

Adam & Maria – Quiet Night – Episode 1

Adam: Hello, who is calling at this hour?

Maria: Hello Adam, can you hear me? It's me, Maria.

Adam: Maria, why are you calling me at six in the morning? What happened?

Maria: Nothing happened, just a moment, I'm drinking hot milk. It's pretty hot!

Adam: Milk? You're drinking milk so early? But, the sun has barely risen! Listen, you woke me up and — oh my god, what is that howling in the background?

Maria: You hear that?

Adam: Of course I hear it. Are you at some opera concert at dawn? What is that awful noise?

Maria: I'm not at an opera concert. I'm just eating breakfast.

Adam: You're eating breakfast with such a noise in your ears? How do you do that?

Maria: I get up early, take a small pot, pour the milk, and boil it. And then... I sit at the table.

Adam: You know, I haven't eaten anything yet and I definitely don't have the strength for pots.

Adam & Maria – Quiet Night – Episode 1

Maria: I must eat. Besides hot milk, I also eat dark bread.

Adam: Dark bread. Regular bread from the bakery?

Maria: Yes. Delicious, healthy, dark bread. And you know, I spread butter on it. A lot of butter.

Adam: I see. Sounds healthy.

Maria: And on top of the butter, I put white cheese. Dark bread with butter and white cheese is my favorite breakfast.
