One sunny morning, a small cloud named Puffy floated happily across the sky.

Puffy loved to watch the birds fly and the flowers bloom, but he was afraid to rain.

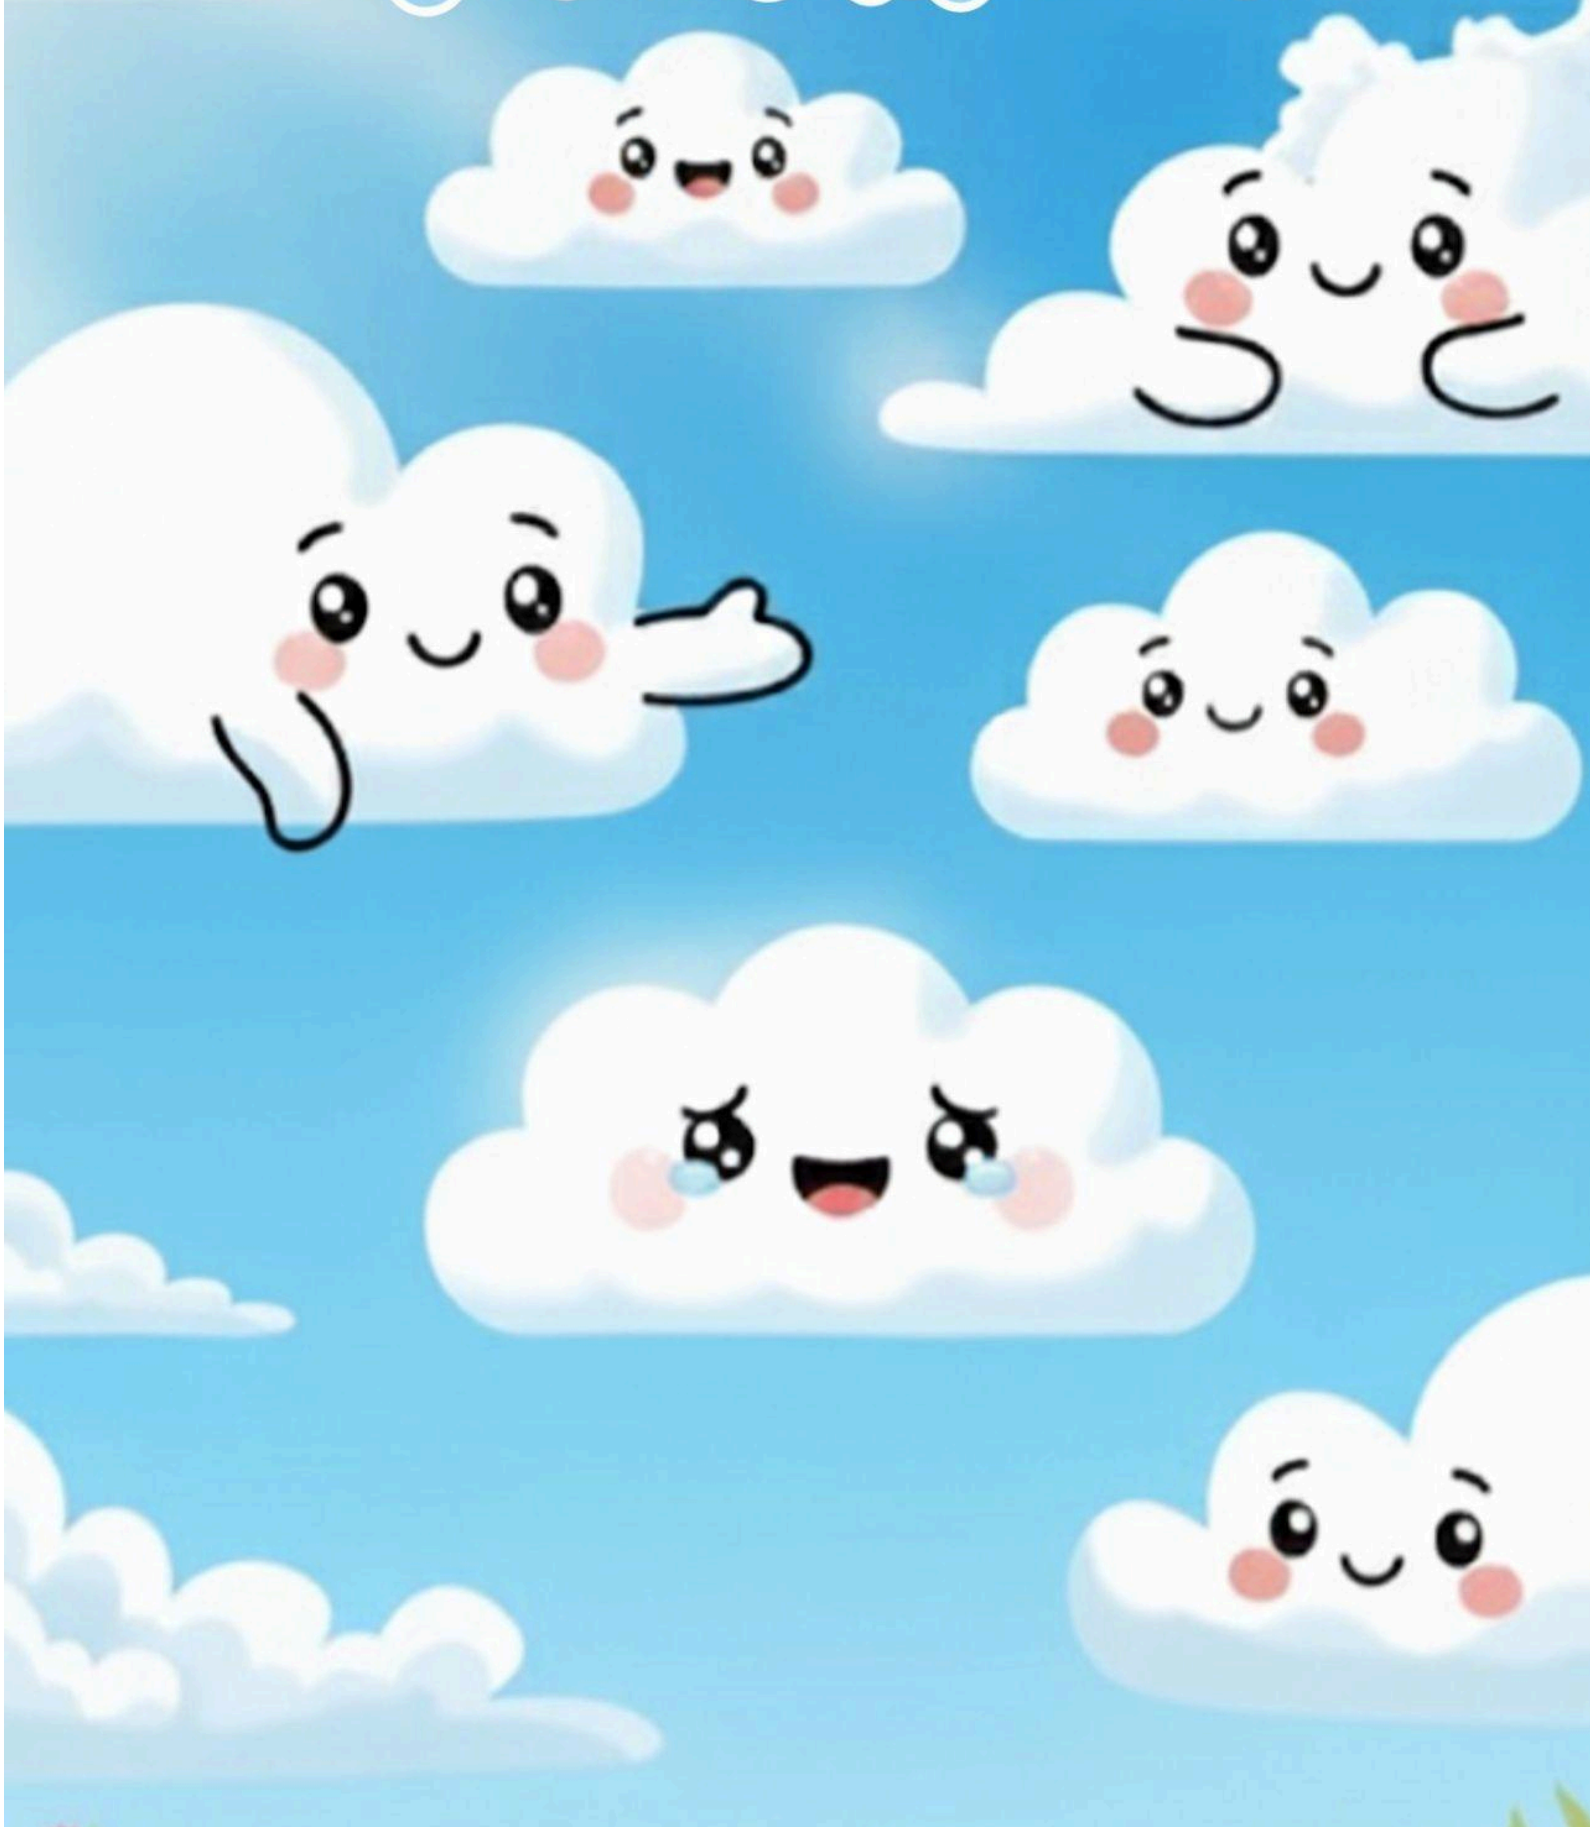

The other clouds told him, "Don't worry, Puffy! Rain helps things grow!"

