

LUNA THE LLAMA'S SPACE SCHOOL ADVENTURE

Luna the Llama dreamed of leaving her mountain for space.

She received a letter from Space School!

Other llamas had never gone before, so she felt nervous.

Her friends cheered, "You can do it, Luna!"

She packed her spacesuit and floated to the stars.

At first, she missed the ground beneath her hooves.

Soon she learned to leap and twirl in zero gravity.

Luna met new friends from planets far away.

She realized courage makes dreams fly.

COURAGE makes DREAMS
FLY!

“I’m a space llama now!”
she laughed. THE END.

COURAGE
makes DREAMS
FLY!

I’m a space llama now!
