YOUR BIBLE READING PLAN: A YEAR OF DISCOVERIES

TIPS FOR AN ENRICHING

READ

Pray before you begin: Ask for God's help and wisdom to understand His Word.

Take notes: Use a notebook or an app to jot down verses that speak to you.

Don't worry if you miss a day: The beauty of a plan like this is its flexibility. Simply pick up where you left off.

Discuss it: Share your discoveries with a friend or family member.

WEEK 1

Genesis describes the creation of the world in six days, followed by God's rest. The genealogy of Jesus Christ is mentioned in Matthew, linking Abraham to Jesus and describing his miraculous birth. The fall of man is recounted with Adam and Eve eating the forbidden fruit. This leads to their expulsion from the Garden of Eden and continues with the first human generations. God decides to purify the earth with a flood, sparing Noah and his family. Matthew recounts the visit of the Magi to Jesus and their flight into Egypt. After the flood, humanity is renewed through the sons of Noah. John the Baptist preaches in the desert, baptizes Jesus, and proclaims the Kingdom of Heaven.

- Day 1 - Genesis 1-2; Matthew 1
- Day 2 - Genesis 3-5
- Day 3 - Genesis 6-7; Matthew 2
- Day 4 - Genesis 8-10; Matthew 3

WEEK 2

The stories in Genesis 11–27 recount major events from the Old Testament. After the construction of the Tower of Babel, the peoples are scattered, and God calls Abram to leave his land. Abram separates from Lot and receives the promise of abundant descendants. With the birth of Ishmael, God renews his covenant with Abram, renames him Abraham, and announces the birth of Isaac. Angels visit Abraham to announce the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. Abraham demonstrates his faith by being willing to sacrifice Isaac. The stories continue with the death of Sarah, the marriage of Isaac to Rebekah, and the death of Abraham. The conflicts surrounding Isaac's wells precede the stolen blessing by Jacob. In the New Testament, Jesus is tempted by Satan and teaches the Sermon on the Mount, demonstrating his power and compassion through his miracles.

- Day 5 - Genesis 11-12
- Day 6 - Genesis 13-15; Matthew 4
- Day 7 - Genesis 16-17; Matthew 5
- Day 8 - Genesis 18-20
- Day 9 - Genesis 21-22; Matthew 6
- Day 10 - Genesis 23-25; Matthew 7
- Day 11 - Genesis 26-27; Matthew 8

WEEK 3

In Genesis 28-30, Jacob dreams of a ladder between heaven and earth, then works for Laban and marries Leah and Rachel. Genesis 31-33 recounts his escape from Laban and his reconciliation with Esau. In Genesis 34-35, Jacob returns to Bethel, and Rachel dies. Genesis 36-38 discusses Esau's genealogy and the selling of Joseph. Genesis 39-40 describes Joseph's trials in Egypt. Genesis 41-43 shows Joseph interpreting Pharaoh's dreams and finding his brothers. Finally, Genesis 44-45 focuses on Joseph's revelation to his brothers. In Matthew 9-13, Jesus performs miracles, teaches, and speaks in parables.

- Day 12 - Genesis 28-30
- Day 13 - Genesis 31-33; Matthew 9
- Day 14 - Genesis 34-35; Matthew 10
- Day 15 - Genesis 36-38
- Day 16 - Genesis 39-40; Matthew 11
- Day 17 - Genesis 41-43; Matthew 12
- Day 18 - Genesis 44-45; Matthew 13

WEEK 4

The readings from Genesis recount Jacob's journey to Egypt, the blessing of his sons, and the death of Joseph, before moving on to the story of Moses in Exodus. Moses is chosen by God to free the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, despite Pharaoh's resistance, which leads to the ten plagues. In the Gospel of Matthew, we follow Jesus as he performs miracles, feeds crowds, and teaches about faith and forgiveness.

