

The Day Love Filled the Classroom

It was Valentine's Day at Sunny School.
The classroom buzzed with excitement.

Some kids had cards.
Some kids had candy.
A few kids had nothing at all.

Emma noticed a classmate sitting quietly. She felt a little sad.

"Let's share," Emma said.

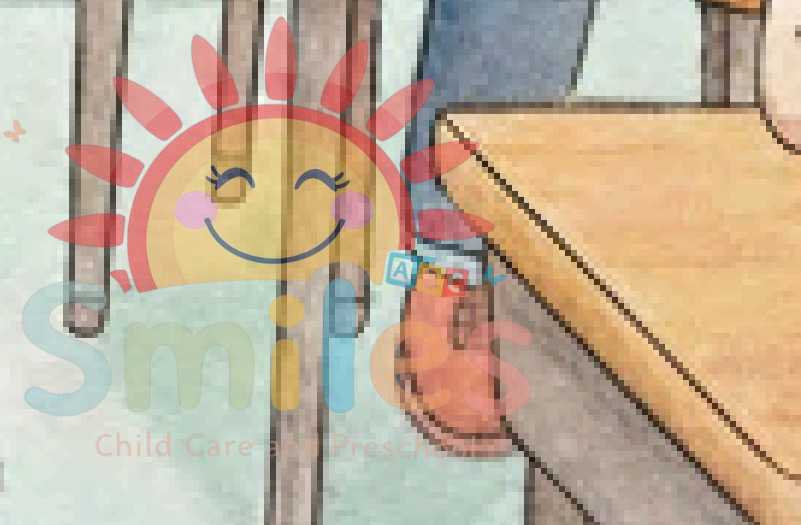

Others nodded and smiled.

Kids shared cards, stickers, and kind words. Laughter filled the room.

The teacher smiled. "Look at all this teamwork", she said.

The classroom sparkled with happy faces.
Everyone felt included.

"This is the best Valentine's Day", said one student.
"It feels really good inside."

The bell rang, but the smiles stayed.
Happy Valentine's Day—love grows when we share.”
