

Lower Intermediate 2 Level Syllabus (CEFR B1)

The Lower Intermediate 2 level strengthens learners' ability to communicate with clarity and nuance by helping them describe social customs, write professional cover letters, discuss future scenarios, summarise films, design advertising campaigns, write persuasive open letters, manage everyday messages and narrate anecdotes. Learners practise expressing prohibition, obligation and habits; presenting their professional profile using temporal structures; formulating hypotheses and conditions about the future; narrating and connecting events logically; giving recommendations and instructions; expressing wishes, complaints and needs; taking and leaving messages; and sequencing past events while explaining causes and consequences. Grammar work includes structures such as lo normal / lo habitual es + infinitivo, soler + infinitivo, quantifiers, impersonal expressions of prohibition and permission, verbal perífrasis (empezar a, acabar de, seguir + gerundio, volver a, dejar de), desde / desde hace / desde que, si + presente, futuro simple, narrative connectors, object pronouns (OD/OI), the affirmative and negative imperative, the presente de subjuntivo, structures with querer/pedir/necesitar, reported speech and the combination of past tenses including pretérito perfecto, indefinido, imperfecto and pluscuamperfecto. Vocabulary expands through themes such as social norms, workplace language, science and technology, film and literature genres, advertising, social activism, message types, travel and anecdotes, while pronunciation and orthography are refined through work on mayúsculas y minúsculas, the stressed syllable, the diacritical accent and the comma.

Upon successful completion of the Lower Intermediate 2 level, learners will be able to describe social customs, explain rules and habits clearly, express prohibition, obligation and advice, write a coherent cover letter, describe your experience clearly, use temporal structures accurately to present your professional profile, describe future scenarios, express conditions clearly, formulate hypotheses about the future, summarise a film clearly, narrate events using appropriate connectors, apply object pronouns accurately when describing a storyline while using accurate and natural Spanish throughout.