- Day 19 - Genesis 46-48
- Day 20 - Genesis 49-50; Matthew 14
- Day 21 - Exodus 1-3; Matthew 15
- Day 22 - Exodus 4-5
- Day 23 - Exodus 6-8; Matthew 16
- Day 24 - Exodus 9-11; Matthew 17
- Day 25 - Exodus 12-13; Matthew 18

WEEK 5

During these readings, Moses leads the Israelites through the Red Sea, a miraculous demonstration of divine power. In the desert, God provides for their needs with manna and water. Jethro advises Moses on governing the people, while the commandments are given at Mount Sinai, establishing laws for the community. In the New Testament, Jesus teaches about the kingdom of God, addresses matters of marriage and salvation, and enters Jerusalem in triumph, causing tension with the religious authorities.

- Day 26 - Exodus 14-16
- Day 27 - Exodus 17-18; Matthew 19
- Day 28 - Exodus 19-21; Matthew 20
- Day 29 - Exodus 22-23
- Day 30 - Exodus 24-26; Matthew 21
- Day 31 - Exodus 27-28; Matthew 22
- Day 32 - Exodus 29-31; Matthew 23

WEEK 6

During these readings, we first encounter the people's rebellion with the golden calf and Moses' plea for God's mercy (Exodus 32-33). Next, God renews his covenant with Moses and guides the construction of the Tabernacle (Exodus 34-40). The opening chapters of Leviticus describe the various sacrifices and offerings required for sins and purification (Leviticus 1-9). Meanwhile, in the Gospel of Matthew, Jesus discusses the end times and the Last Judgment (Matthew 24-25), and then recounts his Passion, crucifixion, and resurrection (Matthew 26-28).

- Day 33 - Exodus 32-33
- Day 34 - Exodus 34-36; Matthew 24
- Day 35 - Exodus 37-39; Matthew 25
- Day 36 - Exodus 40; Leviticus 1
- Day 37 - Leviticus 2-4; Matthew 26
- Day 38 - Leviticus 5-6; Matthew 27
- Day 39 - Leviticus 7-9; Matthew 28

WEEK 31

This week of Bible readings begins with Obadiah, who addresses the fall of Edom, followed by Jonah, where Jonah is sent to Nineveh to call for repentance, and he ultimately accepts his divine mission. Next, the prophecies of Micah highlight the social injustices in Israel and announce the coming of a just king. Nahum predicts the destruction of Nineveh, while Habakkuk questions divine justice in the face of violence. In the New Testament, Paul, in his second letter to the Corinthians, shares his trials, expresses his unwavering faith, and encourages reconciliation and spiritual perseverance.

- Day 208 - Obadiah; Jonah 1-2; 2 Corinthians 1
- Day 209 - Jonah 3-4; 2 Corinthians 2
- Day 210 - Micah 1-3
- Day 211 - Micah 4-6; 2 Corinthians 3
- Day 212 - Micah 7; Nahum 1; 2 Corinthians 4
- Day 213 - Nahum 2-3; Habakkuk 1; 2 Corinthians 5
- Day 214 - Habakkuk 2-3

WEEK 32

This week's readings began with Zephaniah, where the prophet announces divine judgment against Judah, calling for repentance. Haggai urges the rebuilding of the temple, emphasizing the priority of divine matters. Zechariah offers visions encouraging a return to Jerusalem and spiritual restoration. In the letters to the Corinthians, Paul gives counsel on godliness, generosity, and reconciliation. These letters highlight the importance of spiritual purity and community involvement.

WEEK 49

This week's Bible readings focus primarily on the books of Ezra and Nehemiah, which recount the rebuilding of Jerusalem and the spiritual reform of the Israelites after the Babylonian exile. Ezra emphasizes the confession and purification of the people, while Nehemiah concentrates on the rebuilding of Jerusalem's walls and the resolution of internal conflicts. Meanwhile, the letters of John and the Book of Revelation address themes of truth, faithfulness, and divine revelation, presenting messages to the churches of Asia Minor and prophetic visions of the end times. The week concludes with 1 Chronicles, a book offering a detailed genealogy of the tribes of Israel.

