

Soulmate School Writing Exercise #6: Shining Your Radiance

Our final call in Soulmate School is Activate Your Love Vibration. One of the main ways to be magnetic to love is to literally shine your radiant light in the world. The Divine Feminine is all about light and love. And being in that energy is the best way to attract a Divinely Masculine Man.

1) How do you feel that about shining your light in the world? Do you allow yourself to be seen as a radiant being of light?

2) When you don't shine, how do you hide? Do you know why you hide? What feels vulnerable about shining your light?

3) When you do shine your light, how do you go about sharing it? How does it make you feel? How do others respond to you?

4) Being connected to your passion accesses your radiance. What are you deeply passionate about? What lights you up? What brings you joy and makes you giddy?

5) The fastest way into light and joy is gratitude. What are you most grateful for?
