This Story Belongs to:

Name _____

Surname _____

Benny the Brave Bunny lives in a cozy burrow under a big oak tree. The meadow is filled with colorful flowers and buzzing bees.

One morning, Benny finds an old, crumpled map outside his burrow. It shows a path to the Enchanted Forest.

Benny straps on his tiny green backpack and packs a carrot, a water bottle, and a shiny compass. He’s ready to explore!

Benny hops along a winding path through the meadow. The tall grass sways in the breeze as he follows the map.

Benny meets Sammy the Squirrel, who offers to guide him to the edge of the Enchanted Forest.

As Benny enters the Enchanted Forest, the trees seem to whisper secrets. The air feels magical and full of wonder.

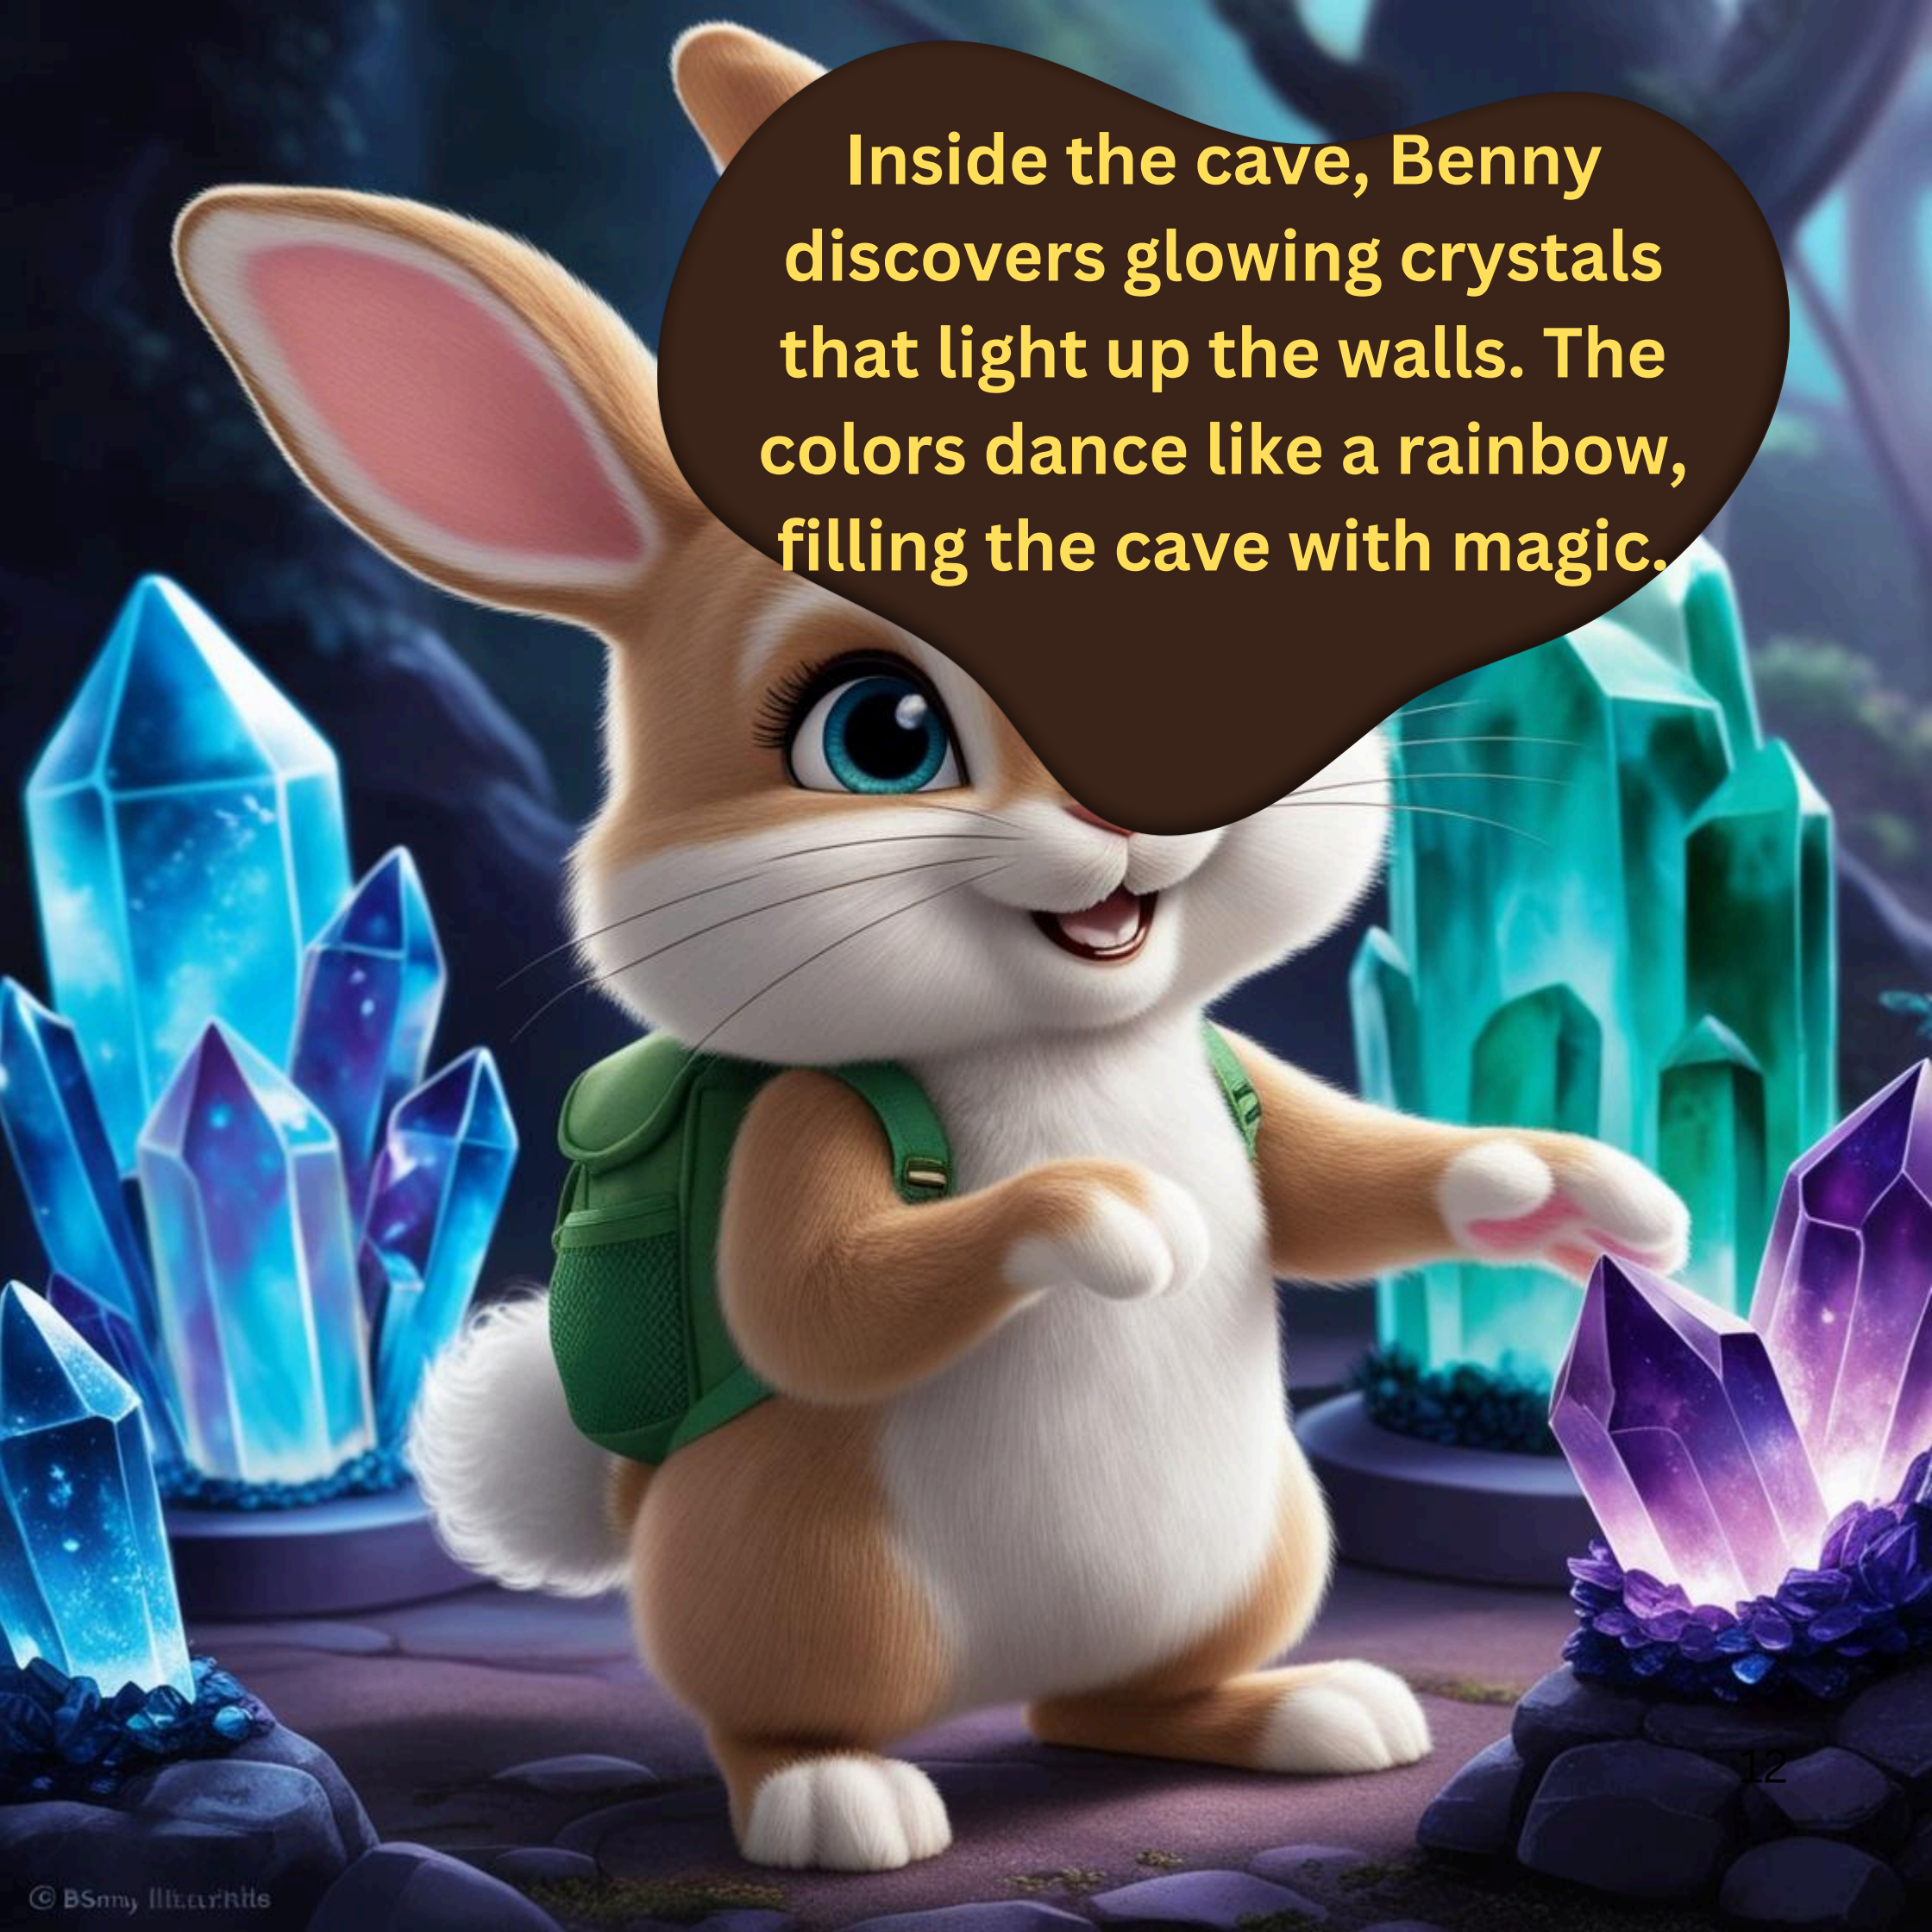

Benny discovers a patch of glowing mushrooms that light up the forest floor. They shimmer in shades of blue and green.

Benny reaches a sparkling brook. The water glitters as it flows over smooth stones, and he stops for a quick drink

Benny.

A wise old owl named Oliver perches on a branch. He warns Benny about the challenges ahead but encourages him to stay brave.

Benny arrives at a dark cave marked on the map. He takes a deep breath and steps inside, ready to face whatever lies ahead.
11
Benny Bunn

Inside the cave, Benny discovers glowing crystals that light up the walls. The colors dance like a rainbow, filling the cave with magic.

As Benny walks deeper into the cave, he hears echoing voices. They sound friendly, guiding him further into the darkness.

Benny finds a hidden door covered in vines and moss. A golden keyhole glimmers in the dim light.

Benny remembers the shiny compass in his backpack. To his surprise, it transforms into a golden key that fits the door perfectly.
N
E
S
W

