IT'S HOLIDAY TIME!

Welcome to the Ultimate Travel Planner! If you feel like chaos personified when you have a vacation on the horizon or you're not sure where to start with everything you need to do, pack and buy before your epic trip of a lifetime then this travel planner is for you.

Hi, I'm Corinne, Bucket List Travel Coach. Like you, I used to struggle with getting everything organised before my trip and would end up feeling frazzled and exhausted before I'd even gone anywhere. This travel planner was born out of my determination to start my holidays that are meant for relaxation and unwinding actually relaxed and unwound.

What if you could do that too? Simplify the whole travel planning and packing process and learn what works best for you. Would that lead to you actually starting your vacation relaxed and ready to have an amazing time instead of running out the door hoping you'll make it to the airport on time and that you've packed enough socks?

Included in this travel planner are all the lists you'll ever need to make sure you've packed everything you want to pack, and where you need to be and when. Say goodbye to the chaos and enjoy!
