A Magical Adventure

Ellie and the Five Purple Diamond Elephants

Meet Ellie, a cheerful girl who loves to wear her sparkly purple shoes. She dreams of performing in the school parade, but she feels a little shy.

New Friends Appear

We're the Parade Elephants!

One afternoon, while Ellie was practicing, five elephants appeared — each with shiny purple diamond patterns on their ears! "We're the Parade Elephants!" said the biggest one proudly.

I'm too nervous.
What if make a mistake?

Ellie, join us!

Everyone makes mistakes, Ellie.
What matters is that you try.

You can do it!

Ellie took a deep breath and marched beside them.
They practiced five times — once for each elephant!
Step, turn, smile, wave — she was getting better and better!

The next morning, the band played and the crowd cheered. Ellie marched proudly with the five purple diamond elephants. Her heart sparkled brighter than her shoes.

When the parade ended, everyone clapped for Ellie.

She learned that confidence grows when you believe in yourself.

If you were scared to try something, new?

What would you do?

Would you be brave and confident like Ellie?
