What this program is

The Rooted Path is the most personal and sustained formation experience offered through The Home of Meaning. It includes everything in The Contemplative and Accompanied Paths plus a monthly check-in conversation to tend the journey together — noticing what is forming, what needs attention, and what is worth carrying forward. Three soul conversations: at the beginning, midpoint, and close of the journey. And a personally signed and inscribed copy of Inclusive Spirituality: Discovering What Lies Beyond Religion. It is not a substitute for professional psychological, psychiatric, or medical care. If you are navigating a mental health crisis, please seek the care of a qualified professional.

Enrollment and capacity

This path operates on a capacity-managed rolling enrollment basis, with a maximum of 5 learners accompanied at any one time. If registration remains available online, space is currently available, and you may enroll through the registration page. Once capacity is reached, registration will no longer be available, and you are welcome to join the waitlist at no cost.

Access

Upon enrollment, you receive twelve months of access to all program materials. This window is generous enough to honour your pace and defined enough to honour the journey. At the close of the twelve months, access concludes. Extensions are not standard but may be considered in exceptional circumstances. So, if life intervenes, please reach out early. Silence is the only thing that makes accompaniment difficult. Please reach out at thehomeofmeaning.com/connect or through the contact details at the bottom of this document.

My commitments to you

Three 45-minute soul conversations — at the beginning, midpoint, and close of your journey. A monthly check-in conversation to tend the journey together — noticing what is forming, what needs attention, and what is worth carrying forward. Written responses to your module reflections throughout. Closing reflection: a personal reflection written for you, drawing from what Dr. Thaah has witnessed across your submitted reflections. A personally signed and inscribed copy of Inclusive Spirituality mailed to your address.

Scheduling

We understand that life happens, and we will do our best to be as accommodating as possible when scheduling or rescheduling your soul conversation. When possible, please provide at least 48 hours' notice if you need to make a change. If a conversation is cancelled with less than 48 hours' notice, we will work with you to find another time whenever reasonably possible, taking into account availability and the remaining access period.

Refund policy

Full refund within seven days of enrollment provided your personal arrival letter has not yet been written, and no program materials have been accessed. After seven days or after accompaniment has begun, refunds are not available. By enrolling, you acknowledge that personal accompaniment begins within the first seven days and that this marks the point at which the refund window closes.

Confidentiality
Everything you share through your reflections, intake, and soul conversation is held in confidence and will not be referenced publicly without your explicit written permission.

Intellectual property
All program materials are the intellectual property of The Home of Meaning and are for your personal use only. Personal letters and written responses created for you are yours to keep but may not be shared publicly without permission.
