Congratulations!

You have been exclusively invited to be a contributor in the multi-author book:

Reclaim Your Life

The Breaking That Made You New

About the Project

Reclaim Your Life is an invitation-only, multi-author book inspired by the powerful conversations featured on Reclaim Your Life with Irina, where real people share extraordinary stories of resilience, awakening, and transformation.

This book brings together entrepreneurs, leaders, and change-makers who are ready to share real and raw moments from their lives, experiences that reshaped who they are and continue to influence how they show up in their work, leadership, and businesses.

Contributors will explore the physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual dimensions of their journey, sharing how life's breaking points became moments of clarity, growth, and renewed purpose. These stories are meant to inspire, empower, and remind readers of the resilience of the human spirit.
