

50 Client- Attracting Content Ideas for Service-Based Businesses

TO MAKE YOUR IDEAL CLIENTS
CRAVE TO WORK WITH YOU

KASIA RUTKOWIAK

My Dear Friend,

I am thrilled that you are looking for ways to attract more clients and, as a result, help more people through your services and with your products!

In case we haven't met yet, I wanted to quickly introduce myself.

My name is Kasia Rutkowiak, and I am The Confidence Magician.

I help female online entrepreneurs learn how to powerfully attract their best clients, create more fulfilling, profitable, and good-feeling businesses, sell with ease, and help more people by doing what they genuinely love. And all that without having to work harder (just the opposite)!

I wholeheartedly believe that putting more success and money in the hands of women by empowering them to share their gifts from a place of feeling confident, worthy, and more than good enough will make this world a better place.

I know that you have SO MUCH to give and that if you allow yourself to fully own who you are and what you do, you can help many more people.

I am here to support you in growing your impact on the world (and the income that comes with it!) in a way that feels entirely authentic, completely natural, and absolutely limitless.

The content ideas and hooks that you will find on the following pages, combined with PRO tips that I have gathered in the first part of this PDF, are a little (but very important!) piece of a puzzle that will help you do just that!

Having worked with dozens of women with incredible visions to do more good in the world, I believe you, too, can feel that you came here to do something meaningful. And even if you have not figured it all out yet, it's okay. It's precisely why I am here!

Privately, I am a mom of 3 and a bonus mom to 3 more amazing humans, a double Frenchie owner, and a Scandinavian design lover fueled by black coffee and good vibes.

If we're not friends on IG yet, please don't be a stranger! Find me at @kasia_theconfidencemagician and let's connect!

10 Pro Tips That Will Make The REAL Difference

Before we dive into the actual content ideas, hooks, and ad examples, let's start with the most important part of this document, which is taking all 50 ideas and making them YOURS. Only this way will you be able to create the shift in your messaging, set yourself apart, and - as a result - help your ideal people find you (and stick around!).

Let's be honest: There are so many similar lists available on social media! Any semi-intelligent person with access to the Internet who has heard of ChatGPT can populate something similar in a matter of minutes.

All these free or paid, shamelessly designed by AI or personally curated by coaches and experts lists, guides, and PDFs are OUT THERE. I have personally seen some that include 1000s of prompts in different variations.

Still, the content ideas alone won't make any difference! All these (and similar) prompts and hooks will NOT positively impact your Social Media presence, nor will they help you attract more and better clients (aka your 5-star, ideal help-seeking humans) if you won't start approaching content creation in a new way.

Below, I have gathered my 10 best pro tips to help you do that.

Please read them AND apply.

Yes, that thing... apply!

Reading through them alone won't help. Saying "I know all this" and NOT taking inventory of your social media presence won't create any difference, while applying it all, bit by bit, will transform how you are being perceived by your audience.

As I believe in a no-BS approach that my ideal people happen to value a lot, I will be completely honest with you.

You reached for this PDF for a reason...

You may want to spend less time creating content.

You may want more or better ideas for daily posts.

You may want to grow your audience on Instagram and/or other platforms.

Most probably, you want to sell more of your services in a way that feels easy and fun, allows you to help more people, and creates the kind of lifestyle you feel drawn to.

For yourself, the people you love, and all the clients who will benefit from your offers.

And if that's the case, please make sure to read carefully and apply those tips.

If you have any questions, DM me on Instagram, and I will be more than happy to help. I could create more content around it that will help you AND other women experiencing similar things.

I REALLY want you to become incredibly successful ASAP.

10 Pro Tips That Will Make The REAL Difference

PRO-TIP #1

Become aware of the narrative you have around creating content. Do you consider it a chore or see it as an opportunity and privilege?

One of the mistakes I made at the beginning of my business a few years back was treating content creation as something “I had to do” instead of something I chose or got to do.

Because of that, I would often procrastinate, look for ideas at the last minute, and generally feel disconnected from the true purpose of creating content, which is creating a deeper CONNECTION with people actively looking for solutions to their problems.

Changing that changed EVERYTHING. Not just the way I feel about creating content but also the energy of my posts, which led to more people reaching out and signing a lot more clients as a result.

Examine your inner dialogue around creating posts, making videos, emailing your list, and all aspects of content creation in your business.

Find a question or a mantra that will inspire you and positively shift your energy. For me, this question is, “How do I want to serve my help-seeking humans TODAY?”.

What can be yours?

Feel free to use mine or come up with your own.

How can I and how do I want to serve my help-seeking humans today?

