

Intermediate 2 Level Syllabus (CEFR B1)

The Intermediate 2 level strengthens learners' ability to participate in complex, nuanced communication by helping them express interests, feelings and opinions in discussions, describe and evaluate objects, analyse social and environmental problems, formulate hypotheses about scientific mysteries and present ideas with clarity and precision. Learners practise key skills such as showing and softening disagreement, offering counterarguments, explaining how objects work, giving strong evaluations, assessing actions and behaviours, proposing realistic solutions, narrating mysterious events and expressing different degrees of certainty. Grammar work includes structures with me fascina / me encanta / odio / no aguanto (+ subjuntivo, noun or infinitive), superlatives in -ísimo/a/os/as, exclamative phrases, relative clauses with prepositions, evaluative structures such as es injusto / está bien / me parece mal (+ infinitivo or que + subjuntivo), the conditional, expressions with esto / eso / lo + de (que), and hypothesis-building forms using the futuro simple, futuro compuesto and both indicative and subjunctive. Vocabulary expands through themes such as interests and feelings, object description, social and environmental issues, and scientific and paranormal mysteries, while pronunciation and spelling are refined through work on preguntas eco, parenthetical intonation and distinctions such as ge/jota and be/uve.

Upon successful completion of the Intermediate 2 level learners will be able to express feelings confidently, disagree politely, participate in discussions using appropriate grammar and intonation, describe objects in detail, evaluate their design confidently, use advanced structures to express strong opinions, express opinions about social issues, evaluate actions with appropriate structures, propose thoughtful solutions, formulate hypotheses clearly, narrate mysterious events with appropriate vocabulary, and express different levels of certainty using accurate grammatical structures while using accurate and natural Spanish throughout.