Benny opens the door and steps into a magical garden. Flowers sing, trees dance, and the air smells like honey and sunshine.

A giant talking tree named Elowen greets Benny. She tells him he must solve a riddle to continue his journey

Elowen asks Benny, "What has keys but can't open locks?" Benny thinks hard and smiles when he figures out the answer.

After solving the riddle, a rainbow bridge appears, leading Benny to the next part of his adventure.

Benny meets a small, friendly dragon named Spark. Spark offers to fly Benny over the river to the next challenge.

Spark drops Benny off near a treasure chest hidden under a waterfall. Benny's heart races as he wonders what's inside.

Benny hops closer to the waterfall. The water sparkles like diamonds, and he feels a cool mist on his fur.

Benny tries to open the treasure chest, but it's locked! He notices a small puzzle on the lock that needs to be solved.

Benny uses his sharp mind to solve the puzzle. The lock clicks open, and the chest glows with a golden light

Inside the chest, Benny finds a magical compass that points to his next destination: the Crystal Cavern.

Benny follows the compass to the Crystal Cavern. The entrance is covered in shimmering crystals that reflect the sunlight.

Inside the cavern, Benny discovers a glowing pathway made of crystal stones. Each step he takes lights up beneath his paws.

A kind Crystal Guardian appears, made entirely of glowing crystals. She tells Benny he must prove his bravery to continue.

The guardian asks Benny to take a leap of faith across a deep chasm. Benny takes a deep breath and jumps!

As a reward for his bravery, the guardian gives Benny a glowing Crystal Heart. It will guide him to the final part of his adventure.

The Crystal Heart leads Benny to a mysterious door. Behind it lies the final challenge: a maze filled with twists and turns.

