

Name: _____

Date: _____

Myth Maker: The Inklings Comic Strip

Plan Your Myth

Just like C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien shared their stories at the Eagle and Child pub, you are going to create your own fantasy tale!

Your Task: Create a 6-panel comic strip that includes:

1. A new mythological creature.
2. A magical setting (like Narnia or Middle-earth).
3. A moment where characters share ideas or give positive feedback to each other, just like the Inklings did!

Brainstorm your ideas below before drawing:

My Mythological Creature:

My Magical Setting:

How will the characters share ideas or give feedback in the story?

The Comic Strip

Draw your comic strip in the panels below. Remember to include speech bubbles and captions!

Panel 1

Panel 2

Panel 3

Panel 4

Panel 5	Panel 6
----------------	----------------

The Inklings Feedback Circle

The Inklings met regularly to read their stories out loud and help each other improve. Now it's your turn! Trade your comic strip with a partner. Read their comic and provide helpful, encouraging feedback below.

What I loved about your story:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

[illegible][illegible]

This image shows a full page of white paper with horizontal dashed lines, typical of primary school writing paper. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Answer Key

Plan Your Myth

Answer:

Answers will vary. Example: A flying fox with crystal wings.

Answer:

Answers will vary. Example: The Floating Islands of Aeros.

Answer:

Answers will vary. Example: They stop to look at a map and encourage each other when they get lost.

The Inklings Feedback Circle

Answer:

Answers will vary.

Answer:

Answers will vary.

Write the Blurb

Answer:

Answers will vary. Example: In a world where crystal wings shine bright, one flying fox must find the lost Floating Islands. Will they discover the truth before it's too late?