
- Business should be human. Less corporate jargon, more connection.

We don't answer to shareholders. We don't push sales targets. We answer to our agents, our customers, and the destinations we love.

We're not just here to book holidays. We're here to:

- Empower agents to build businesses they're proud of.
- Support customers with boots-on-the-ground expertise.
- Modernise how holidays are sold - smarter, faster, bolder.

Medlife isn't just another travel brand.

It's a movement.

And if you're reading this, you're already part of it.

Earnings & Commissions

Every holiday you book earns commission. On average, that's about 12% of the total booking. At Medlife, you keep 80% of that. No tiers, no confusing splits, no fine print.

Real examples:

- Family package - £2,800 holiday → £336 commission → £268.80 goes to you
- City break + extras - £1,200 holiday → £144 commission + transfers/parking → £115-150 in total
- Wedding group - 30 guests booking through you → wedding, packages, hotels, transfers → £3,400+ in earnings for you!

And it's not just holidays. You'll also earn on:

- Airport parking and hotels
- Transfers and excursions
- Attraction tickets
- Weddings and honeymoons

These extras stack up quickly and can turn an average booking into a great one.

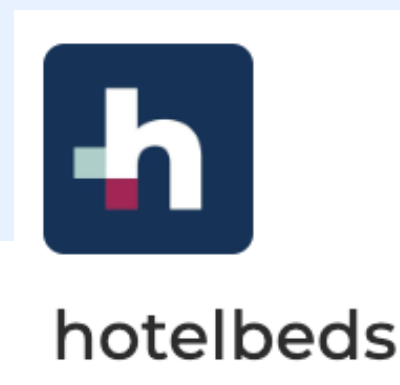

The reality

One decent booking a week easily covers your monthly fee. Three or more a week and you're well on your way to building a serious income. Groups, weddings, retreats - that's where it grows fast. With Medlife, you're not just selling holidays. You're building a business with real earning power.

Our Travel Partners

When you join Medlife, you're not restricted to a handful of partners. We work with over 200 suppliers, and that list is always growing. From mainstream tour operators to luxury brands, niche specialists, cruise lines, and attraction providers, you'll have the freedom to sell the holidays your clients actually want.

Here are just a few of the names you'll have at your fingertips: And if a client asks for a company we don't already have on our books? We'll do our best to bring them onboard. That's the flexibility you get with Medlife, the kind you'll struggle to find anywhere else.

Annual MedLife Takeoff™

NOT A CONFERENCE. AN EXPERIENCE.

Every year we bring our agents together in either Rhodes or Turkey for four days that are part training, part celebration, and part holiday. Forget hotel ballrooms and boring PowerPoints - this is hands-on, energising, and built to give you more than notes in a folder.

Think of it as a travel festival for business owners.

WHAT'S ON THE LINE-UP:

 Supplier Speed Dating

 Content Creation Day

 Masterclasses

 Fam Trips & Site Visits

 Awards & Party Night

You'll leave with bookings lined up, content for months, insider supplier knowledge, and a network of fellow agents who actually get it.

This isn't about ticking a training box. It's about giving you the tools, energy, and connections to take your travel business up a level - and having a bloody good time while you do it.

Medlife vs The Rest

Not all travel business models are created equal. Some will charge you eye-watering fees upfront. Others will tie you to their brand, limit which suppliers you can use, or keep half your commission for themselves.

At Medlife, we've built something different. We keep it simple, transparent, and fair. You pay a low setup and monthly fee, you keep 80% of your commission, and you get the tools and training you actually need to succeed - including a fully bookable website worth £3,500+.

Company	Setup Fee	Monthly Fee	Commission Split	Bookable Website	Supplier Access	What You Actually Get
Medlife	£299	£119	80%	YES – worth £3,500+ included	Unlimited (via PTS, can onboard new ones)	Modern training (SEO, Insta, AI), direct mentorship,
The Good Travel Agent	£5,995	£149	75%	Yes (basic)	Fixed list (Advantage Travel Partnership only)	Generic “academy” modules, admin support, heavy franchise structure
InteleTravel	£142	£32	~70%	NO	Limited list (and no TUI)	MLM-style model, capped suppliers, dated systems
Not Just Travel (Lite)	£2,995	£299	50%	NO	Limited, upsold tiers	Entry-level training, heavy upselling culture
Not Just Travel (Elite)	£14,995	£99	60%	NO	Limited, upsold tiers	Franchise-style control, extra fees for features
Not Just Travel (Enterprise)	£29,995	£99	75%	NO	Limited, upsold tiers	Eye-watering buy-in, still no bookable site
Hays Travel Homeworking	£8,000 + VAT	£65	30–60%	NO	Hays only	Big-brand backing but no freedom, restrictive

The Difference at a Glance

- Franchises – Long contracts, thousands upfront, strict branding, constant upsells.
- Traditional hosts – Basic websites, dated training, limited suppliers.
- Medlife – £299 setup, £119/month, 80% commission, supplier freedom, bookable website, modern training, real support.

Why it matters

One £2,000 booking with Medlife puts £240 in your pocket. With some of the others, you'd be lucky to see half of that. And none of them will give you a bookable site that works while you sleep.

So the choice is simple:

Pay thousands to build someone else's brand.

Or pay hundreds to build your own empire.

Investment & Next Steps

We like to keep things simple. There are no hidden extras, no surprise “bolt-ons,” and no upselling. Just one clear package that gives you everything you need to build your travel business.
