

Beginners Level Syllabus (CEFR A1)

The Beginners level introduces learners to the foundations of essential communication for both classroom and social interaction, enabling them to greet others, introduce themselves, ask simple questions and manage basic everyday exchanges with growing confidence. Learners practise key skills such as naming classroom objects, using numbers 1–50, spelling with the abecedario, giving and requesting personal information and interacting politely in common situations. Grammar work includes *ser, estar, tener, querer, gustar, ir, as well as *llamarse, hablar, hacer, por and para, subject pronouns and gender in nationalities and professions. Vocabulary development covers greetings, classroom items, numbers, nationalities, jobs and workplaces, while pronunciation and intonation are strengthened through practice with preguntas parciales and the Spanish vowels.

Upon successful completion of the Beginners level, learners will be able to participate in basic classroom interactions, ask for information politely and use essential Spanish expressions with correct pronunciation and intonation, introduce yourself confidently, ask for and give personal information and use basic structures accurately when meeting new people in Spanish.