Don't worry,
Puffy!

Rain helps things grow!

But Puffy wasn't sure; he didn't want to make things too wet or messy.

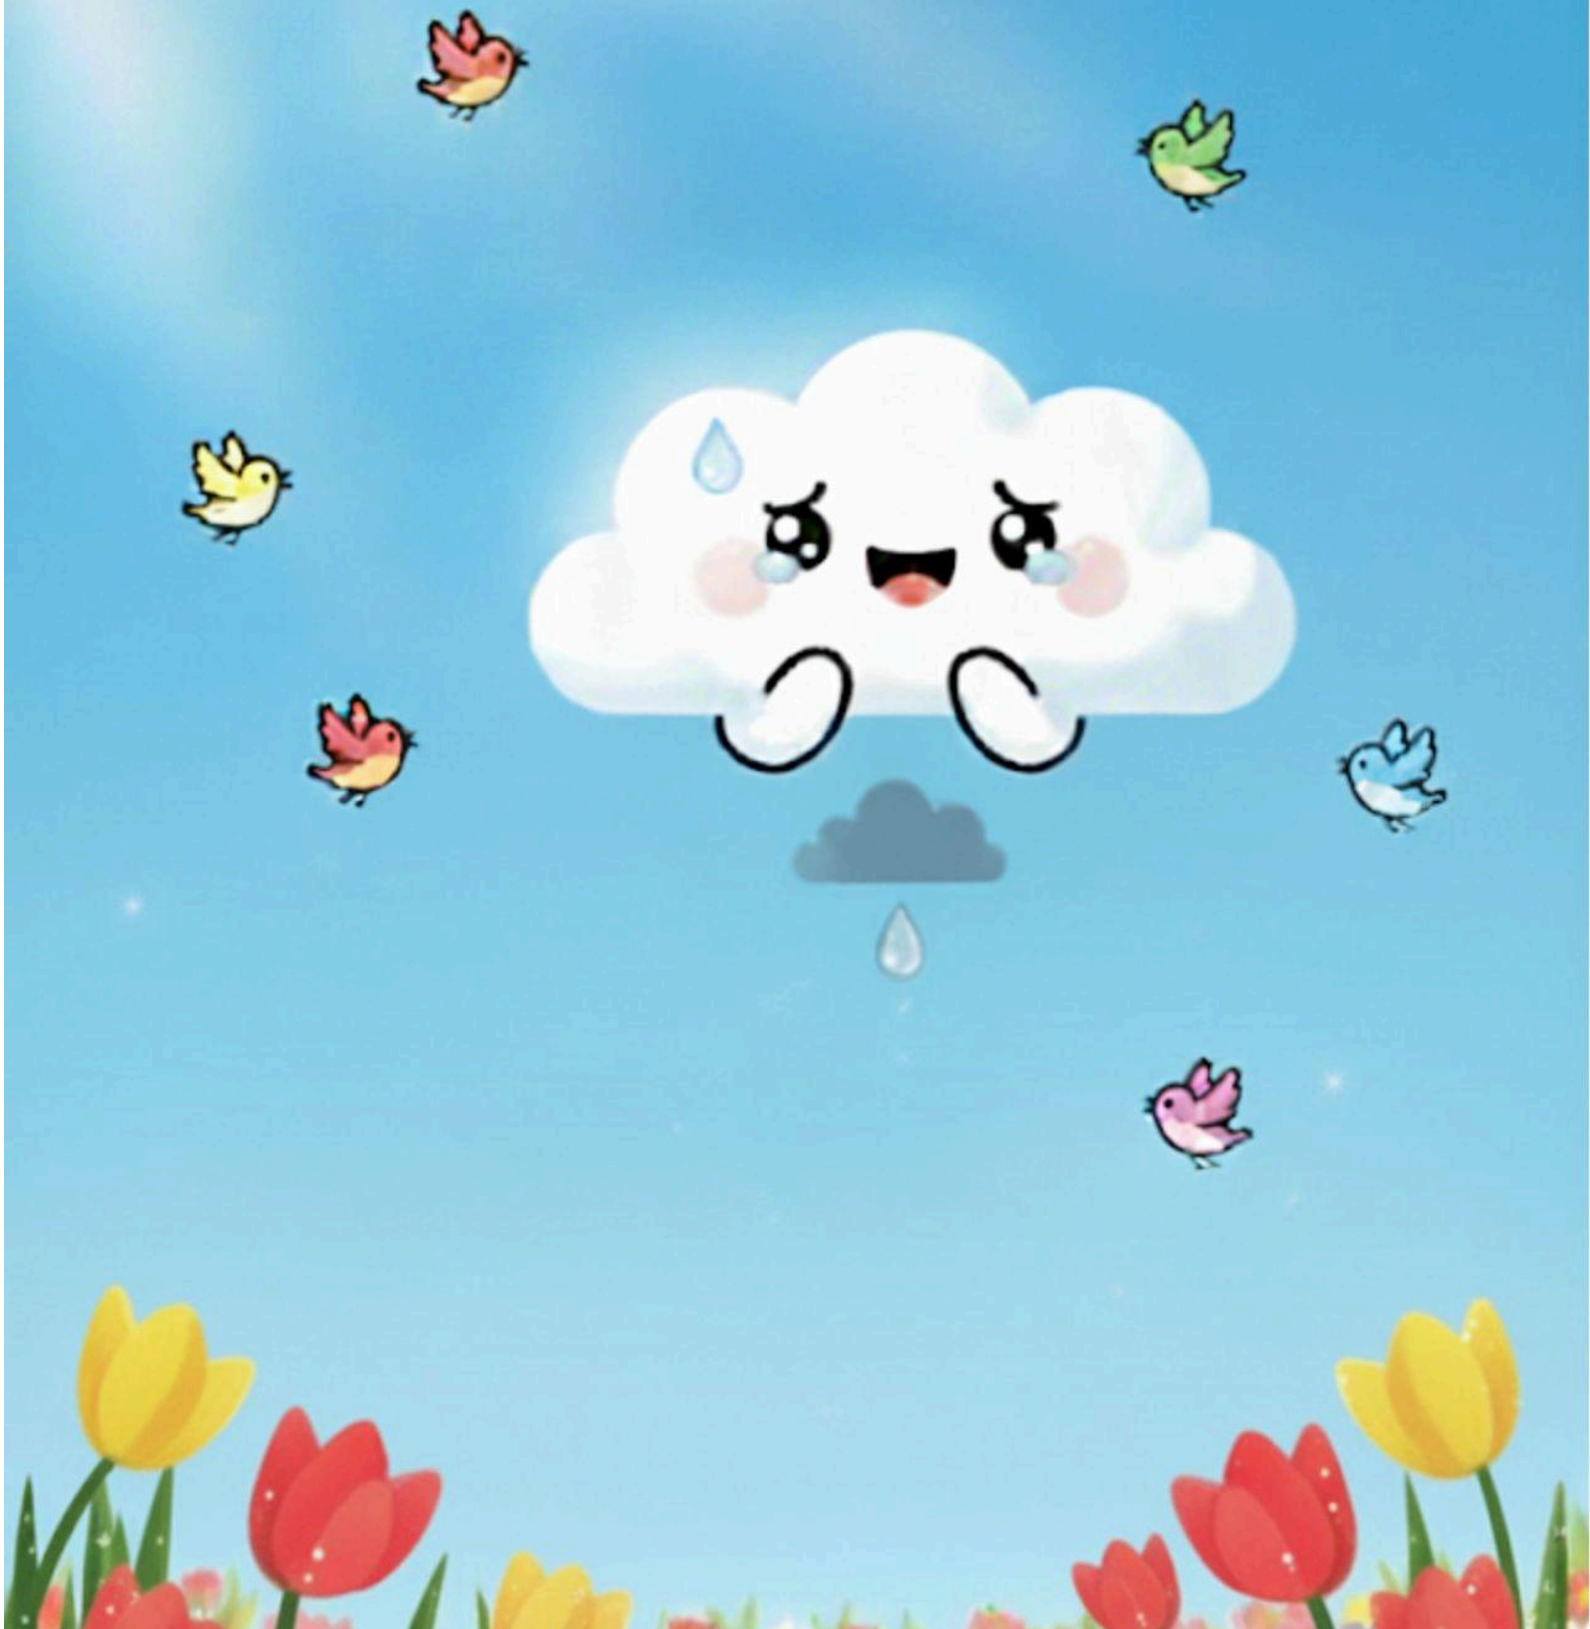

One day, Puffy saw a thirsty garden below,
with wilting flowers that needed water.

Puffy felt nervous, but he decided to try,
gently releasing a small drop of rain.

The flowers began to perk up, and the leaves sparkled with happiness.

Puffy felt proud, and the cloud cheered,
"Great job, Puffy! You made a difference!"

From that day on, Puffy wasn't afraid to rain when he saw things that needed him.

He learned that sometimes, even small things can make the world a better place.
THE END.
