ANNUAL NATIONAL VIRTUAL CONFERENCE, RETREAT & REUNION

1ST ANNUAL NATIONAL VIRTUAL CONFERENCE, RETREAT & REUNION

Uncommon Unfinished Men™ (UUM) is a men's community movement built on a single correction: we were not a culture unprepared for the future — we were a culture unpermitted a future, and that era is over. UUM exists to help men, families, and communities take deliberate ownership of their health, time, learning, relationships, assets, and story, and to pass greater opportunity to the next generation.

1ST ANNUAL NATIONAL VIRTUAL CONFERENCE, RETREAT & REUNION

NATE WILKINS - CO-CREATOR OF THE AGELESSWORKOUT®

SPEAKER, WELLNESS AND HEALING
PROFESSIONAL, AUTHOR, AND PASSIONATE ADVOCATE FOR MEN'S HEALTH.

Dear Friends,

We are excited to extend a warm welcome to all of you to the 1st Annual National Virtual conference, Retreat & Reunion

I want to personally welcome you to Uncommon Unfinished Men™ — our first National Conference, Retreat & Reunion. What started as a moonshot, a big idea we weren't sure the world was ready for, is now a room full of men who said yes. You're one of them.

This isn't just for men, though men are at the center of it. We know men today need real space to be honest, to talk, to be heard, to be human. That's why we built "Breathe, Brother, Breathe," a space where we sit down and talk through what men carry, including the things we don't always say out loud. You'll find that spirit throughout this experience.

Over these days together, you'll hear from speakers covering the full range of what it means to build a total man technology, financial literacy, health, and more. Technology isn't coming. It's already here, and we want you equipped for it. You'll also be reminded of the fundamentals: exercise right, sleep right, surround yourself with the right people. Because in the end, none of this is only about you. It's about building a new sense of community, one worth turning back for.

That's what this book is for. It's your companion through the week, a place to reflect, take notes, and hold onto what you build here so it doesn't stay behind when you go home.

I'm glad you're here. Life isn't asking you your age. It's asking you, "What's your plan?"

Let's build it together.

Best regards,

NATE O. WILKINS
Founder, Uncommon Unfinished Men™

DANCE MASTERCLASS FACILITATOR

PIERRE LOCKETT

FOUNDER AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR,
FORWARD MOMENTUM CHICAGO
PROFESSIONAL DANCER AND ARTS
EDUCATION LEADER

For a decade, Pierre Lockett, has served as Forward Momentum Chicago's Founder and Executive Director. Prior to its founding, he served as Director of Community Engagement with The Joffrey Ballet where he grew its programming from ten schools in 1996 to over 55 schools by 2014. After twenty years as a professional dancer, Pierre combined his passion and expertise for dance with his desire to inspire youth through invigorating dance programs to create a uniquely inclusive arts education organization, Forward Momentum Chicago.

Under Pierre's direction, FMC has provided programming to 38,500 students through weekly in/out-of-school instruction, free Saturday Dance Classes, and three Summer Dance Camps to any child who is interested.

Pierre works extensively with youth from Chicago Public Schools, Chicago Park District, After School Matters and various schools and studios throughout the city. As a result of his enduring commitment, he was recognized by Mayor Rahm Emanuel for fostering the talent of young dancers and bringing dance to Chicago's many diverse communities, declaring June 30th Pierre Lockett Day.

Pierre utilizes dance as a catalyst to help students build life skills for career and college readiness, and individual success. He believes strongly in the benefits of arts learning and that its implementation can yield great success. Pierre strives to remove the barriers that limit or prevent youth and adults in communities of color from pursuing dance as a professional trade. He actively seeks opportunities to introduce professional black dancers and dance educators to his students. His vision is for students who are underrepresented in some dance genres to gain appreciation for and mastery of that genre, while gaining the confidence to accomplish their dreams artistically, academically, and professionally.

Pierre Lockett began his ballet training with Major Burchfield in his hometown of Mobile and trained at the Joffrey Ballet School and Dance Theatre of Harlem.

Pierre was a member of Dance Theatre of Harlem, Princeton Ballet and the Joffrey Ballet. While at Dance Theatre of Harlem, Pierre performed ballets by world renowned choreographers such as George Balanchine, Agnes DeMille, Arthur Mitchell, Geoffrey Holder and John Butler. He also made several television appearances with the company, including the PBS "Dance in America" series featuring Dance Theatre of Harlem's Creole Giselle and A Streetcar Named Desire. He was also featured in Robert Altman's film The Company.

He is the recipient of the 1999 Black Theatre Alliance/Ira Aldridge Award for Best Performance in a Music or Dance Program, the Princess Grace Award for Dance, The Monarch Awards for the Arts and has received numerous dance awards. He has also served as a panelist for The National Endowment for the Arts.

INTERGENERATIONAL LEADERSHIP VOICE

HARRY LEE “BUTCH” REYNOLDS JR

OLYMPIC GOLD AND SILVER MEDALIST
FORMER 400-METER WORLD RECORD HOLDER
HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Harry Lee “Butch” Reynolds Jr. offers much more than an Olympic success story. His life reflects elite performance, discipline, public adversity, faith, reinvention, youth development, and the lifelong work of protecting one’s character and legacy. That makes him a strong fit for the Uncommon, Unfinished Men™ message: a man is not defined by one race, one victory, one setback, or one season of life.

