WRITING PRACTICE

Four vertical writing practice columns. Each column consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The columns are divided into ten horizontal sections by solid lines. The first two columns have a downward-pointing arrow on the dashed line in the second section from the bottom, and an upward-pointing arrow on the dashed line in the second section from the bottom. The last two columns have an upward-pointing arrow on the dashed line in the second section from the bottom.
