BLOOMING DEPARTURE

by Eric Dobyne

This year, as in every year in June, the Levey tree will lose its eighth grade leaves. This year we are unusually regretful to be leaving. We try to remember that there will be new leaves growing next year, but it doesn't help. The swift glide to the ground is almost over and seems to be growing fast.

As I look back on this fruitful growing season, I remember the highlights, such as: computer Games, Open Gym, Dances, The Cabaret special assemblies, talent show, and field day. Yet, we want you to remember that although the leaves blow away, they will always remember their roots.

JUST A SONG BEFORE WE GO ...

by Staff

"A Song", you say? Well, the eighth grade will be rocking to Southfield High School. Although we hate to say good-bye to Levey, we wish all the 6th and 7th graders good luck.

We have provided a song title for every eighth grader. Some are old while others are current. We hope you enjoy them and don't take them too seriously. On a final note, we will be "Movin' On."

Levey Won't Be The Same Without...

By Staff

1. Duminie Allen talking about Jimi Hendrix and rock-n-roll.
2. Barrett Hairston's severe bow leggedness.
3. Rod Hurst getting his hat taken away
4. Brad Jackson talking about the Falkland Islands.
5. Phil Jackson wearing gym shorts on his head.
6. Dennis Myers getting green passes from science.
7. Mike Scarvelis talking about his old 1912 rusted-out, blue van with two wheels missing.
8. Rodney Shane's old gym shoes.
9. Reggie Slappy and Ron Turner always getting the school track record.
10. Darryl Smith talking back to Mr. Zatolokin.
11. Seeing kids get sick after lunch.
12. The clean-scented, springtime fresh, lavatories.
13. The fire drills in 20^o mid - winter.

HOORAY FOR MR. HAVER

By: Lisa Cohen

Mr. Haver was born in 1933 in Detroit. He has 3 children. His two boys are 16 and 23 years old. His only daughter is 21 and is presently attending college.

Our vice-principal has many hobbies. He enjoys sailing on his sailboat. He is also a M.T.S.A. certified pianist and plays for large bands. If you remember, he played the piano when a jazz band came.

From my interview with Mr. Haver, I found that he enjoys kids and his main idea of what he should do in his job is not to yell at and suspend us. He is here to help any of us when we need it, and is always here for each and everyone of us.

Mr. Haver is always happy to listen and give advice when we need it, in conclusion, don't think he preys on green passes - he doesn't. Behind a gloomy office and a stern face is a bright happy smile and open arms awaiting!

What Levey Teachers Do After Hours...

By the Staff

Mr. Barker thinks up a new sentence for kids who forget their free reading book.

Mrs. BeBeau watches Kermit on the Muppets.

Mr. Benedict rips apart his car, then welds it back together again.

Mr. Dolan lives up to being the sixth grade heart throb.

Mr. Foster Practices looking mean.

Mr. Haas listens to his psychedelic group called the "Electric Prunes."

Mr. Haver actually plays with his Irish Setter.

Mr. Lublin totals up how many kids he has caught running in the halls.

Mr. McDowell plays golf ... but we don't know how well.

Mrs. McNabb plays with her Newfoundlands, Zac and Febi.

Mrs. Siegal and Mrs. Serwer (Miss Benjamin) talk to each other all night on the telephone.

Mrs. Simon burns her dinner.

Mr. D. Taylor snores notes.

Mr. Thompson reads his 1963 joke books.

Mrs. Tolini burns her library card.

Mr. Vosler snares in the mirror practicing his dirty looks.

Mr. Wischer thinks up a plan to make detentions more miserable.

Mr. Wolfe takes his pen to the London Chop House.

Mr. Zatolokin plays with his cute kids.

From The Lounge

by Tamie Hendrickson

Teachers here at Levey have it really rough. They listen to stupid and unnecessary questions constantly. Here are some examples:

Student: Can I sharpen my pencil?

Mr. Barker: Why? You don't use it anyway.

Student: Are we going to run today?

Mr. Bodzick: No, We're going to play hopscotch.

Student: Oh, come on, give us a break!

Mr. Kaczander: I'd love to, your arms, legs, and ribs

Student: Mr. Lien, do you have any kids?

Mr. Lien: No, I'm afraid they will grow up like you.

Student: Are we supposed to write this in French?

Mr. Schlieff: No, we are going to write it in Russian Student: Mr. Walker, what should I make today?

Mr. Walker: Why don't you make self a brain?

Student: Are we doing Math today?

Mr. Zatolokin: No, we're to have Potato Salad.

The mistakes in this paper are there for a reason; we try to have something for everyone and some people are looking for mistakes.