Born in Akron, Ohio, Reynolds became one of the greatest 400-meter runners in track-and-field history. In 1988, he ran 43.29 seconds, breaking Lee Evans’s nearly 20-year-old world record by more than half a second. Reynolds’s record stood for approximately 11 years before Michael Johnson lowered it in 1999.

At the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul, Reynolds won the silver medal in the individual 400 meters and a gold medal as part of the United States 4×400-meter relay team. The United States swept the medals in the individual event, with Reynolds finishing only 0.06 seconds behind Steve Lewis.

His international career also included a World Indoor 400-meter title, individual medals at the outdoor World Championships and multiple 4×400-meter relay world titles. Reynolds ran on the United States team that recorded 2:54.29 at the 1993 World Championships, a historically significant relay performance..

In 2016, Reynolds was inducted into the National Track and Field Hall of Fame, recognizing the lasting significance of his athletic accomplishments.

POLITICAL EDUCATION FACILITATOR

DOMINIQUE BAKER

DEI STRATEGIST, POLITICAL EDUCATOR &
DIGITAL CONTENT CREATOR

Dominique Baker is a diversity, equity, and inclusion strategist, political educator, and digital content creator whose work sits at the intersection of organizational culture, public policy, race, and political communication.

He holds a Master of Human Relations from the University of Oklahoma with a focus in Diversity, Equity & Strategic Impact. His graduate work included research examining the role of racial narratives in political speech and the ways language, power, and ideology shape public understanding of race and inequality.

Dominique served as a Diversity & Inclusion Consultant for the City of Littleton, Colorado, where he partnered with city leadership to strengthen equity and inclusion across local government.

Dominique has also worked as Creative Director for George Lee Speaks and @TheConsciousLee since 2018. In that role, he helps research, develop, and shape educational content addressing race, politics, equity, history, and social issues for a large digital audience. His work includes editorial strategy, source evaluation, messaging on complex and sensitive issues, content development, and audience engagement analysis.

Through his own social media platform, @ThePoliticalPlug, Dominique creates political education and commentary focused on race, political power, identity, public policy, and the narratives shaping American politics. His work translates academic research, political theory, history, and current events into accessible digital content while maintaining the structural and historical context often lost in mainstream political discourse.

Across consulting, research, and digital media, Dominique's work is grounded in helping people think more critically about how race, power, institutions, and political narratives shape both organizations and public life.

Throughout his career, Donovan has covered South Florida's professional, collegiate, high-school, and youth sports. His dedication extends beyond reporting scores—he uses his platform to recognize young athletes, celebrate their achievements, and tell stories that might otherwise go unheard. His journey reminds men that true influence is measured not only by professional success, but also by how they serve, inspire, and create opportunities for others.

CAROL GREEN

BOARD CHAIR, COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT
LEADER, TRAINER, ORGAN

Carol Green is a community engagement leader with more than 30 years of experience in parks and recreation, organizing, training, and relationship-building. As Board Chair of the Human Capacity Building Movement and the Uncommon, Unfinished Men™ Dream Team, she helps connect people across generations, cultures, neighborhoods, professions, and economic circumstances. Carol believes strong communities are created not only through facilities or programs, but by developing the capacity of the people who live in them.

Throughout her career, she has worked with clubs, neighborhood groups, professional organizations, volunteers, families, and community leaders. Whether speaking, training, organizing, or offering one-on-one encouragement, she centers a simple philosophy: people matter, relationships matter, and everyone has something to contribute.

Her people-first leadership helps ensure that men, boys, families, and communities have a place in conversations about technology, health, leadership, work, an

ADRIYEL WILKINS

LICENSED BARBER & FOUNDER OF RAZOR
& THRONE BARBERSHOP

Adriyel Wilkins is a licensed barber and founder of Razor & Throne Barbershop, an elevated boutique grooming destination in Cincinnati's Over-the-Rhine neighborhood. Originally from Kansas City, Missouri, Adriyel discovered his passion for barbering in high school and formalized his craft at the Cincinnati School of Barbering in 2016, building a loyal clientele since 2017.

For the past eight years he has served the Over-the-Rhine community, and through Razor & Throne he creates jobs, mentors young barbers, and hosts community events that foster local pride.

Blending the warmth of a classic speakeasy with the precision of a modern studio, Razor & Throne is building toward its vision of becoming the Midwest's leading destination for elevated men's grooming — a neighborhood landmark and cultural brand rooted in artistry, authenticity, and community.

HONOREE

JAVEON SAMUELS

CREATIVE DIRECTOR AND CREATOR OF LACK LIMITS MEDIA

Javeon is the Creative Director and Creator of Lack Limits Media. His belief is that in a world where many people are always trying to fit in, it's the unique traits everyone and everything has that what makes us beautiful. The ideology he spreads and believes in is that no one and no thing has a limit. To show his beliefs he decided to depict that in all his photography and videography projects that he creates.

To him it was a chance to create art, to have other people feel like they are art themselves. With the use of branding media, people's traits, their stories, their highs and lows, etc, those differences are what make the art/message in his photo/video. From personal memories to the promotion of services, people, and items, any media. Everything made is done to help others stand out by pointing the spotlight at what makes you, you.

Currently he spreads this through media but he plans to expand his vision into a global movement. From events like this, to museums, magazines, and a true community. He plans to build all of this and more as he grows through his career