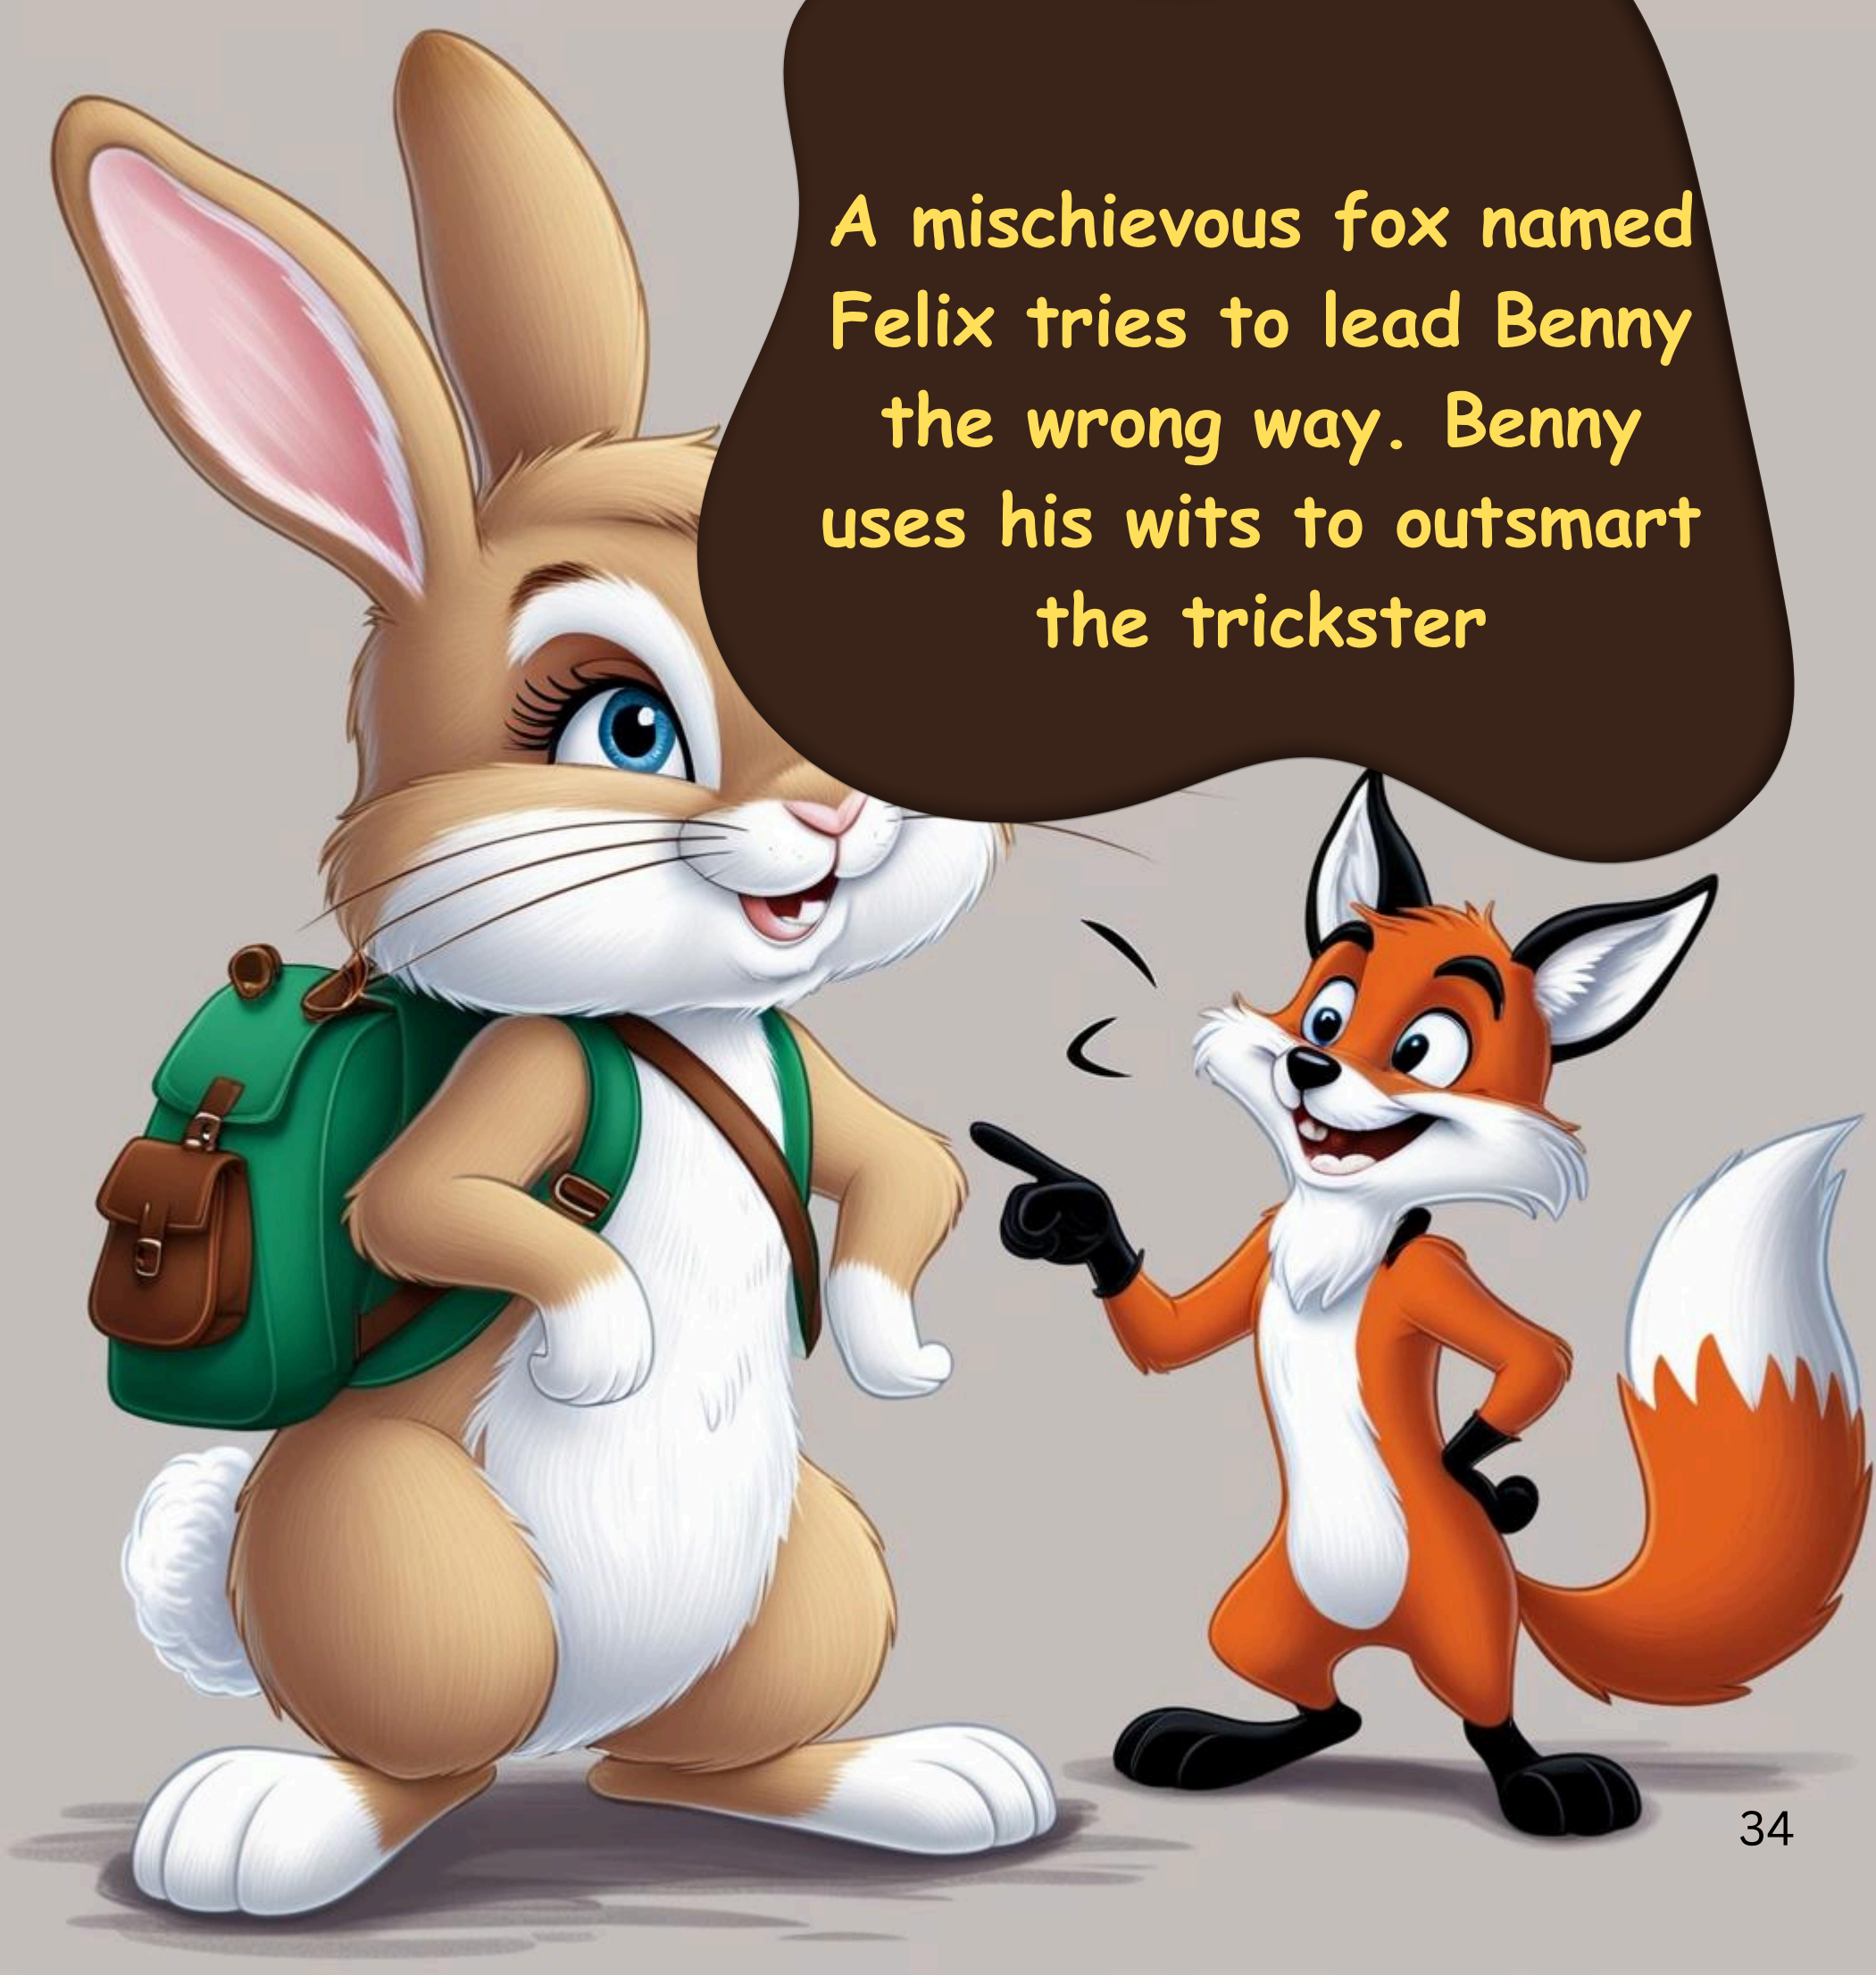

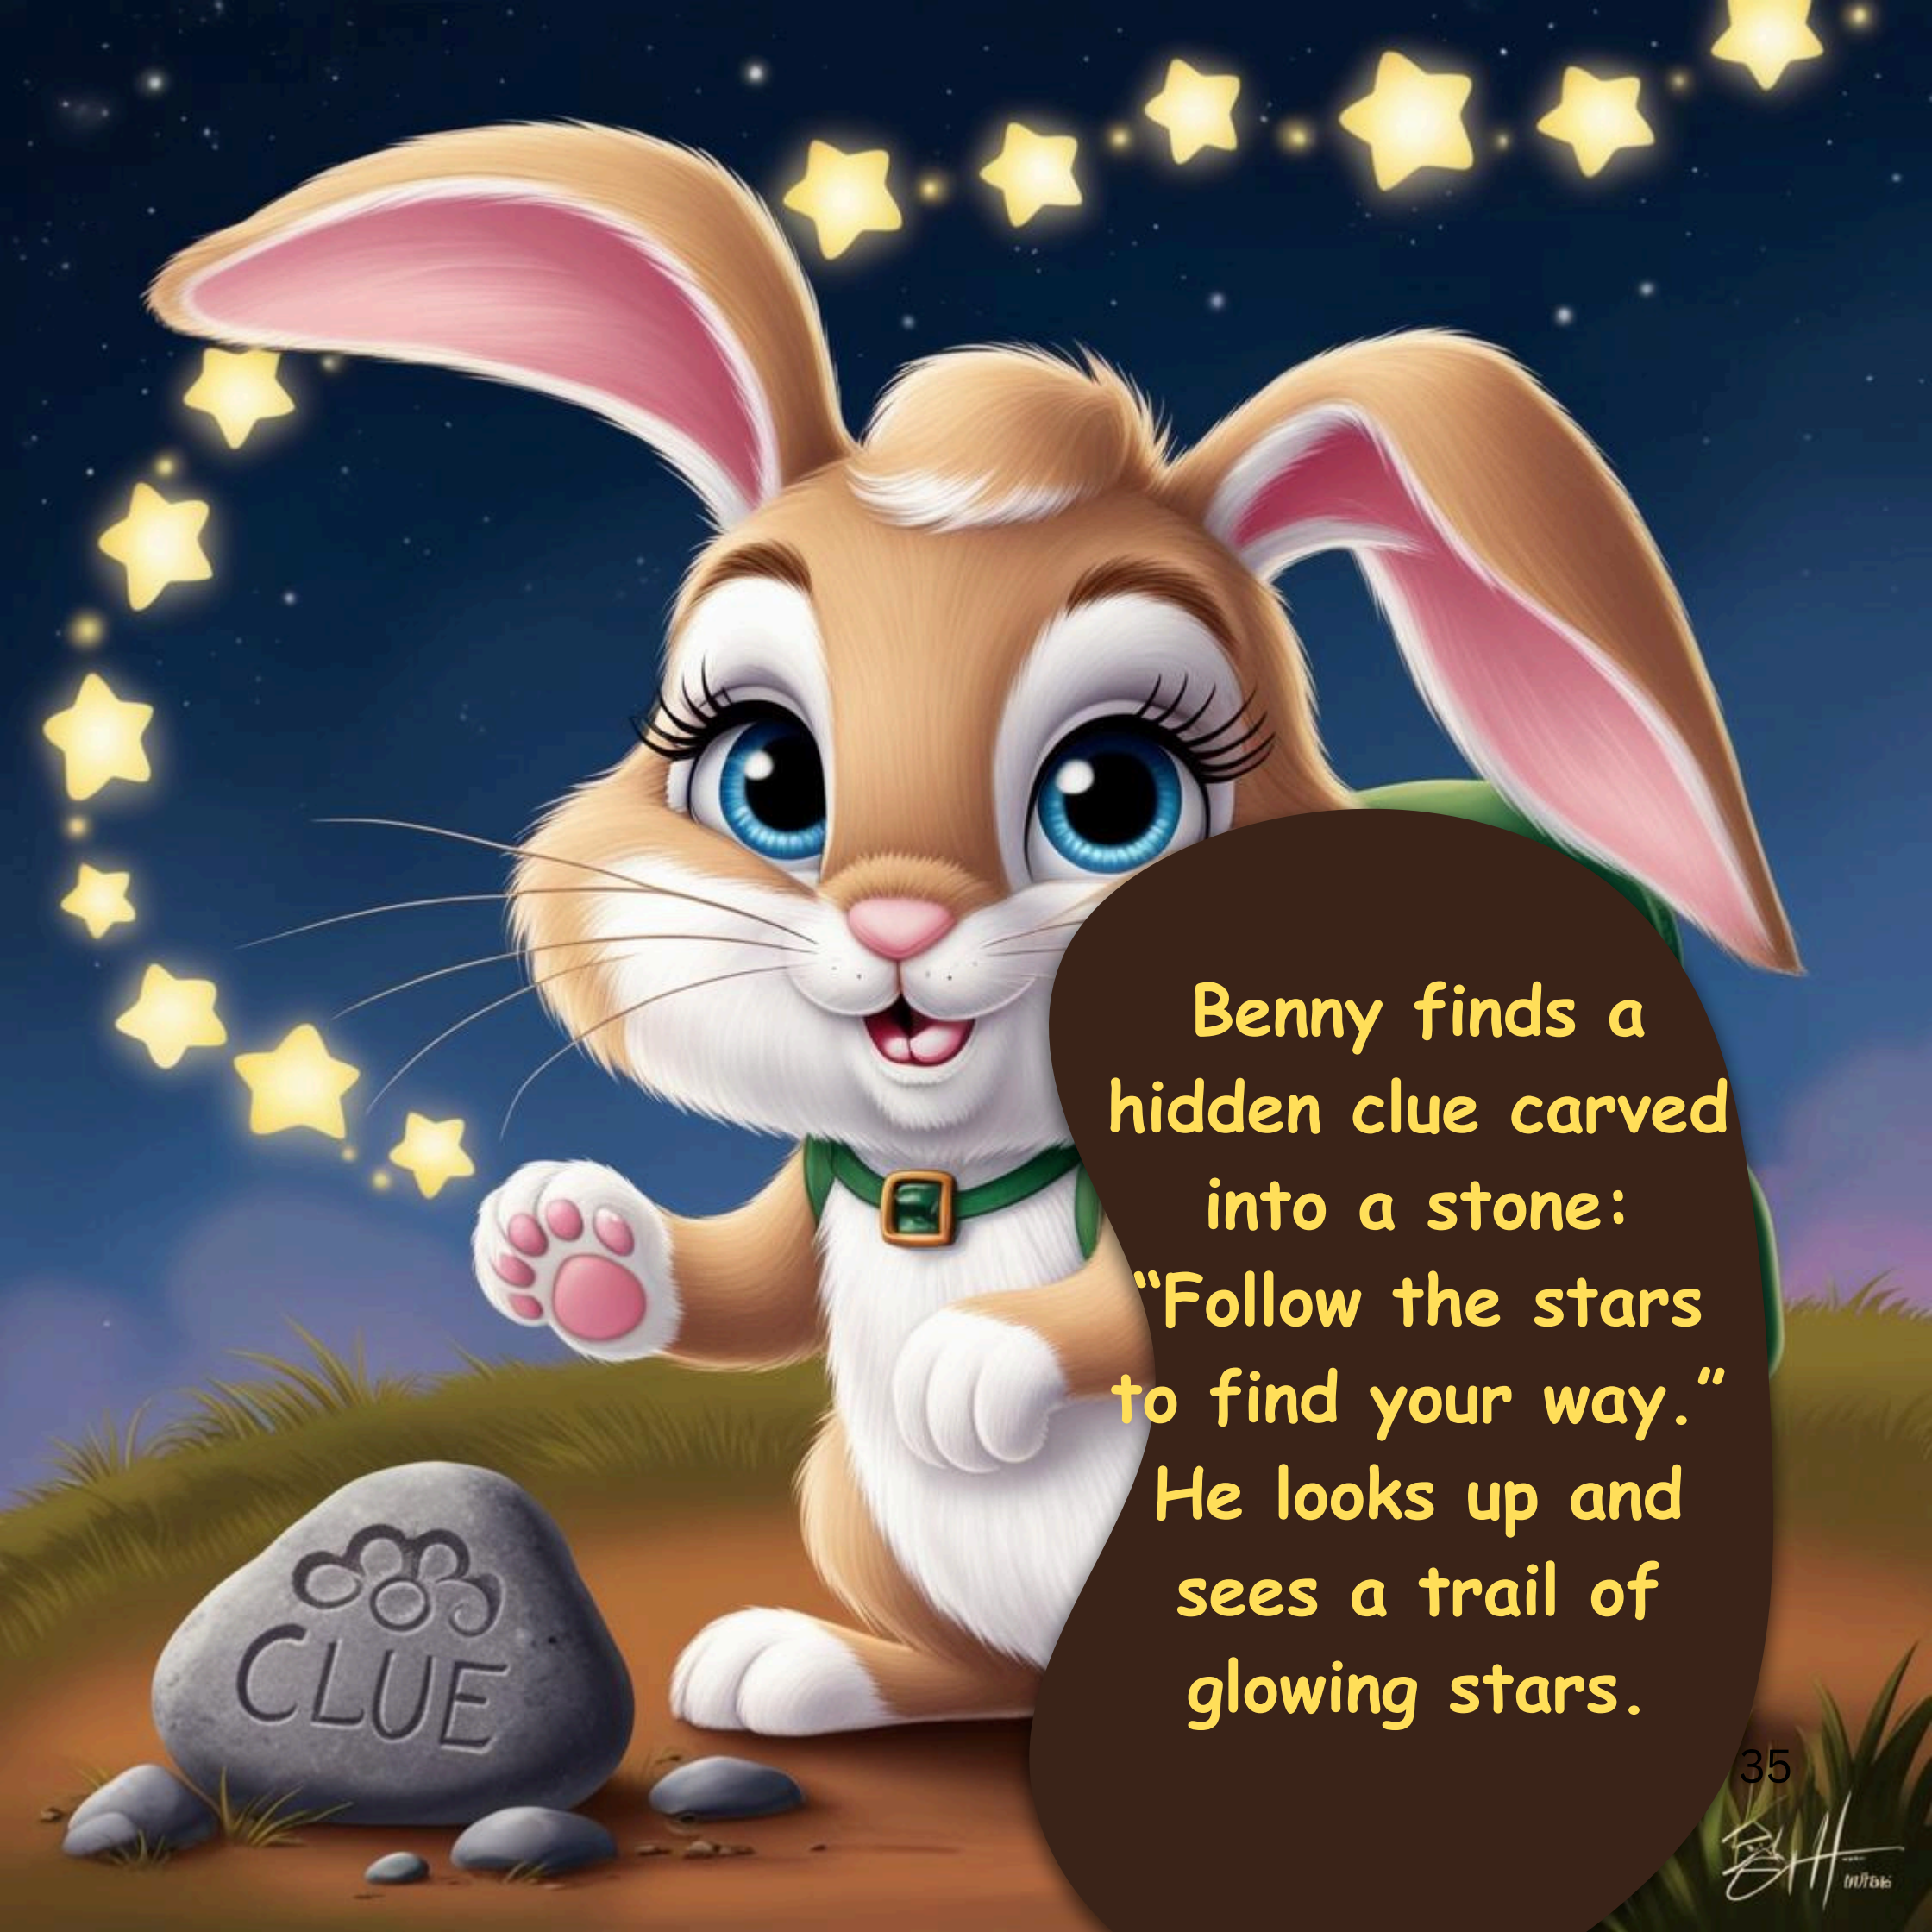

© Benny Crystal Heart

