Buzz the Bee noticed fewer flowers
in the city.

He buzzed sadly past tall glass buildings.

Then he found a rooftop garden full of solar lights.

Kids were using tablets to track plant growth.

“Bzzz! You’re helping my home!”
said Buzz.

Bzz! You’re helping my home!

The children smiled, “We love bees!”

Together they built smart beehives with gentle sensors.

Flowers bloomed brighter than ever.

Buzz danced above the blossoms in joy.

“Smart kids make a sweet world,” he hummed. THE END.
