What Happens After You Contact Our Firm

Many people contact a divorce lawyer while they are still trying to understand what is happening and what they need. Here is exactly how our process works, so you know what to expect before you begin.

STEP 1
Intake Call (free)
Our team gathers the basics of your situation, checks for conflicts, collects the $150 consultation fee, and schedules your consultation.

STEP 2
Strategy Consultation
30 minutes with Attorney Holloway about your specific situation, your options, and your next steps.

1 Book your Intake Call

Book online or call our office. The Intake Call is free and handled by our intake team.

- Pick a time that works for you using the button below.
- Have the full names of both spouses ready so we can check for conflicts.
- Note any court dates or deadlines you already know about.

2 Complete the Intake Call

Our team gathers the basics of your situation, checks for conflicts, and identifies the right next step.

- You do not need every document. If you do not know an answer, say so.
- The $150 Strategy Consultation fee is collected at the end of the call to reserve your consultation.
- The Intake Call is not legal advice, and completing it does not guarantee the firm will accept your matter.

3 Prepare without overwhelming yourself

Once your consultation is scheduled, we send free resources to help you organize your thoughts.

- Identify your three biggest concerns.
- Write down information you know is missing.
- Choose the five questions you most want to discuss.

4 Meet with Attorney Holloway

Your 30-minute Strategy Consultation is where the conversation moves to your individual circumstances.

- Bring your questions and notes.
- Ask for clarification when something is unclear.
- Some questions may need more documents or facts before they can be fully answered.

5 Decide whether representation is right for you

If the firm can accept your matter and you want to move forward, you receive the engagement agreement and payment instructions.

- The attorney-client relationship begins only after the engagement requirements are completed.
- Retain the firm within five calendar days after your consultation and your $150 fee is credited toward your initial flat fee or retainer.
- If the firm does not accept your matter, pay attention to any deadlines and seek other counsel promptly.

THE QUESTION WE HEAR MOST

Paying for Representation

Cost is one of the biggest concerns people bring to us, so here is how it works.

Strategy Consultation	$150 for 30 minutes with Attorney Holloway, collected during your Intake Call. Credited toward your initial flat fee or retainer if you retain the firm within five calendar days after the consultation.
Uncontested and limited-scope matters	Generally handled for a flat fee, so you know the attorney fee up front.
Contested matters	Handled through a retainer held in trust and billed against as work is done.
Financing	Third-party financing is available through Affirm, SweetPay, and Flexxbuy. Ask during your Intake Call about terms and any associated costs.

What You Do Not Need Before You Contact Us

- A perfectly organized financial file.
- Every bank statement or tax return.
- A complete list of every marital asset and debt.
- A finished parenting plan.
- Knowledge of Georgia legal terminology.
- Certainty about whether you are ready to file for divorce.

It is okay to begin with questions. It is also okay to say, “I don’t know yet.”

You do not have to figure everything out before asking for help.

When your question changes from “What does this mean?” to “What does this mean for me?”, start with a free Intake Call. Our team will gather the basics, check for conflicts, and schedule your 30-minute Strategy Consultation with Attorney Samantha Holloway ($150, collected during the Intake Call).
