

the Secret Valentine

It was Valentine's Day at Sunny Elementary.

Alex had a secret plan.

"I'm going to give a Valentine...
but no one will know it's me!"

Alex grinned, holding a bright red card.

At recess, Alex sneaked past friends and placed the card in Jamie's backpack.

Jamie opened the backpack later.

"Who sent this?" Jamie wondered, smiling at the heart-shaped note.

Alex watched from behind the tree,
giggling quietly.

It felt good to make someone happy.

Next, Alex left another Valentine on Sam's desk.

Then one for Mia, and another for Lily.

The classroom buzzed with excitement.

Everyone was getting Valentines... but no one knew who sent them!

Finally, Alex's teacher noticed and smiled.

“Sometimes the best gifts are the ones you give quietly.” she said.

Alex walked home feeling proud.

Happy Valentine's Day—kindness is even sweeter when it's a secret!
