Nina the mouse was playing with her favorite ball.

She left it on the grass and ran to eat lunch.

When she came back, the ball was gone.

Nina felt upset and wanted
to blame her friends.

Then she remembered
what Mama Mouse
said: "Always ask kindly first."

Nina asked, "Has anyone seen my ball?"

Has anyone seen my ball?

Ben the bunny
hopped up and said,
“I found it rolling
away!”

I found it rolling away!

He handed the ball back
with a smile.

Nina thanked Ben and felt happy again.

Thank you,
Ben!

Nina learned that asking kindly is better than blaming.

Blaming...

Asking Kindly!

THE END.
