

Sally and the Talking Schoolbag

Hi, Sally!

Sally's schoolbag could talk and help her study.

“Let’s pack your homework!”
it said each morning.

Sally loved playing more than studying.

One day, she forgot all her work at home.

no! You forgot your work!

The bag beeped, "I tried to remind you!"

I tried to remind you!

Sally realized learning makes adventures easier.

She started listening, reading, and practicing daily.

Her bag cheered, "You're a superstar!"

You're a superstar!

Sally smiled proudly and aced her next test.

Hard work really does
pay off. THE END.
