YOUR QUICKSTART GUIDE TO GETTING PAID

FOR NEW PHOTOGRAPHERS READY TO STOP SHOOTING FOR FREE

hi, i'm katrina

I started my photography journey in the world of branding, with a background in fine art and education that deeply shaped how I see and tell stories. Over the past 15 years, I've had the honor of capturing more than 250 weddings and elopements- and today, photography is not just my passion, it's my full-time career. Whether it's an elopement or a wedding day, I bring an intentional, artistic approach to every moment I photograph.

I started here too- unsure what to charge, nervous to call myself a "real" photographer, and just hoping someone would take a chance on me. Fast-forward 15 years, 250+ weddings, and a full-time business later... I created this to be the guide I wish I had when I was starting out. You've got this- now let's get you paid!

What's Inside

SECTION 1

SHIFT YOUR MINDSET — YOU CAN GET PAID

THE MINDSET WORK, FIRST

Let's get one thing clear right away:

You do NOT need a fancy camera, a giant portfolio, or a perfectly designed website to start getting paid.

Seriously. You don't need 10k followers, a logo, or a Pinterest-perfect brand either. Those things can help later, but they're not what gets you booked.

What does? Confidence, clarity, and connection. And we're about to build all three.

Right now, you might be thinking:

- "Who am I to charge for this?"
- "What if I'm not good enough yet?"
- "I'll start once I have more work to show..."

Let me lovingly call that what it is: fear dressed up as procrastination.

The truth is, your people don't need you to be perfect. They just need you to show up, guide them confidently, and deliver what you already know how to do.

What makes me valuable- even as a beginner?

Here are a few prompts to get you started:

- What do people compliment me on?
- What's my superpower behind the lens?
- Why do I love photography and what do I bring to it that others don't?

There's something about you that's magnetic- even if your portfolio isn't full yet.

Mini Mindset Reminders

Write these down or screenshot them:

- "Someone out there needs exactly what I offer- right now."
- "I don't need to be perfect to be valuable."
- "Every expert started as a beginner- and still got paid."
- "Progress over perfection. Always."
- "I get to show up as me- and that's enough."

YOUR FIRST $500 IN BIZ

Here's the thing: Your first $500 isn't just about the money.

It's about momentum.

It's proof that you don't need a full brand or a perfect setup- you just need to start.

That one paid session builds:

- Your confidence
- Your portfolio
- Your reputation
- And your belief that YES, this can be a real business

A QUICK PEEK AT MY STORY

When I started, I had no website, no real pricing, and honestly, no idea what I was doing. But I showed up. I served people well. I treated every shoot like it mattered. And people talked. That's how I booked the next- and the next.

$500 became $1,000. Then $2,000.
Then a full-time business.

SOME PHOTOS I TOOK IN 2008. I WAS THE SOOO PROUD OF THESE TWO!

NOW, IT'S YOUR TURN

You don't need permission.

You just need one person to say yes- and that person is you.

Let's go make that first $500 happen.

SECTION 2

HOW TO MAKE YOUR FIRST $500

WHERE TO START...

You don't need a full calendar or a luxury brand to start making real money. In fact, you can earn your first $500 with just a few simple sessions- even if you're still building your portfolio. Let's break it down.

Here are a few beginner-friendly, low-pressure ways to start charging right now:

Option 1: The Mini Session Stack

Offer a day of short shoots at a lower price point.

- 5 clients at $100 each = $500
- 20 mins per session
- Easy to promote & batch in one day

Option 2: A Full Shoot at Starter Pricing

Just one client can get you halfway there.

- 1 session at $250
- Lifestyle, portrait, engagement, etc.
- Deliver 25-30 images

Option 3: Two Basic Sessions

Book two clients at $150-$175 and you're nearly there.

