

THE HOME OF MEANING

THE CONTEMPLATIVE PATH TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Last Updated 2026

What this program is
The Contemplative Path is a self-paced spiritual formation program offered through The Home of Meaning. It is not a substitute for professional psychological, psychiatric, or medical care. If you are navigating a mental health crisis, please seek the care of a qualified professional.

Access
Upon enrollment, you receive six months of access to all program materials. This window is generous enough to honour your pace and defined enough to honour the journey. At the close of six months, access concludes. Extensions are not standard but may be considered in exceptional circumstances. Please reach out at thehomeofmeaning.com/connect

Refund policy
We offer a full refund within seven days of enrollment, provided no program materials have been accessed. After seven days or after accessing materials, refunds are not available. If you are uncertain whether this program is right for you, please reach out before enrolling.

Your responsibility

This program asks for genuine engagement. The materials, reflections, and practices are designed to work together as a formation experience. Approaching them with honesty and intention will determine the quality of what you carry forward.

Intellectual property

All program materials are the intellectual property of The Home of Meaning and are for your personal use only. They may not be shared, reproduced, or distributed without written permission.

Questions? Reach out at thehomeofmeaning.com/connect