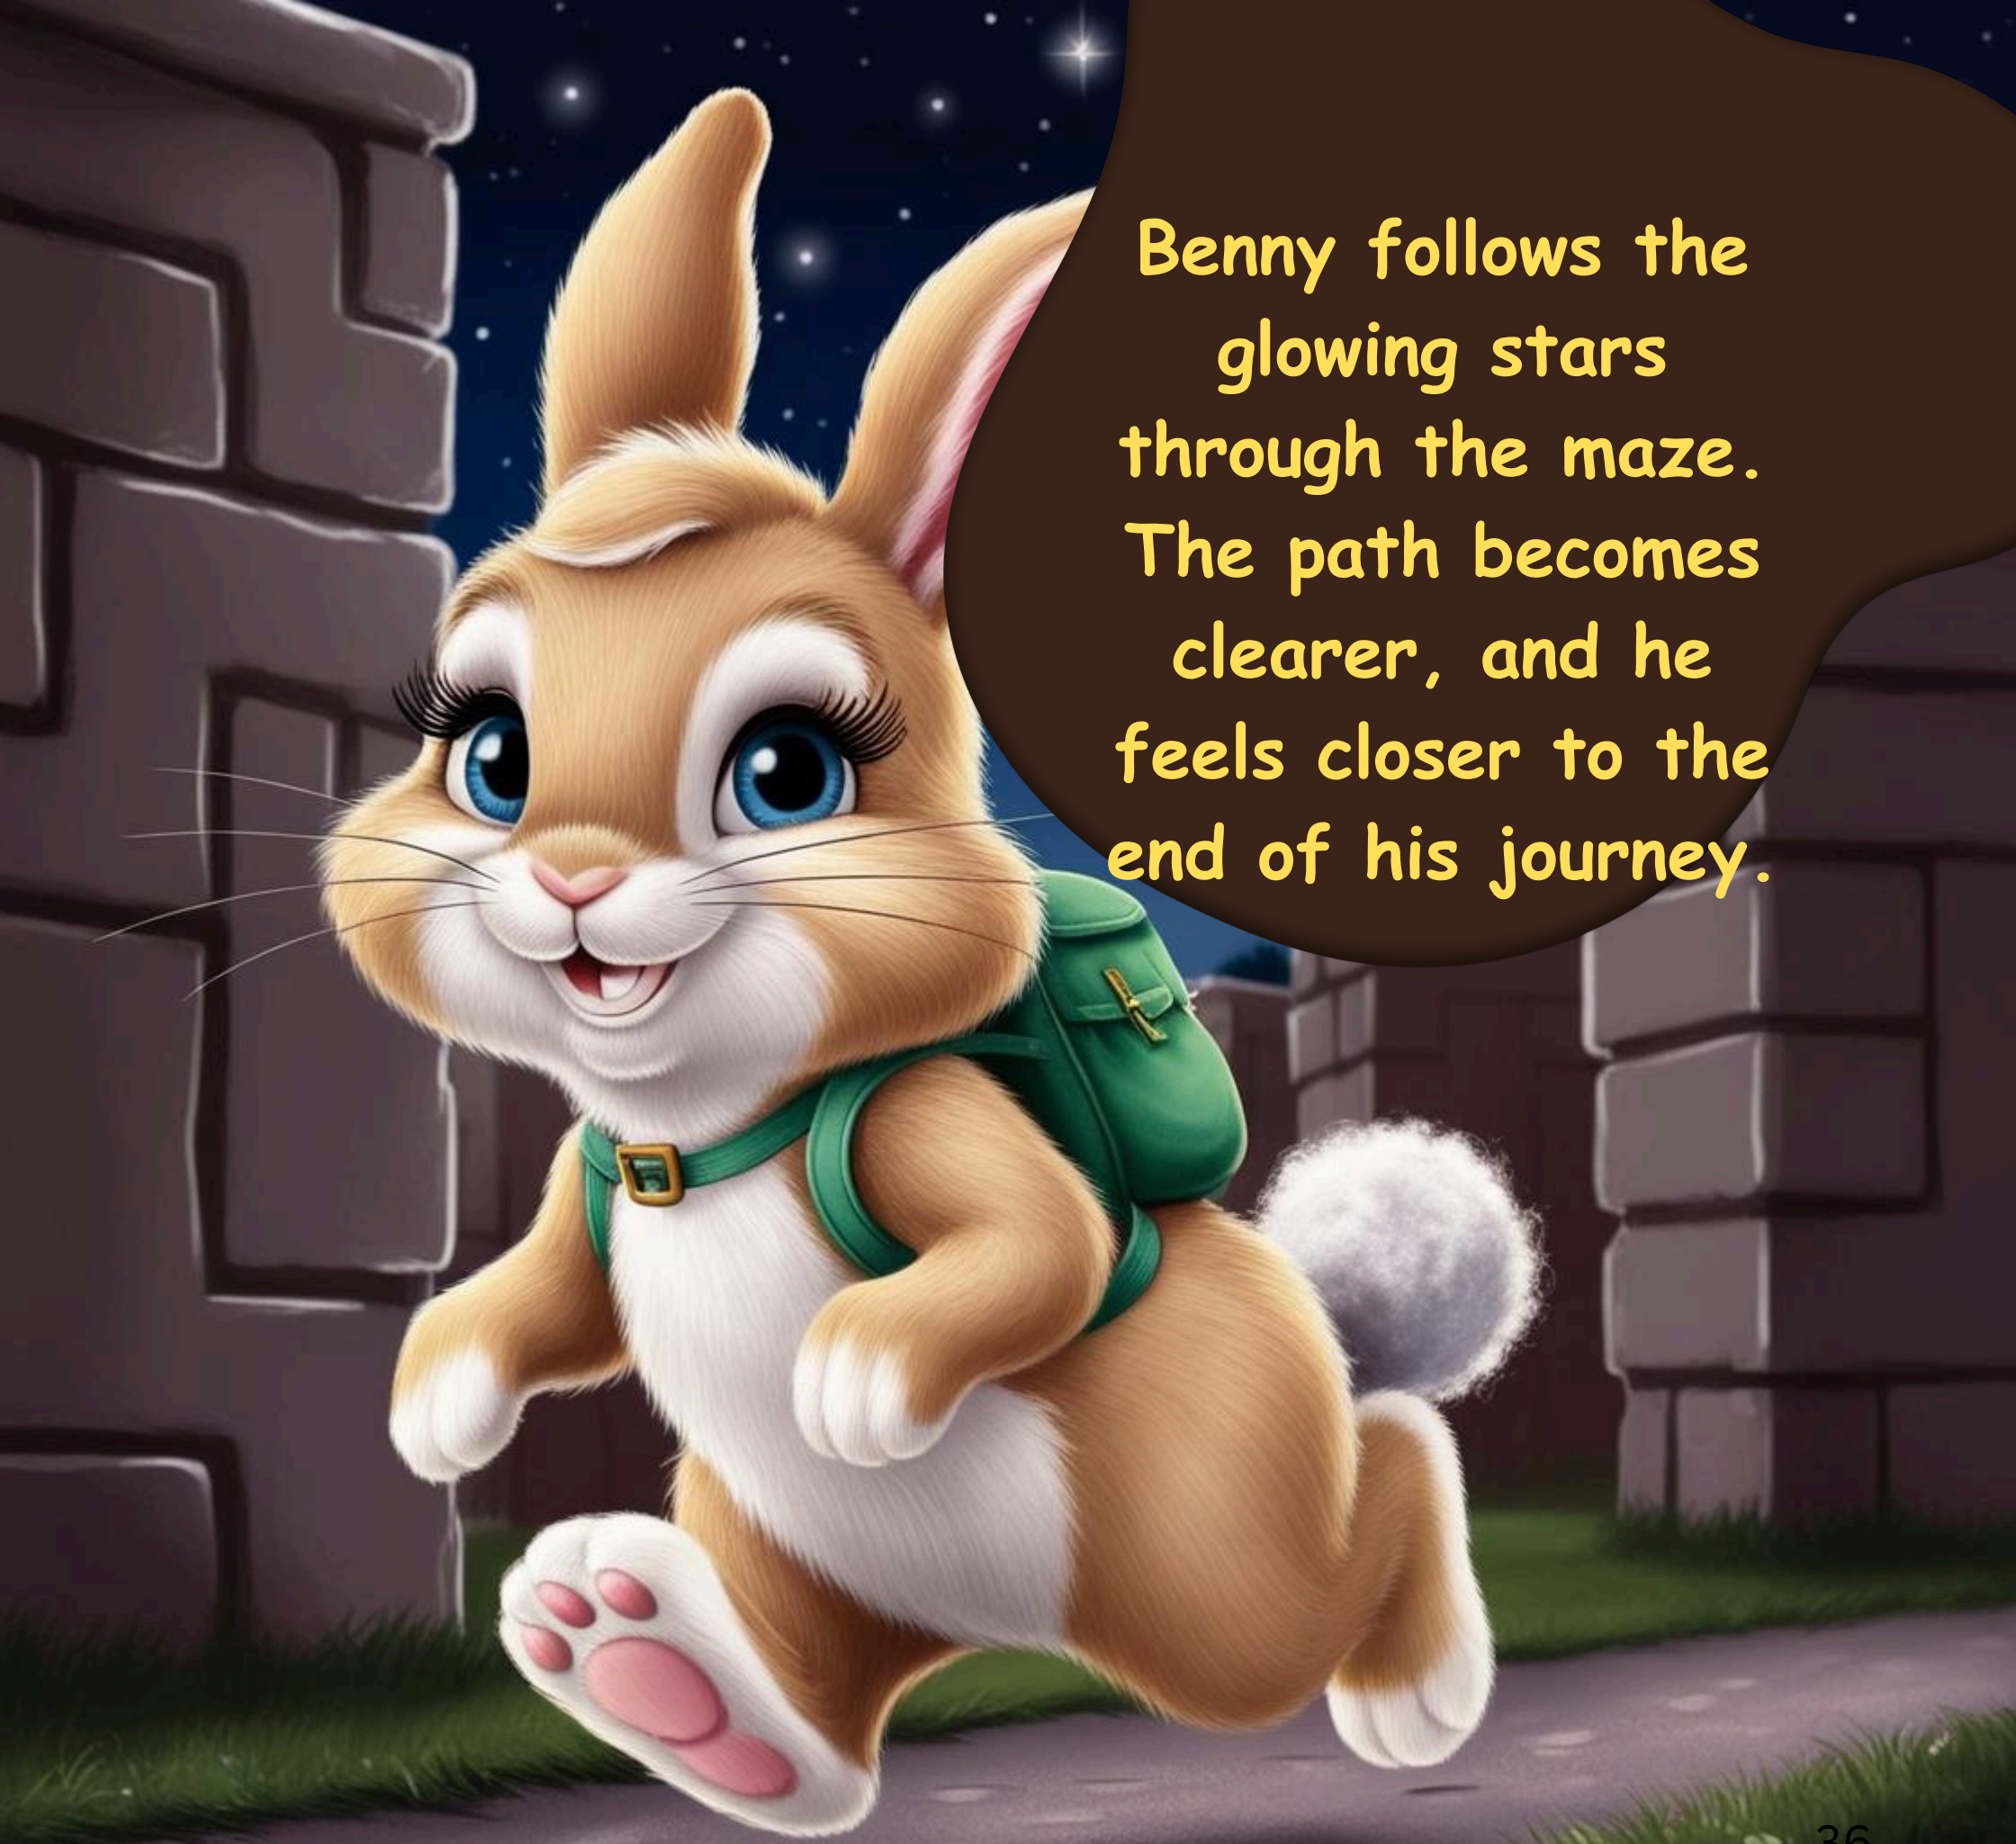

Benny steps into the maze, its tall hedges glowing softly in the moonlight. He takes a deep breath and starts exploring.

A group of friendly fireflies appears, lighting up the maze and guiding Benny through the twists and turns.

A mischievous fox named Felix tries to lead Benny the wrong way. Benny uses his wits to outsmart the trickster

