“Offending the Grand Duke” can mean misfortune or conflict. But this year, it’s not bringing doom; it brings duty and power.

Horse in a Horse year means you stand at the centre of the Fire element, the most dynamic and visible position of all.

General Star: Blessings with leadership, confidence, and courage. Step up, make decisions, and take charge, not retreat. The more you act with integrity and clarity, the more the world respects you.

Monkey

In 2026, Monkey faces an energetic year of movement, travel, and earned success. The "Double Fire" can be exhausting for the Monkey, but it provides the "heat" necessary to forge raw talents into something more valuable and powerful.

Stagnation is the enemy; move and adapt, and you will achieve more.

Long-distance romances or meeting someone while travelling are highly likely.

The Monkey and the Horse are both high-energy signs, but they can clash if both want to lead.

2026 can be exciting for the Monkey if willpower and intelligence are put to good use.

Sky Horse: star of travel, career advancement, and expansion into new environments.

In ancient times, it was known as the "travelling artist".

It symbolises expanding influence beyond borders. Excellent for an international audience & online business.

Intelligent Star: represents innovation, intellectual clarity, and strategic breakthroughs.

Mastering technology, communication, and AI innovation, the Monkey has the learning capacity and creativity to be among the most capable of riding the wave of technological evolution.

Separating Edge: Forces temporary isolation or separation, often due to external misunderstandings.

Feeling wrongly judged, undervalued, or distanced from those you care about.

Solitary Star: Unlike Separating Edge, Solitary Star is a self-imposed distance. It arises when you withdraw too deeply into peace or reflection, leading others to misread your silence.

Balance solitude with connection. Schedule quiet time but maintain visibility and collaboration.

Funeral Door & Earth Funeral: Emotional endings or the closure of old cycles.

Sadness, fatigue, or a sense of loss, not necessarily personal tragedy, but rather endings in your circle, such as a friend's job loss or the closure of a project.

Energy hygiene: meditation, salt baths, and time outdoors.

Schedule rest, maintain proper sleep, and avoid absorbing too much negative news or energy from grief.

Your most tremendous success lies in adaptability and innovation.

Stay curious, mobile, and focused, and you'll turn this Fire Horse year into a defining chapter of reinvention.

The 5 energy is draining and disruptive, causing frustration, dullness, and poor judgment. In 2026, avoid disturbing the South sector at all costs. This area brings obstacles, delays, negativity, and disruption—especially for those sleeping there. If your front entrance faces south, keep it closed and avoid slamming doors. This energy is stronger than last year and must be remedied. It can cloud thinking, trigger irritation, bad financial decisions, gambling tendencies, depression, and a false sense of invincibility. People with tyrannical tendencies may overstep and damage their reputation. Keep the South quiet, peaceful, clutter-free, and avoid construction or major activity. To avoid delays and unforeseen issues in 2026, limit the time working or sleeping in the South sectors. If unavoidable, use Metal remedies, saltwater cure, or metal sounds.

This energy can manifest as stolen ideas, back-stabbing, scandals, financial losses, cash-flow issues, and even carelessness or robbery.

Last year, the Southwest was highly auspicious, but in 2026, it's best to spend less time in this area to reduce conflict and strained relationships—especially with colleagues.

If unavoidable, be mindful of your words, as communication can easily escalate. To lessen the inauspiciousness, place three lucky bamboo in water or three white orchids.

Add blue tones (art or décor)

If your front door is in the Southwest, strengthen security to protect your assets. If this is your bedroom, practice kindness and care in communication with your partner.

On the positive side, Star 7 can enhance courage and verbal confidence.

It is beneficial for public speakers, sales, presenters, pitchmen, beauty professionals, and those who rely on their voice.

Use this area for rehearsing speeches, TED talks and presentations—but not for long-term activity.

SOUTH

Star 5

To remedy
the WORST energy for 2026

Make the Saltwater Remedy and place it in the SOUTH.

Saltwater Remedy

How to Make It

Fill a glass jar (a jam jar works well) with sea salt until it is about three-quarters full.
Sea salt is traditionally believed to absorb and purify unsupportive energy.

Place six coins on top of the salt.

Ensure the coins are heads up, showing the side with four Chinese characters.
If Chinese coins are unavailable, you may use any round metal coins, placed heads-up.

Carefully add tap water until it reaches just below the coins.

Place a mat or coaster under the jar to protect furniture or flooring.

What to Expect

Crystals will begin to form shortly.

This is considered a sign that the remedy is working and cleansing the chi.

Try not to touch or move the jar unnecessarily,
as it is believed to absorb old or stagnant energy.

Maintenance

Top up the water once a month.

Replace the jar, salt, and coins at the end of each year.

This is a powerful traditional remedy that has revitalized the energy in many homes and offices.

Many people report that the atmosphere feels clearer and lighter very quickly.
