

DINO DAN AND THE VIRTUAL JUNGLE

Dino Dan loved dinosaurs more than anything.

His parents gave him a virtual jungle headset.

He could see roaring T-Rexes and flying pterodactyls!

After a while, he missed playing outside.

He built a jungle fort with his friends instead.

They made paper dinosaurs and cardboard caves.

Their laughter filled the yard like real dinosaur roars.

“This is even better than VR!”
said Dan.

This is even better than than VR!

Tech is fun, but real play is magic too.

This is even better than VR!

The dinosaurs in his heart danced along. THE END.

This is even better than VR!