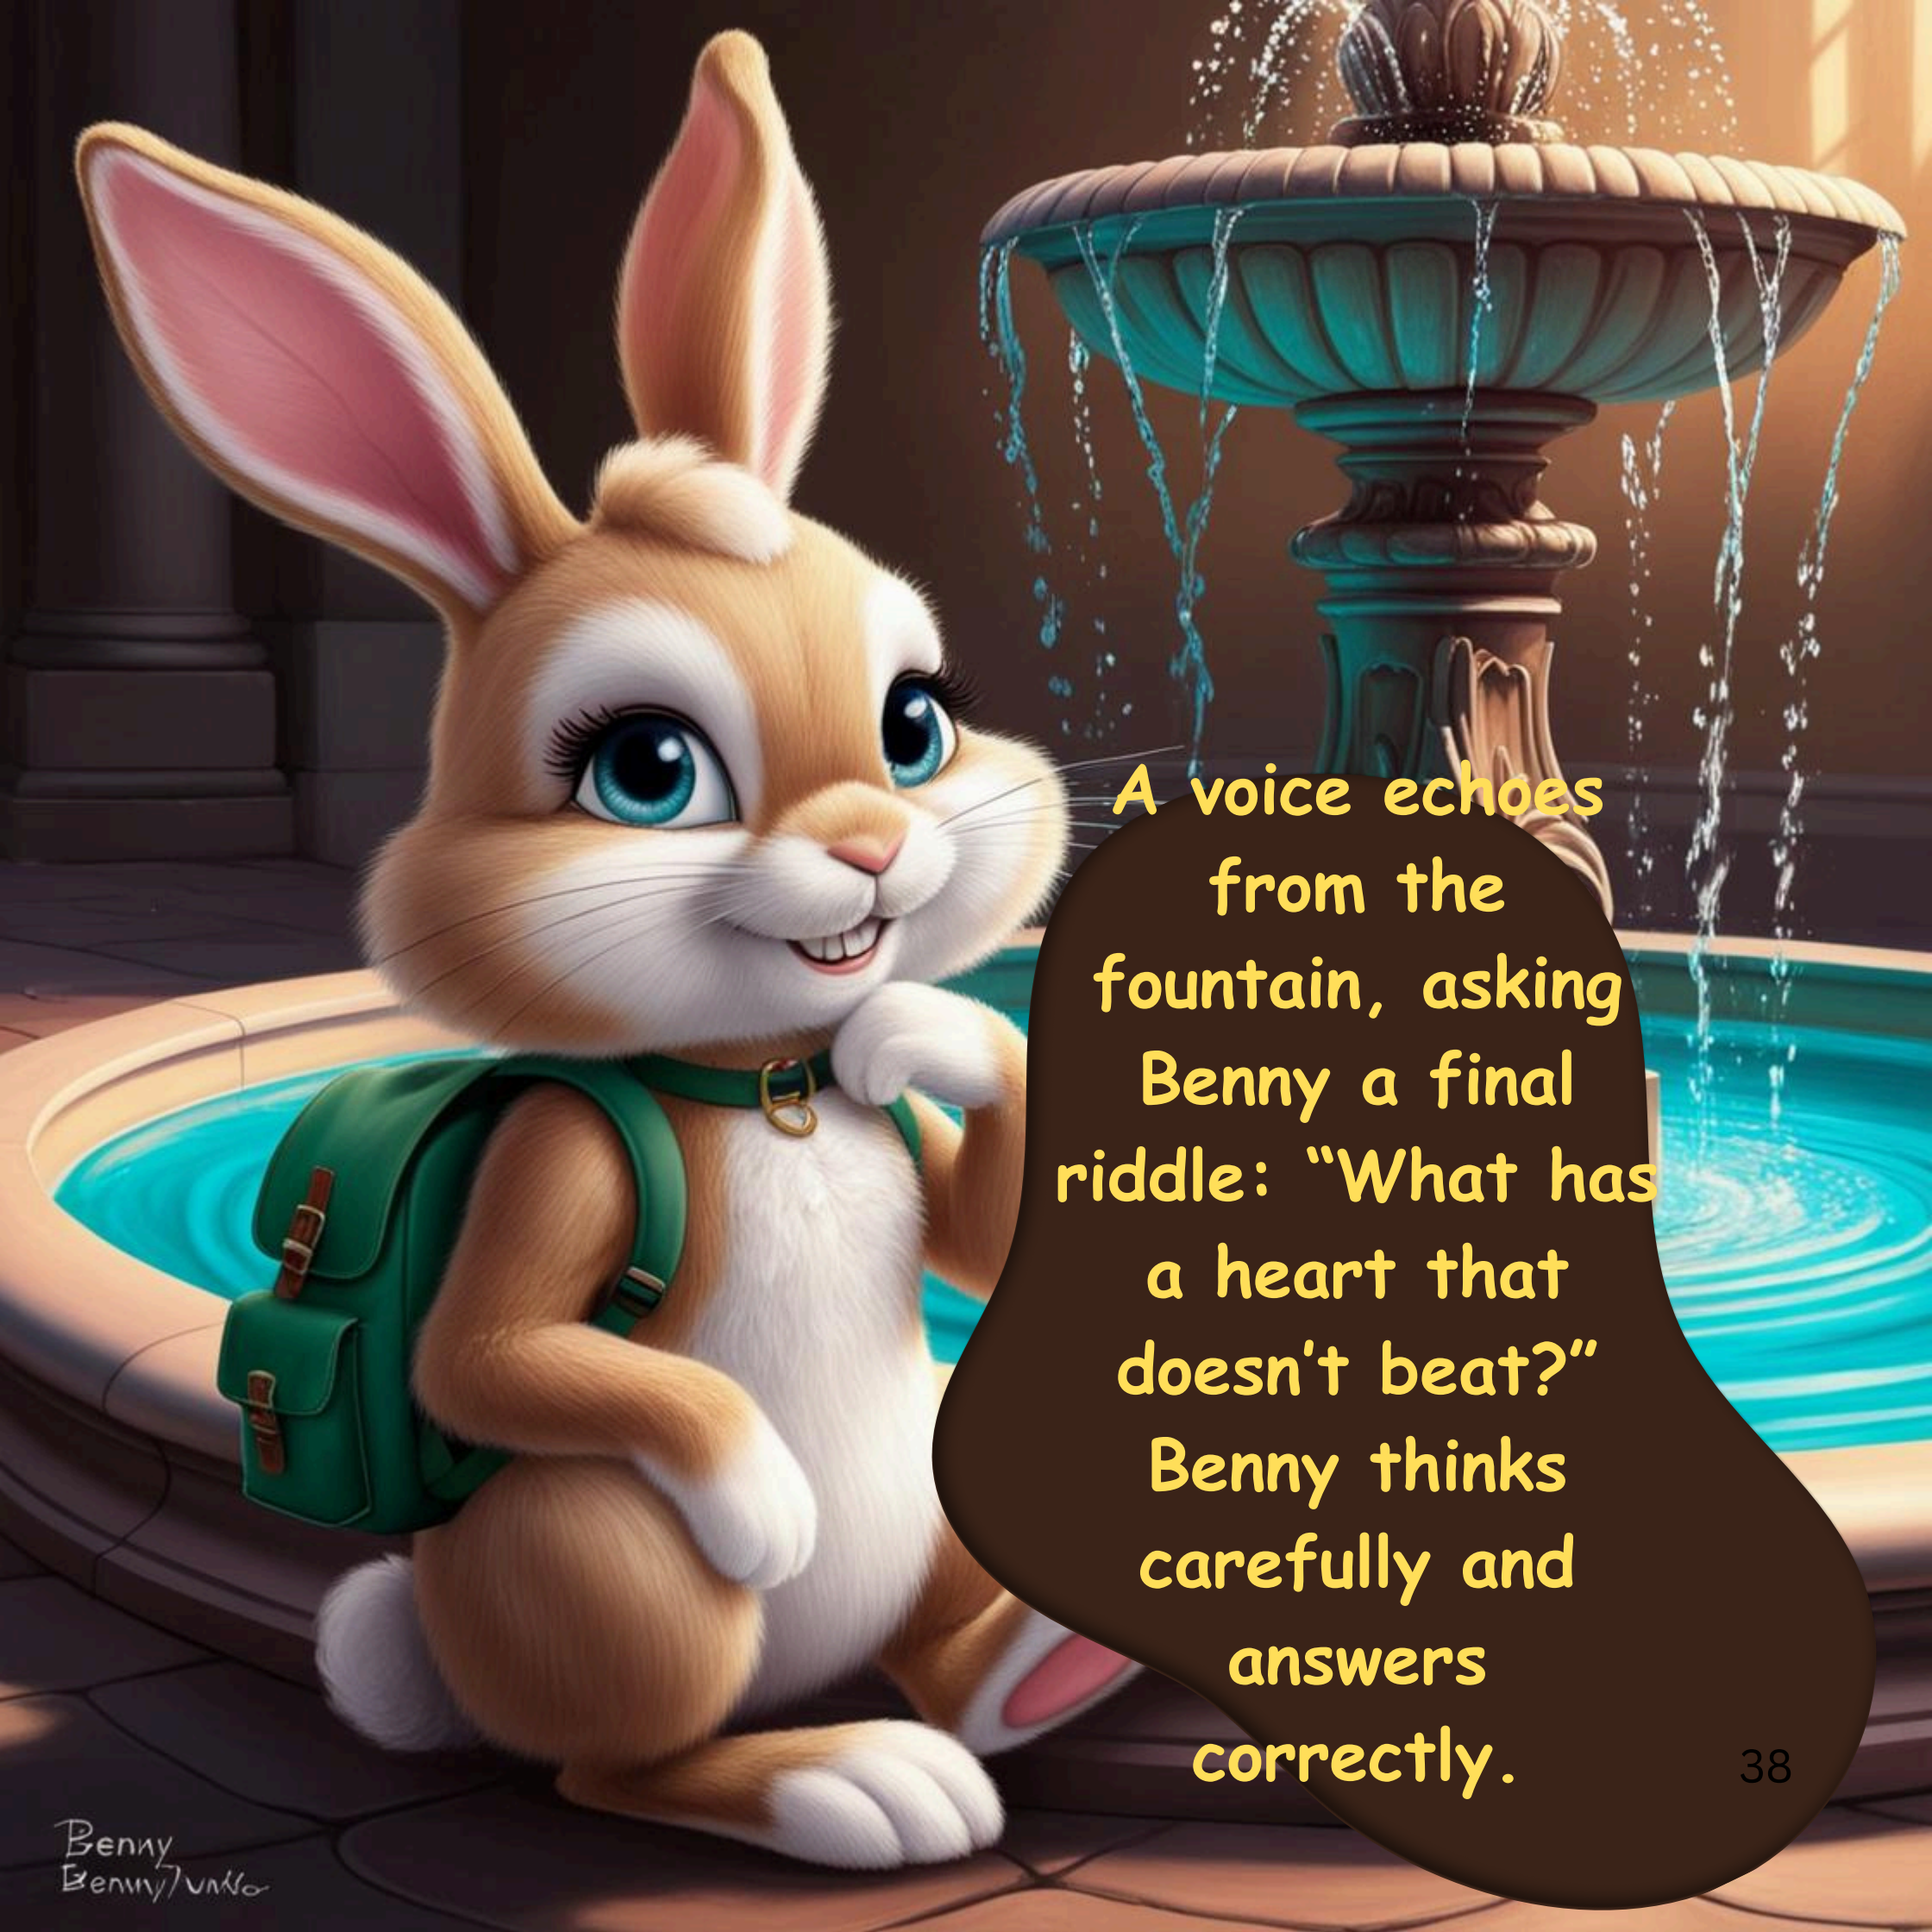

Benny finds a hidden clue carved into a stone: "Follow the stars to find your way." He looks up and sees a trail of glowing stars.

Benny follows the glowing stars through the maze. The path becomes clearer, and he feels closer to the end of his journey.

Benny reaches the center of the maze, where a beautiful crystal fountain sparkles. The water glows with magical light.

A voice echoes from the fountain, asking Benny a final riddle: "What has a heart that doesn't beat?" Benny thinks carefully and answers correctly.

The fountain's water parts, revealing a treasure chest filled with golden carrots and a shiny medal of bravery.

Benny’s new friends—Sammy the Squirrel, Spark the Dragon, and the fireflies—gather to celebrate his success.

Benny returns to his burrow, his backpack full of treasures and his heart full of memories. He can’t wait for his next adventure!

Benny shares his golden carrots with his friends. They all gather around, laughing and enjoying the delicious treats.

Benny returns to the meadow, where all the animals cheer for him. They call him “Benny the Brave” and celebrate his courage.

Benny proudly wears his shiny medal. It glows softly, reminding him of his incredible adventure and the friends he made along the way.

As Benny settles back into his burrow, he finds a new map tucked into his backpack. It shows another exciting adventure waiting for him.

