

How to Start Your Real Estate Photography Business This Month

(Even If You're Starting With Just a Camera)

*This isn't about "learning photography."
This is about building a real income stream — starting now.*

MY STORY

A few years ago, I was working in healthcare—burnt out, exhausted, and constantly feeling torn between work and my family.

After I had my kids...
Everything changed.

My priorities shifted in a way I couldn't ignore.

I didn't just want to make money anymore—
I wanted freedom.
Flexibility.

And the ability to actually be present for the moments that matter.

I knew I was meant for more... I just didn't know what that looked like yet.

At the time, I was already doing portrait photography and had a camera.

But when I found real estate
photography, something clicked.

I realized I didn't need to start over—
I just needed to pivot.

I added a wide-angle lens... and that was it.

And within a few years:

I replaced my healthcare income
Then exceeded it

And built a business that works
around my life and my family

This is where everything shifted—from taking photos... to building a business that pays me.

Here's What Actually Gets You Paid in Real Estate Photography

You don't need years of experience.
You don't need a huge investment.
And you don't need to have everything figured out before you start.

You need a simple path—and a decision to start now.

What You Actually Need to Start:

A professional camera
A wide-angle lens (I shoot between 14mm–16mm)
A tripod

That's it.

And This Is What Makes the Biggest Difference:

My business isn't built on constantly chasing clients.

It's built on:

- Relationships
- Consistency
- Referrals
- Providing real value

Because at the end of the day:

Relationships = Revenue

What This Can Look Like for You:

- Booking consistent shoots
- Earning income in a matter of weeks—not years
- Working flexible hours that fit your life
- Growing something that feels aligned and sustainable

You can start this sooner than you think—and get paid faster than you expect.

If You're Thinking...

“Okay... I could actually see myself doing this.”

You're not wrong.
Because there is a clear path to making this work.