- 2 sessions at $175 = $350
- Add one more at $150 = $500+
- Spread over a weekend or two

RECAP The $500 Formula (Simple Math)

- There's no one "right" way to earn $500. Here are a few doable paths- choose what fits your style, schedule, and audience:

- The Power of 3
- 3 sessions at $175
- You'll hit your goal in just three bookings, and still keep it beginner-friendly.
- The 2x2 Approach
- 2 sessions at $250
- A higher-ticket offer gives you more margin with less volume.
- The Mini Session Day
- 1 mini day with 5 clients at $100 each
- Batch it in one afternoon, and walk away with $500+ in a day.

Your First $500 Road Map

Think About It

There's no one-size-fits-all way to hit your first $500- and that's the beauty of it. Whether you'd rather book a couple of full sessions or knock out a mini session day, this simple guide helps you choose a path that fits your schedule, skill level, and confidence. Use the worksheet to plug in your own pricing, set your goal, and take the guesswork out of getting paid.

Goal	Plan	Result
Want quick cash?	5 mini sessions at $100	$500 in a day
Want fewer clients?	2 full sessions at $250	$500, less editing
Building portfolio?	3 starter sessions at $175	$525 and momentum

Use the worksheet on the next page to map out your first paid offers and take clear, confident action.

Roadmap to $500 Worksheet

STEP 1: Choose Your Offer Type

Circle or check the one(s) that feel most doable for you.

- Starter Sessions — $150–175 each (45 mins, 15–20 images)

STEP 2: Do the Math

Offer Type	Price per Client	# of Clients Needed	Total

STEP 3: Brainstorm Your First 5 People

Who could you reach out to today about this offer?

Roadmap to $500 Worksheet

STEP 5: Commit to Action

"This week, I will _____ to book my first paid session."

STEP 6: Your Custom Plan

Goal: Book _____ clients

Total goal: $ _____

YOU'VE GOT THIS — KEEP IT SIMPLE, STAY FOCUSED, AND GO MAKE THAT FIRST $500!

SECTION 3

WHAT TO OFFER (KEEP IT SIMPLE)

WHAT TO OFFER

Getting started doesn't mean you need a huge portfolio or fancy studio. What you do need is a simple, clear offer that people can say "yes" to without overthinking.

Here are 3 beginner-friendly photography services that are easy to sell — and easy for you to deliver:

1. Family or Couples Shoots

Perfect for: Families, engagements, anniversaries, or just "because."

Why it sells: People always want updated photos of their loved ones. You don't need a studio— just a nice park, beach, or urban backdrop.

Plug-and-Play Offer Example:

☛ "1 hour shoot, 10 edited photos, $150"

Simple, affordable, and emotionally valuable.

2. Lifestyle/Content Shoots for Small Businesses

Perfect for: Local businesses, solo entrepreneurs, fitness coaches, stylists, influencers, etc.

Why it sells: Every small biz needs fresh content for Instagram, websites, and marketing— but most don't have the time or eye for it.

Plug-and-Play Offer Example:

☛ "60-minute brand shoot, 12 edited content images, $175"

Quick, useful, and easy to book monthly or quarterly.

3. Mini Sessions

Perfect for: Budget-conscious clients, busy families, or themed holiday sessions.

Why it sells: These are short, lower-cost sessions that let you book several clients in one day. Great for building your portfolio and your income.

Plug-and-Play Offer Example:

☛ "20-minute mini session, 5 edits, $75"

Offer 4–6 time slots back-to-back for max efficiency.

💡 How to Describe Your Offers

Keep your offer description short, clear, and benefits-focused. Use this simple formula:

[Length of shoot] + [# of edited images] + [price]

+ mention the type of shoot + what it's good for

Example:

"A 1-hour shoot for couples or families, includes 10 professionally edited images. Perfect for anniversaries, holidays, or just making memories— $150."

The Starter Pricing Guide + Calculator

Step 1: Estimate Your Time: Think about everything involved in ONE client shoot—not just the session.