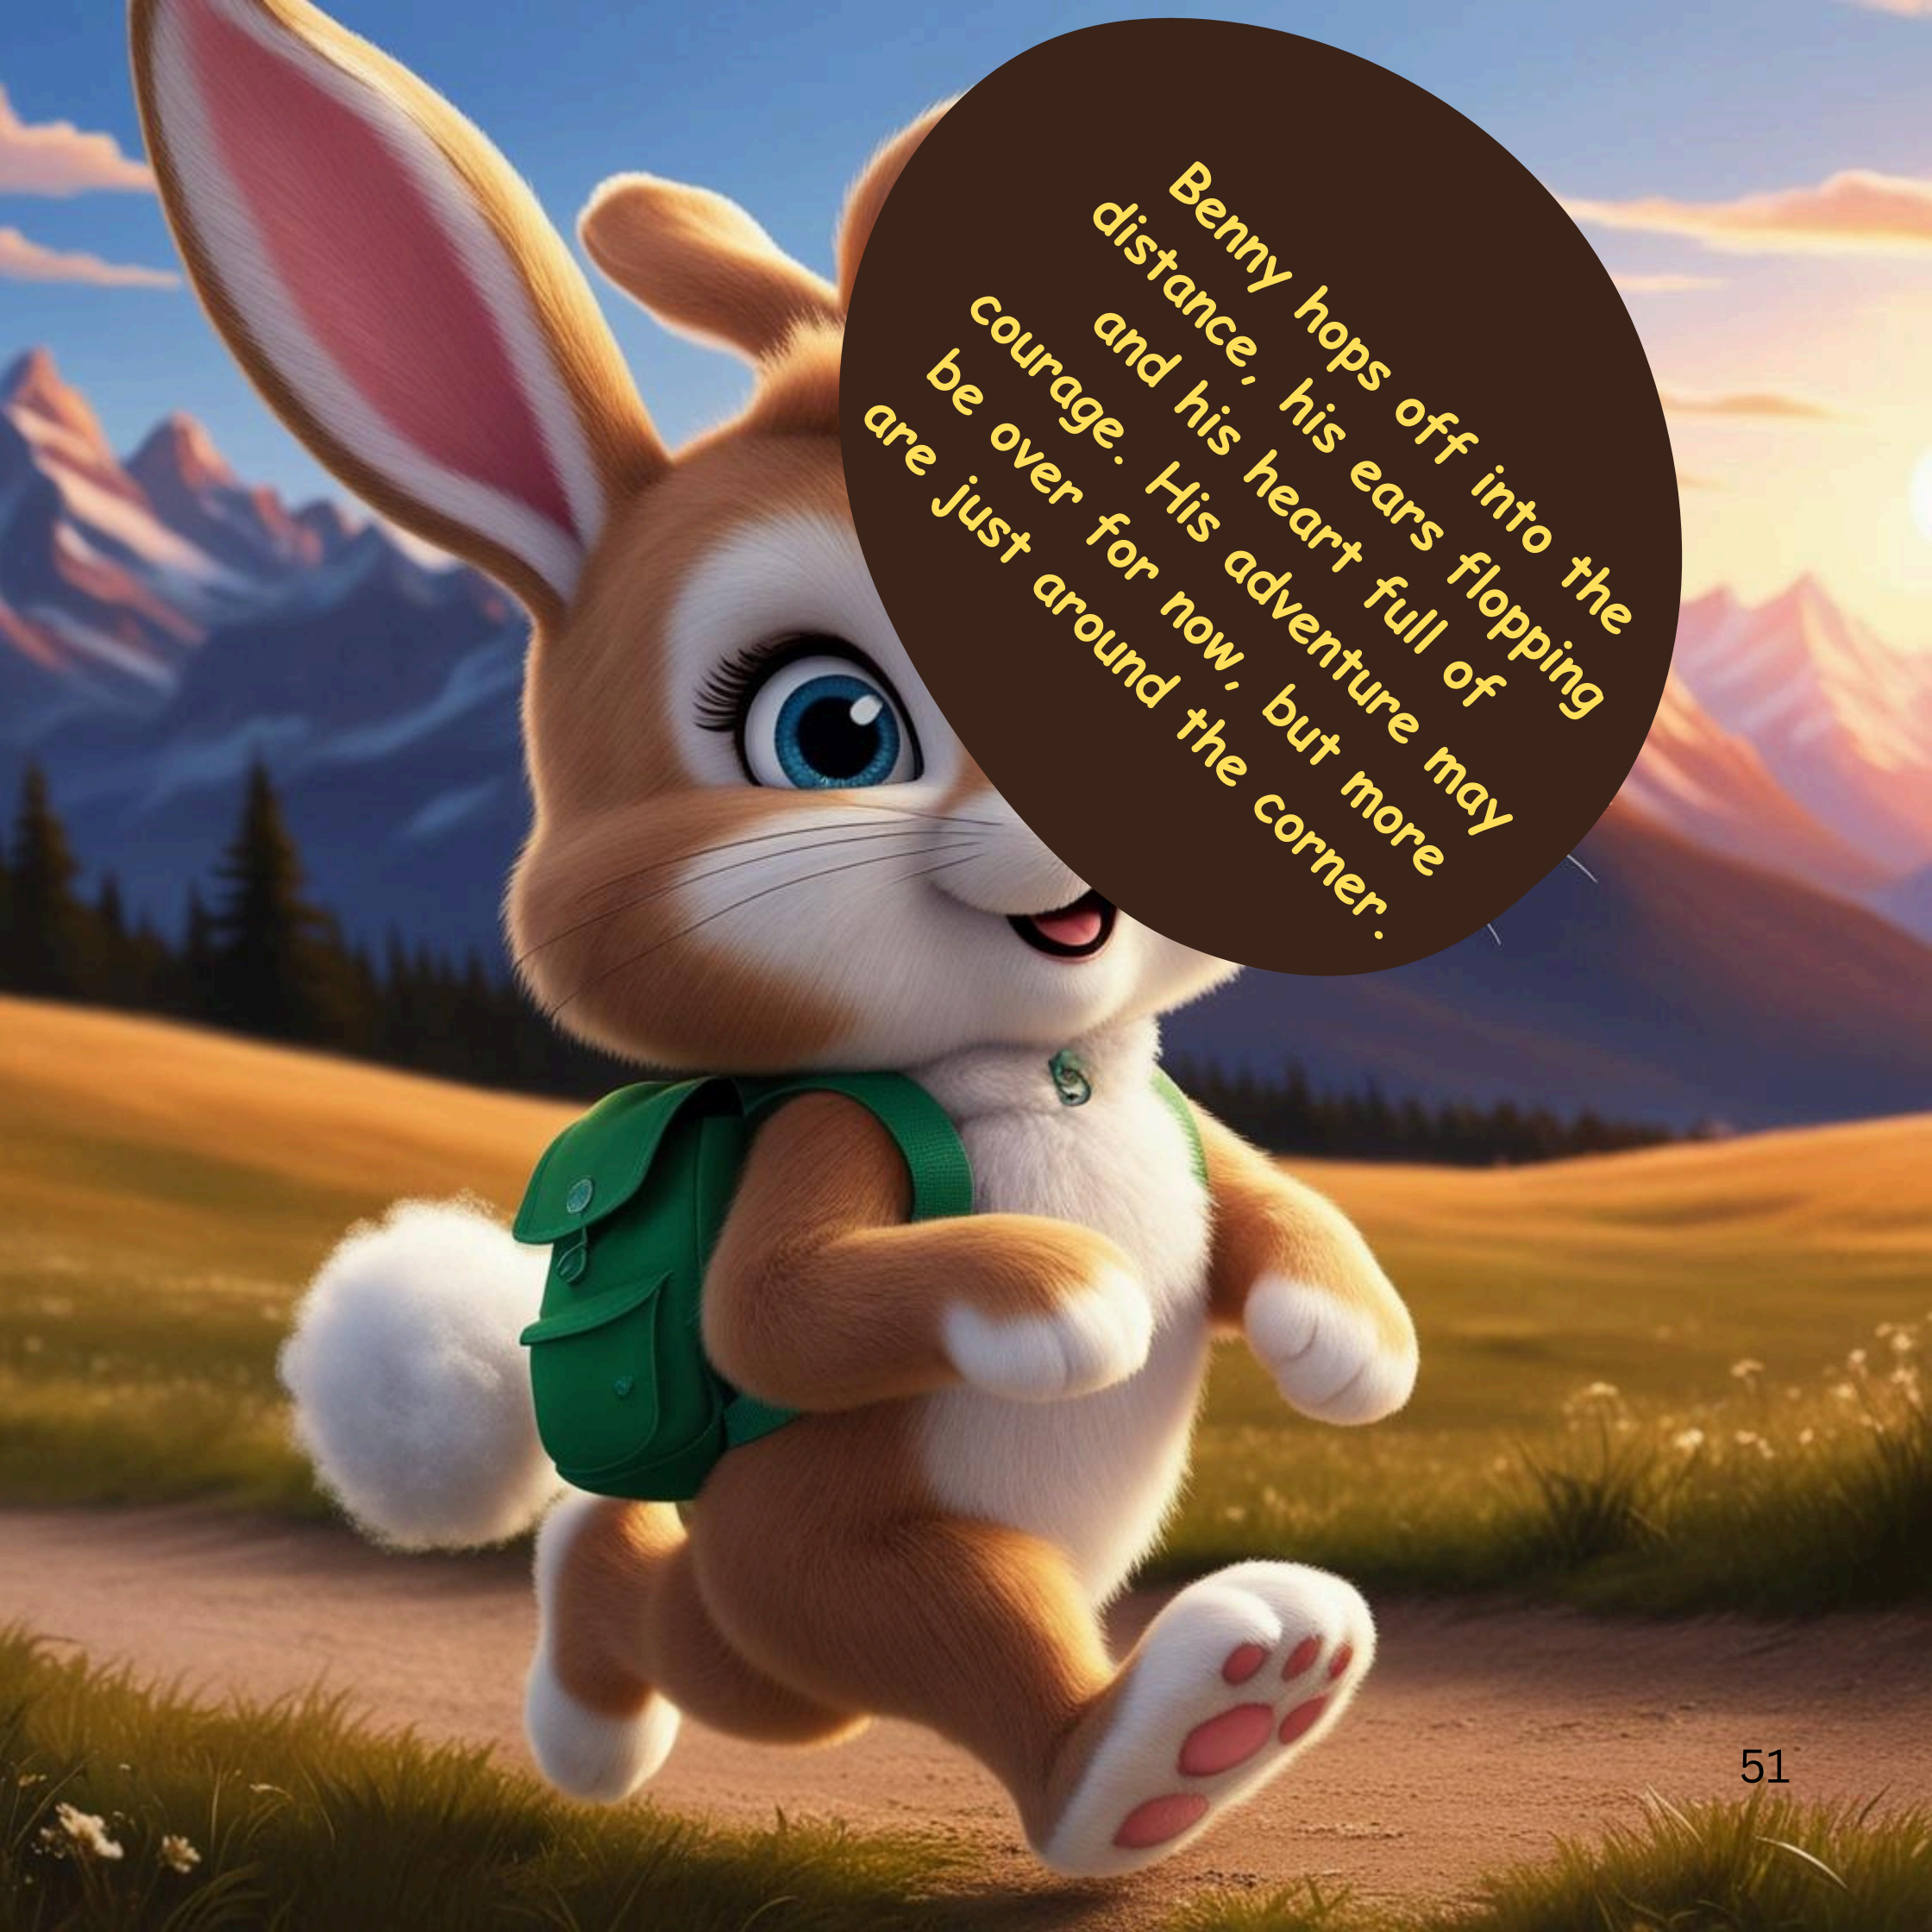

That night, Benny dreams of new places to explore and new friends to meet. His heart is full of excitement for the future.

The next morning, Benny wakes up to the sound of birds singing. The meadow is peaceful, and he feels ready for a new day.

Benny helps a baby bird who has fallen from its nest. He uses his bravery and kindness to reunite the bird with its family.
Benny

Benny realizes that bravery isn't just about big adventures—it's also about helping others and facing everyday challenges.

Benny straps on his backpack, ready to explore the new map. He knows there are more adventures waiting for him, and he can't wait to begin.

Benny hops off into the distance, his ears flopping and his heart full of courage. His adventure may be over for now, but more are just around the corner.

THE END

DRAW ME!

COLOR ME!!

© This Chelx Clothing