PRO Tips That Will Make The REAL Difference

PRO TIP #2

INFUSE EVERYTHING YOU POST WITH YOUR UNIQUE, AUTHENTIC ENERGY.

Before sitting down to write content, make sure that you are in the right mind space, energetically and mentally connected to your ideal client, and that you are ready to share from an authentic place.

If so, take one of the above content ideas and play with it, adjusting to your business, audience, and the solutions you offer.

Equally, you can take any other inspiration you've been gathering regularly (because you have, haven't you? :)) and start there.

Once the piece of content is created, ask yourself:

Is this how I usually write, speak, or share?
Would I talk this way to a friend looking for advice?
Is this the vocabulary I usually use?

If you'd normally use "WTF" (see example #34) in a daily conversation with friends or clients, use it in your content (written or spoken). If not - don't.

Embrace who you are and own your unique style.

There are no rules except the one that says you want to be fully authentic.

So just be you and know that it's more than enough.

FACT: Different studies show that regardless of what you do or don't do, say or do not say, 15% - 30% of people will not like you, period.

And it really doesn't matter if you cuss or don't, always wear red lipstick or no makeup at all, speak with a "posh" accent or a foreign one (like me!). Regardless of all that, there's a big part of the population that won't vibe with you.

That being said - those who will, WILL LOVE YOU exactly for those parts of you that make you different. And especially when you fully own them.

Questions to ask yourself:

If I were to fully, unapologetically embrace all parts of me and allow for them to show on Social Media, how differently would I show up?

What would I stop doing? What would I start doing or do a lot more of?
What do I need to understand and let go of in order to do just that?

PRO Tips That Will Make The REAL Difference

PRO TIP #3

Have patience. Understand that building a magnetizing presence on Social Media is a long-term game, not a quick fix!

Can you start experiencing positive results fast? Heck yes!

Most of my clients start getting inquiries from their ideal help-seeking humans within a couple of weeks of changing how they show up and share, BUT it's not an overnight thing.

Again (and I will repeat this many times!) - it is about building a connection. And for many people in your audience, this will take some time.

Likewise - it will take some time for you to get used to a new way of showing up.

Some people will start responding to the shifts in how you show up almost immediately; others will need more time.

The good news is that the new people who will find you from now on will get the real deal right away, and this - generally speaking - will warm them up for what you have to offer faster.

For now, release the need to speed things up and control the outcome. Instead, focus on everything that you can do in this moment.

Question to ask yourself:

If I had absolute certainty that this will work exactly how I hope it will, what would I focus on now?

PRO TIP #4

Don't be afraid to REPEAT YOURSELF.

This is a big one that creates quite some resistance for many female business owners.

All because many of us falsely believe that speaking about the same things all the time will make us boring or dull. Furthermore, we also think daily selling will come across as being salesy, which could not be further from the truth.

If that's you, please make sure to watch THIS REEL to get my point on this.

PRO Tips That Will Make The REAL Difference

On top of that, there's this thing called the algorithm. Have you heard of it? ;)

Even though the algorithm changes quite a bit all the time, one thing remains the same. Only a small percentage of your followers see your posts.

That is why you want to post regularly and repeat your message in different ways, from different angles, again and again, and... again.

Just watch the reel and in case you have ANY questions or still experience resistance around this topic, let me know!

PRO TIP #5

On that same note, as tip #4, make sure to repurpose your best-performing content for different formats.

Turn carousels into talking head reels, B-rolls into single posts, etc.

The idea is to do more of what works and less of what doesn't. Simple as that.

As you have probably figured, we are often complicating it way too much when, in reality, it is all pretty straightforward. Just give it 2-3 weeks and repost the best content with joy!

PRO TIP #6

Connection over perfection.

Your posts are not supposed to be perfect, and the visuals are not supposed to be breathtaking.

When in doubt if your post is good enough to hit publish, check out THIS POST.

It includes 3 simple questions that will help you move past self-doubt and hit that "publish" button without wasting more time.

There are way more important things to take care of in your business, and overthinking your posts is something you want to ditch ASAP. This post will definitely help you with that!

PRO Tips That Will Make The REAL Difference

PRO TIP #7

Don't be afraid to lose followers.

As contradictory as this may sound, losing followers is a GOOD thing!

Let me explain...

People who decide to unfollow you are most likely NOT your ideal, help-seeking humans. True or... true? They are either not “vibing” with your energy or not looking for help or solutions regarding what you offer.

Because of that, they are not engaging with your content and will most definitely never raise their hand to work with you. In my world, this is more than enough to let them go.

Another reason, perfectly good enough even on its own, is that because of Instagram's algorithm, they are just dead weight for your reach.

