

The Wi-Fi Genie

Norman found an old tablet that glowed with swirling light.

A Wi-Fi Genie appeared with a sparkly smile.

“Three wishes — use them wisely!” he said.

Three wishes —
use them wisely!

Norman wished for unlimited candy first.

Then he wished for endless screen time.

Soon, his eyes were tired and his room sticky.

“One last wish,” he said softly.

One last wish,
he said softly.

“Make everything normal again,
but keep my family happy.”

The Genie nodded and smiled kindly.

Norman learned that joy comes from what we already have. THE END.
