How to Use Your Faith-Filled Daily Pages

This PDF is pre-formatted with 30 Daily pages so you can hit "Print" once and have a full month of peace ready for your clipboard. However, this is your resource to keep—feel free to print out as many additional copies as you need for the entire school year!

Start with the Heart (Faith Anchor)

- Before the house wakes up (or during that first quiet cup of coffee), fill out your Faith Anchor. Write down a scripture that speaks to your current season and offer a short prayer of surrender. This sets the tone for your day—moving in His strength, not your own.

Choose Your "One Thing"

- Overwhelm happens when we have ten "top" priorities. Look at your day and pick one main focus. If everything else goes sideways, but you finish this one thing, the day is a success.

Embrace the Rhythm

- Homeschooling rarely follows a clock. Instead of rigid time blocks, use the Today's Rhythm section. What does your Morning look like? How do you transition into Midday? This allows for the flexibility that real life requires.

The "Must-Do" vs. the "Flex"

- Must-Do Tasks: Limit yourself to just 3. These are your non-negotiables.
- Flex Tasks: These are your "if there's time" items. By putting them here, you give yourself permission to let them go if the kids need more of you today. No guilt allowed!

The Heart Check

- Check in with yourself mid-day. Ask, "How do I want today to feel?" If the morning was chaotic, this is your chance to reset. It's never too late to choose peace.

End with Gratitude

- Before you close your eyes, write down where you saw God's hand. Even on the hardest days, there is always a "win" to be found.