As they are not willing to interact with your content, their lack of involvement signals IG that your content is NOT relevant, and as a result, Instagram gods are NOT willing to push your posts further to more and new people.

So, let them go, cut them loose, release them with gratitude, and KNOW that as they leave, they create space for new people who will appreciate you more.

Especially now that you are showing up in a whole new way!

PRO TIP #8

When quoting experts, other coaches, authors, podcast hosts, and other people in your industry ALWAYS make sure to clearly state the source and tag them on the visuals and in the captions.

This tip alone can supercharge your reach, especially when you share content that is valuable for your ideal client.

And please don't fear that by sending your followers to another person's account, you will lose them to your competition!

There's no such thing as competition in my world, and hopefully, I can make you look at it the same way once you answer this simple question:

What about my recommendation of another person's idea or opinion is making me believe that by doing so I will become a LESS valuable source of the best solutions for my ideal clients, and how can I reframe that limiting belief?

PRO Tips That Will Make The REAL Difference

I bet that just by reading this question, you get the idea of where this is heading, don't you?

Quoting and linking other people's opinions that you find relevant for your audience secures the necessary transparency and positions you as a confident and helpful authority for your people.

When used intentionally, it can become a fantastic source of visibility for your account, as other people naturally want to reciprocate the kind words - a win-win for all.

PRO TIP #9

Always have a clear goal for each post and use some type of CTA in every piece of content.

Remember - this is your BUSINESS account, not a hobby one. That's why, on top of all the authenticity, embracing your true self, showing up as the person you are, and standing up for what you believe, you want some strategy behind every post.

This can be prompting your audience to comment, inviting them to follow along or type a specific word to get help or get in touch about a specific topic.

Whatever it is, make sure to state it clearly because all your audience's actions in response to your content feed the algorithm fairies with super-potent magic dust.

And before you overcomplicate it, the TYPE of strategy is much LESS relevant than the actual execution. As you might have heard me say more than once, most of the widely available strategies work WHEN you back them with committed action.

HERE's exactly what I mean.

Just pick one strategy and stick with it!
It could be for instance:

- 2 weekly authority building reels with a CTA that leads for my main offer
- 1 weekly connection building reel/post inviting people to follow and share
- 2 weekly carousels combining authority and connection content that include CTA to get my lead magnets.

PRO Tips That Will Make The REAL Difference

PRO TIP #10

Use storytelling as often as possible and focus on painting the most desired picture for people who are READY to make a change.

Because the thing is - you are NOT in a convincing business.

Personally, it took me a while to really get it.

The fact that you can help MANY people with MANY things doesn't mean you should. And from the business perspective, it is a bad idea even to attempt to do that.

That is why you want to focus all of your energy on creating content that speaks directly to your ideal help-seeking humans who are ready and committed to finding solutions to their challenges.

And storytelling is a great way to speak to their minds and emotions simultaneously.

One last thing to keep in mind.

It is more of a realization than a tip.

Many women experience resistance when they first hear about infusing more of their authentic energy and personal-related content on their business accounts. If that's you, please hear me out.

In reality, what you perceive as the most personal is usually the most common, and many people in your audience experience very similar personal challenges, struggles, or setbacks. And they, too, feel alone with them.

Therefore, the more you open up about your personal challenges and your own unique life story, the better you will bond with your ideal clients who - as a result - will see you as much more than "just" a therapist, coach, or service provider they have found online.

On top of that, please remember that you always control the narrative. You decide what and how much you want to "expose." Still, I guarantee you that if you get the courage to open up, you will set yourself apart and bond with your help-seeking humans on a different, much deeper level. And they will love you for it.

So, what's ONE challenge or personal experience you can open up about to let your people know that they are not alone, show them more of your true self, and connect deeper?

If in doubt, please DM me on my Instagram! I am there for you daily and I'd love to help!

50. Here's why I am not perfect (authority and connection-building content by showing your true self)

Hook: Want a perfect [coach]? It's not me. Still... I am great at [who and what you help with]

Example:

Looking for the perfect business coach? That's probably not me as I am not great with quite a few things.

Still, I am amazing at helping women over 50 start their first businesses in less than 2 months with no business background.

One last reminder - building a deeper relationship with your audience takes time, but it is so worth it!

Social media is called “social” for a reason.

Business owners who truly understand it and make genuine efforts to connect with members of their audiences in their own unique ways, owning their story, expertise, beliefs, and values, are the ones who always win.

Look at who you follow, like, and trust. You, too, bond with your favorite people on Instagram and other social media platforms once they show up fully, unapologetically, and... imperfectly.

Let this thought guide you and the way you choose to show up for your audience and your dream of building that successful, thriving business.