Example:

- Prep: 30 mins
- Shoot: 1 hour
- Edit + Deliver: 2 hours
- Total = 3.5 hours

TASK	TIME ESTIMATE	NOTES
ACTUAL SHOOT TIME	_____ HRS	(E.G., 1 HOUR)
EDITING TIME	_____ HRS	(E.G., 1.5 HOURS FOR 10 IMAGES)
PREP & COMMUNICATION	_____ HRS	(EMAILS, PLANNING, SHOT LIST, ETC.)
TRAVEL TIME	_____ HRS	(ROUND TRIP)
TOTAL TIME PER CLIENT	_____ HRS

Step 2: Set Your Hourly Rate

What feels fair for your time right now? (Start simple, you can raise it later.)

Skill Level Suggested Hourly Rate:

Just getting started

$25–$50/hr

Comfortable/confident

$50–$75/hr

Skilled + solid portfolio

$75–$100+

I'M CHOOSING AN HOURLY RATE OF $ _____

The Starter Pricing Guide + Calculator

Step 3: Multiply It Out

Use your total time and hourly rate to find a fair starting price.

Time per shoot: _____ hrs

Hourly rate: $ _____

✓ Suggested price: $ _____

Example: 3.5 hrs × $50/hr = $175

Step 4: Adjust for What's Included

Is your offer basic or packed with extras? Adjust your price slightly.

Package Level	Description	Suggested Range
Basic Session	30–45 min, 10 photos	$75–$150
Full Session	60–90 min, 20+ photos	$150–$250
Premium Offer	2+ hours, extra edits, styling help	$250–$400+

BASED ON MY OFFER, I'M ADJUSTING MY PRICE TO _____

Step 5: Final Check — Does This Feel Right?

RATE YOUR CONFIDENCE LEVEL:

- 1 – TOO HIGH
- 2 – NERVOUS
- 3 – DOABLE
- 4 – CONFIDENT
- 5 – I'M CHARGING IT!

IF YOU'RE AT A 3 OR ABOVE — STICK WITH IT.

IF YOU'RE BELOW A 3, START SLIGHTLY LOWER AND RAISE AFTER 1–2 BOOKINGS.

The Starter Pricing Guide + Calculator

Step 6: Write Your Offer Clearly

Use this plug-and-play format to describe your session.

"I'm offering a [type of shoot] — includes [length of time], [# of edits], delivered via [method] — for $[your price]."

Example: "I'm offering a 45-minute lifestyle shoot with 12 edited photos, delivered in an online gallery — for $150."

Step 7: Set Your $500 Goal

Use your final price to figure out how many bookings you need to hit $500.

YOUR PRICE: $ _____

$500

YOU NEED _____ CLIENTS TO HIT $500

SECTION 4

WHERE TO FIND YOUR FIRST PAYING CLIENT

PAYING CLIENTS

Your next paying shoot could come from someone who already knows you — or someone who just needs to know you exist. Let's break it down.

Start with Friends + Family (But Position It Right)

You're not begging for "practice." You're offering a real service— at a beginner-friendly rate.

Try this wording when reaching out:

"Hey! I'm officially booking beginner-friendly photo sessions! I'm offering a limited number of discounted spots this month while I build my portfolio. If you or someone you know is looking for updated photos (couples, content, family, etc.), I'd love to work with you!"

 Tip: Don't say "free" unless it's a giveaway. If you offer a discount, make it sound limited or exclusive— not like you're unsure of your value. This is sooo important!

Post on Instagram or Facebook

Your personal account is a great place to start. People already follow you — they just need to know you're open for business.

Try this Caption Prompt:

📸 I'm now booking beginner-friendly photoshoots!

Want updated photos for your brand, your relationship, or just for fun?

I'm offering [#] discounted spots this month as I launch my new service.

- ✅ 30–45 min session
 - ✅ 10 edited photos
 - ✅ Delivered in an online gallery
- DM me to grab a spot or ask questions!"

Add a smiling selfie, camera photo, or past work to grab attention.

IG Story Strategy (Simple + Non-Salesy)

Try this 3-frame story formula:

- Frame 1 (Poll or Sticker)

"Would you ever book a quick photo session? 📸"

Options: Yes / Tell me more

- Frame 2 (Your Offer)

"I'm offering beginner-friendly photoshoots this month!"

