ABOUT ME

Hi, I'm Sheema and this office is part of Supporting Your Journey, based right here at 60 St. Clair Avenue East. I wanted this space to feel less like a rented room and more like somewhere people could actually exhale — and it's that same space I'm now opening up to another practitioner. I'm looking for a therapist or counsellor who'll treat it the way I have: a space for real work, in a calm, professional location just steps from St. Clair station.
