Where to Meet a Rich Man

The 3 circles, the cities, places, events, apps and 6 city guides:
Dubai, Monaco, Geneva, London, Paris, Miami.

How to Find a Rich Husband

Where the Wealthy Men Are

You won't meet your wealthy husband in the places you go today. You need to change your environment: where he works, where he relaxes, where he pursues his passions.

3.1 The 3 circles rule

1. His work: conferences, trade shows, business events, networking
2. His leisure: golf, sailing, tennis, skiing, polo, horse riding, wine, art
3. His social life: charity galas, private dinners, clubs, mutual friends

Circle 3 is the most powerful: being introduced by a mutual friend instantly puts you in the "serious woman" category. Circles 1 and 2 are what get you into circle 3.

3.2 The cities

City	Why	Typical profile
Dubai	A global hub of entrepreneurs and affluent expats	Entrepreneurs, investors, expats aged 30–50
Monaco	The highest density of millionaires in the world	Wealthy residents, older, very discreet
Geneva / Zurich	Banking, wealth management, multinationals	Bankers, senior executives, heirs
London	Finance, tech, real estate	Financiers, tech entrepreneurs
New York / Miami	Finance, real estate, tech	Very varied profiles, very fast pace
Paris	Luxury, old families, business	Heirs, entrepreneurs, senior executives
Singapore / Hong Kong	Asia's finance hubs	Expats, financiers

No need to move straight away. One well-prepared weekend in the right city is worth more than 6 months in the wrong place.

3.3 Places and events

Business (circle 1)

- Trade shows and conferences in sectors where money flows: real estate, finance, tech, crypto, luxury, yachting
- Entrepreneur networking events, business clubs, chambers of commerce
- Tip: working as a hostess, organiser or in communications for one of these events gives you legitimate access

Leisure (circle 2)

- Golf: take lessons at a reputable club; the clubhouse is a meeting place
- Sailing and yachting: Monaco Yacht Show, Cannes Yachting Festival, regattas
- Skiing: Courchevel, St. Moritz, Gstaad, Megève in high season (or Aspen and Vail in the US)
- Polo, horse riding, show jumping
- Wine tastings, auctions, gallery openings, Art Basel
- Premium sport: high-end gyms, padel at upscale clubs

Everyday places

- 5-star hotel lobbies and bars on weekdays after work (alone with a book, or with a friend)
- Business-class airport lounges, flying business class when you can (points, upgrades)
- Business lunch restaurants in financial districts

Social (circle 3)

- Charity galas: the best place of all, because you're there for a cause, not on the hunt
- Volunteering for foundations supported by wealthy families
- Private members' clubs (Soho House and similar): apply, or go as a guest
- Your network: tell your close friends you're looking for a serious, established man. Most couples still meet through friends.

3.4 The apps

App	What sets it apart	Note
The League	Profiles verified via career background, aimed at ambitious professionals	The best fit for marriage
Raya	Referral-only, very selective, creative and well-known circles	Hard to get into, long waiting lists
Luxy	Explicitly positioned around wealthy men, with income verification	Watch out for profiles just looking for "fun"
Inner Circle	Screened entry, very present in Europe	A good middle ground
Hinge	Mainstream but geared towards serious relationships	Useful if you filter well

Avoid if your goal is marriage: "sugar dating" sites. The men on them are looking for a paid arrangement, not a wife.

Your app profile

- 5 to 6 photos: a smiling portrait in natural light, an elegant full-length shot, one travelling, one doing an activity (sport, cooking, reading), one with friends
- A short, positive bio: what you do, what you love, what you're looking for (a serious relationship)
- Never "looking for a financially successful man": that's the line that sends the real ones running

3.5 Budget

This module asks you to invest a little: one outing a week at an upscale venue, a premium app subscription, a leisure activity. Plan on €200 to €500 a month (approx. $220 to $550). Think of it as an investment, not an expense.