- ✅ Short + fun sessions
- ✅ Affordable rate
- ✅ 10 edited photos

Spots are limited — DM me if you're interested.

PAYING CLIENTS

- Frame 3 (Call to Action)

Add a question sticker:

"Want more info? Drop your name below 📌"

Local Facebook Groups = Goldmine 💰

Find 2–3 active local groups (neighborhoods, moms, creatives, biz owners).

Use the search bar for: "photographer" or "photoshoot" and reply to open calls.

Or post your own offer:

"Hi neighbors! I'm a beginner photographer offering mini lifestyle sessions this month to grow my portfolio. I've got a few discounted spots available– perfect for couples, creators, or families who want updated photos. Message me if interested– would love to connect!"

Done-for-You: Starter Booking Post (Copy + Paste)

Use this on Facebook, IG, or even email:

"I'm officially opening my calendar for photo sessions! 🎉"

These are beginner-friendly shoots perfect for anyone wanting fresh photos without a big investment.

🌟 Limited spots available

💡 Great for couples, content, or portraits

📍 Location flexible (I have ideas!)

📷 30 mins | 10 edits | $150

If you or someone you know wants updated photos — DM me! Let's make it happen."

Make sure to always write the price, location, and everything the offer includes!

Want to Book Clients Faster?

Inside the Booked in 7 Days Blueprint, I'll show you how to:

- Find hot leads in your DMs
 - Use a booking calendar to stay organized
 - Follow up like a pro (without feeling pushy)
 - Get booked without discounts
- 👉 You've got the basics– now let's get you booked this week.

SECTION 5

WHAT TO SAY
(WITHOUT FEELING SALESY)

WHAT TO SAY

You don't have to be a "salesperson" to book clients.

You just need to sound clear, confident, and like a real human.

Use these plug-and-play scripts when reaching out, replying to inquiries, or confirming bookings.

DM Script to Offer a Session

Use this when reaching out to someone who might be a good fit (friend, local business, etc.):

"Hey! I'm officially booking beginner-friendly photoshoots this month and thought of you. I've got a few spots open for quick, fun sessions— perfect for [couples / content / updated portraits]. Let me know if you'd want details. Would love to work with you!"

When Someone Asks: "How Much Do You Charge?"

Here's a clear way to respond without fumbling:

"Great question! I'm currently offering a beginner-friendly session for $150— that includes 30–45 minutes, 10 edited photos, and a private online gallery. Let me know if you want to grab a spot or if you have any questions!"

💡 Tip: Lead with clarity and end with a soft call to action.

Inquiry Response Script (Someone DMs You First)

"Hey! Thanks so much for reaching out — I'd love to work with you!

Right now, I'm offering sessions for $150. You'll get a fun, relaxed shoot (30–45 min) and 10 edited photos in an online gallery. Let me know if you have a date in mind or want to see some sample work!"

✅ Feel free to tweak for email or text — the tone stays the same: warm + confident.

Optional: Confirmation Message + Payment Script

Once they're ready to book, lock it in with this simple confirmation:

"Amazing— I've got you down for [DATE/TIME]! I'll send a quick confirmation + payment link to hold your spot. You'll also get a short prep guide so you feel totally ready."

Then send your preferred payment method (CashApp, Venmo, PayPal, etc.):

"Here's the payment link to reserve your session: [link or handle]

Let me know once it's sent and I'll mark you as confirmed!"

3 EASY CONVERSATION STARTERS (USE IN STORIES, TEXTS, OR DMS)

- “Hey! Would you or someone you know want fresh photos this month? I’m opening a few beginner-friendly sessions!”
- “Random question- have you ever thought about doing a photoshoot just for fun or content?”
- “I’ve got a couple discounted photo spots open next week- want one?”

These keep things casual and open- not pushy.

PRO TIP: YOU’RE NOT “SELLING,” YOU’RE INVITING

Think of every message as an invitation- not a pitch. You’re not asking for a favor- you’re offering a valuable experience.