- Day 334 - Ezra 7-9; 3 John
- Day 335 - Ezra 10; Nehemiah 1
- Day 336 - Nehemiah 2-4; Revelation 1
- Day 337 - Nehemiah 5-6; Revelation 2
- Day 338 - Nehemiah 7-9; Revelation 3
- Day 339 - Nehemiah 10-11
- Day 340 - Nehemiah 12-13; 1 Chronicles 1; Revelation 4

WEEK 50

This week, the Bible readings covered passages from Chronicles and Revelation. We began with the genealogies in 1 Chronicles 2-3 and the heavenly vision in Revelation 5. Then, chapters 4-6 of 1 Chronicles detailed the lineages of the tribes of Israel. The following days continued with the history of the kings, including David's rise to power (1 Chronicles 10-11) and the description of his military exploits (1 Chronicles 12-14). Revelation revealed the visions of the broken seals (Revelation 6) and the multitude in white (Revelation 7), as well as the trumpets announcing divine judgments (Revelation 8-9). Finally, 1 Chronicles 15-19 recounted the transfer of the Ark of the Covenant to Jerusalem and David's military successes.

- Day 341 - 1 Chronicles 2-3; Revelation 5
- Day 342 - 1 Chronicle 4-6
- Day 343 - 1 Chronicles 7-9; Revelation 6
- Day 344 - 1 Chronicles 10-11; Revelation 7
- Day 345 - 1 Chronicles 12-14; Revelation 8
- Day 346 - 1 Chronicles 15-16
- Day 347 - 1 Chronicles 17-19; Revelation 9

WEEK 51

This week, the Bible readings covered key events from Chronicles, where David prepares for the construction of the temple, and Solomon begins his reign and the construction of the temple. In Revelation, we explored the visions detailing divine judgments and apocalyptic symbols, including the trumpets and the beasts. These passages highlight divine sovereignty, preparations for worship, and prophetic revelations about the end times.

- Day 348 - 1 Chronicles 20-21; Revelation 10
- Day 349 - 1 Chronicle 22-24
- Day 350 - 1 Chronicles 25-26; Revelation 11

- Day 352 - 2 Chronicles 1-2; Revelation 13
- Day 353 - Chronicle 3-5
- Day 354 - 2 Chronicles 6-8; Revelation 14

WEEK 52

This week's reading covered significant sections of 2 Chronicles and Revelation. In 2 Chronicles, we explored the successive reigns of various kings of Judah, their successes and failures, and the religious reforms undertaken to bring the people back to God. The chapters in Revelation described apocalyptic visions, including plagues and the final judgment on Babylon, culminating in the celebration of God's victory.

- Day 355 - 2 Chronicles 9-10; Revelation 15
- Day 356 - 2 Chronicles 11-13
- Day 357 - 2 Chronicles 14-15; Revelation 16
- Day 358 - 2 Chronicles 16-18; Revelation 17
- Day 359 - 2 Chronicles 19-20; Revelation 18
- Day 360 - Chronicle 21-23
- Day 361 - 2 Chronicles 24-25; Revelation 19

WEEK 53

This week, the Bible readings guided us through the final chapters of 2 Chronicles and Revelation. In 2 Chronicles, we saw the reign of the kings of Israel, from the prosperity under Uzziah to the religious reform undertaken by Hezekiah, and finally the fall of Jerusalem under Zedekiah. Revelation led us to the conclusion of John's vision, describing the final judgment, the defeat of Satan, and the coming of a new heaven and a new earth. These passages emphasize divine justice and the hope of a future restoration. The texts invite us to reflect on faith, faithfulness to God, and hope for better times.

- Day 362 - 2 Chronicles 26-28; Revelation 20

Day 363 - Chronicle 29-30

Day 364 - 2 Chronicles 31-33; Revelation 21
