Max the Robot Dog loved the neighborhood playground.

One day, he noticed the swings were broken.

SQUEAK!
SQUEAK!

The slide squeaked and the sandbox was messy.

BEEP! TIME FOR ACTION!

Max beeped, "Time for action!"

He called the children
for a cleanup day.

They fixed, painted, and planted flowers together.

The playground sparkled again.

The mayor gave Max a golden bone medal.

“Woof for teamwork!”
barked Max.

Everyone learned that caring together builds joy. THE END.
