Lulu the bunny found a shiny pebble by the river. She wanted to keep it all to herself.

Her friend Max the squirrel asked if he could see it. Lulu quickly hid the pebble behind her back.

Max looked sad and walked away.

Lulu felt her heart grow heavy when she saw her friend unhappy.

She hopped over and gave Max the pebble to hold.

Max smiled brightly and said, "It's even prettier when we share it."

Lulu realized sharing made both of them happy.

From that day, Lulu learned that treasures are more special when shared with friends. THE END.