Module 3 exercises

- ☐ Choose 1 target city and 3 regular places you'll go to every week
- ☐ Sign up for 1 "circle 2" leisure activity (golf, club padel, sailing lessons, wine tasting)
- ☐ Find 2 business events and 1 charity gala in the next 60 days
- ☐ Create or redo your profile on 2 of the apps listed

City Guides

Every city has its codes, its seasons and its places. Venues change fast: always check that a place is open and still popular before you go.

C.1 Dubai

- Neighbourhoods: DIFC (finance), Downtown, Dubai Marina, Palm Jumeirah, Jumeirah
- High season: October to April. In summer, many wealthy residents leave.
- Where to go: DIFC bars and restaurants after work, lobbies of the big hotels, upscale Friday brunches, beach clubs in the daytime, padel and golf clubs (Emirates Golf Club, Jumeirah Golf Estates)
- Events: tech, finance and crypto conferences, real estate shows, Dubai International Boat Show, charity galas, horse racing (Dubai World Cup)
- Codes: covered, elegant outfits in the daytime, discretion in public, respect for local culture
- Watch out: many men have a family elsewhere. Verification is a must.

C.2 Monaco

- Neighbourhoods: Monte-Carlo, Port Hercule, Fontvieille
- High season: May to September (Grand Prix in May, Yacht Show in September)
- Where to go: the grand hotel bars on Place du Casino, harbour-side terraces, beach clubs
- Events: Formula 1 Grand Prix, Monaco Yacht Show, the Rose Ball and charity galas, the Masters tennis tournament
- Codes: very discreet, very elegant; the slightest excess gets noticed
- Watch out: it's a small town, everyone knows everything. Your reputation will precede you within weeks.

C.3 Geneva

- Neighbourhoods: the Left Bank, the banking district, Cologny
- Season: all year round, skiing in nearby resorts in winter
- Where to go: hotel bars along the lakefront, business lunch restaurants, sailing clubs on Lake Geneva
- Events: watch fairs, finance conferences, watch and jewellery auctions
- Codes: absolute restraint, punctuality, reserve. Money is never shown off.

- Bonus: Gstaad, Verbier, St. Moritz in winter

C.4 London

- Neighbourhoods: Mayfair, Kensington, Chelsea, the City and Canary Wharf (finance)
- Season: all year round, with the "social season" in summer
- Where to go: Mayfair hotel bars, City restaurants at lunchtime, private members' clubs (by invitation or application)
- Events: Royal Ascot, Wimbledon, Henley Royal Regatta, polo, Frieze (art), charity galas
- Codes: humour, culture, social-class accent closely observed, strict dress codes at events (Ascot)

C.5 Paris

- Neighbourhoods: the 8th, 16th and 7th arrondissements, Saint-Germain
- Season: September to June
- Where to go: the bars of the palace hotels, business lunch restaurants in the 8th, gallery openings, tennis and golf clubs in the western suburbs
- Events: Fashion Week, Roland-Garros (the French Open), Art Basel Paris, auctions, the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, charity galas
- Codes: culture and conversation above all, natural elegance, no ostentation
- Bonus: Courchevel and Megève in winter, Saint-Tropez and Cannes in summer

C.6 Miami

- Neighbourhoods: Brickell (finance), Miami Beach, Coral Gables, Key Biscayne
- High season: November to April
- Where to go: Brickell rooftops, upscale restaurants, marinas, tennis and padel clubs
- Events: Art Basel Miami Beach (December), Miami International Boat Show, the F1 Grand Prix, crypto and tech conferences
- Codes: more relaxed, more "showy", but serious men stay discreet
- Watch out: lots of show-offs and fake rich men. Module 6 is a must.

C.7 Preparing a weekend in a target city

1. Pick a date that coincides with an event (trade show, gala, competition)
2. Book a decent hotel in the right neighbourhood, or at least spend time in the upscale venues
3. Plan 3 places: a business lunch, a hotel bar in the evening, an event

4. Activate your apps 3 days before you arrive, in travel mode
5. Go with a trusted friend if possible
