

Improvers Plus Level Syllabus (CEFR A2)

The Improvers Plus level strengthens learners' ability to communicate with depth and confidence by helping them talk about their learning habits and difficulties, give advice, describe feelings, narrate past events, write biographies, discuss relationships and compatibility, and design and describe a home. Learners practise key skills such as explaining what helps them learn, sharing strategies, organising past events chronologically, highlighting achievements, comparing personal characteristics, describing physical appearance and relationships, expressing preferences, comparing housing options and locating objects in space. Grammar work includes regular and irregular presents, verbos pronominales, costar, sentirse, desde / desde hace, the pretérito indefinido, marcadores temporales, desde, hasta and durante, irregular presents in c > zc, demonstratives, the structure el/la/los/las + que + verbo, llevarse bien/mal, caer bien/mal, comparatives, prepositions and adverbs of place, possessive pronouns and the verbs ser, estar, gustar, encantar and preferir. Vocabulary expands through themes such as emotions, learning activities, biographies, cinema, physical description, relationships, housing types, rooms, materials and styles, while pronunciation is refined through work on la eñe, el ritmo, soft b, d, g and grupos consonánticos.

Upon successful completion of the Improvers Plus level, learners will be able to talk about your learning habits, express difficulties and emotions, give practical advice for learning a language, write a clear and engaging biography, relate past events accurately, describe the beginning and duration of actions using appropriate structures, describe an ideal partner clearly, talk about relationships and similarities, use key structures accurately to express preferences and impressions, describe and compare homes confidently, express preferences clearly, locate and describe objects while using accurate and natural Spanish throughout.
