

MARINA

THE SHY MERMAID

Marina was a tiny mermaid who loved to hide behind seashells.

She watched other sea creatures laughing and playing in the coral reef.

Marina wanted to join, but her voice was soft and shy.

GRAND CORAL CONCERT!

One day, the sea queen announced, "A big concert will be held tomorrow!"

All the sea creatures cheered, but Marina's tail drooped.

GRAND CORAL CONCERT!

“What if they laugh at my voice?” Marina whispered to herself.

Her friend, a tiny seahorse named Spark, swam up.
“You can do it, Marina!”

“But my voice is too quiet,” Marina sighed.

Spark shook his head. “Being brave means trying, even if you feel shy.”

That night, Marina practiced singing softly in her seashell room. Her gentle voice made the sea plants sway.

GRAND CORAL CONCERT!

The next day, the concert began. Everyone gathered in the coral plaza.

GRAND CORAL CONCERT!

One by one, dolphins, clams, and fish sang loudly.

GRAND CORAL CONCERT!

Finally, it was Marina's turn. She trembled as she swam to the center.

GRAND CORAL CONCERT!

She took a deep breath and began to sing.

At first, her voice was soft. The crowd leaned in to listen.

Then her courage grew — her song became stronger and sweeter.

The coral shimmered, and the sea sparkled with her melody.

GRAND CORAL CONCERT!

Everyone cheered loudly. "Bravo, Marina!" they shouted.

Marina's cheeks glowed pink. "They liked my voice!" she whispered.

The sea queen smiled. "Your song is special, Marina."

Marina giggled with joy. She didn't feel shy anymore.

GRAND CORAL CONCERT!

Her friends swam around her, singing along.

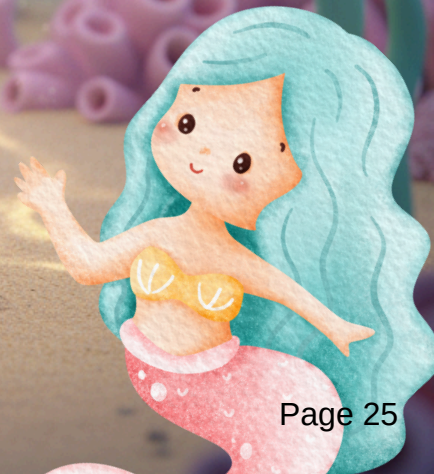

That night, Marina told Spark, “I was brave today.”

From that day on, Marina sang proudly — the bravest little mermaid of all. 🧜‍♀️ ♀️ ❤️

THE END

Moral of the Story

Marina learned that being brave doesn't mean never feeling shy. True courage is about trying, even when you feel small or afraid. By finding her voice, Marina discovered that her song was special — just like everyone has something special to share. The moral is: Don't be afraid to shine in your own way. Even the quietest voice can make the biggest difference.
