Gustavo Amaral, better known as Gustavito, is a Brazilian singer and songwriter.

With a 12-year journey dedicated to crafting vibrant sounds that promote healing and connection. Known for his unique blend of Brazilian rhythms, his music transcends borders and resonates deeply within the global healing music community.

Gustavito actively participates in international festivals each year, where he shares his transformative soundscapes designed to elevate the spirit and foster communal well-being.

His performances offer immersive ceremonial experiences that invite audiences to connect deeply with themselves and each other, transforming spectators into co-creators of sacred musical journeys.

Throughout his career, he has held space at international festivals in 18 countries, including Medicine Festival (UK), Transcendence Festival (Mexico), Sunfest (Canada), and SacredSoul Fest (Portugal).
