

Spiritual Journey to CELTIC IRELAND 2022

with DanaGita Stratil

Voice and Earth Healing

8. - 18. August 2022

Travel with us on this 11-day journey to the mystical country of Ireland. Visit ancient standing stones, circles and passage graves. Explore the beauty and magic of Nature, tune into earth energies and Fairylands, pierce the thin veils between dimensions and co-create in Earth healing and planetary upliftment.

The Newgrange complex and the river Boine, Slieve na Calliagh, Hill of Tara, Kildare & St. Brigid's sites, Glendalough and the Wicklow Mountains, Lough Gur Stone Circle, the Burren, Cliffs of Moher, Connemara and sites off the beaten track.

We travel to the sacred sites in a small group: chanting, toning, singing and meditating. We intend to align deeply with our inner Being and recreate a harmonic resonance with Mother Earth. We attune with her energies, beauty and profound wisdom and envision global healing and transformation.

This journey is for you if you want to find or re-affirm your purpose and direction in life so that you can move on in your life's journey with confidence, joy and dedication to your sacred calling. This outer journey is a mirror of your inner path. Release old patterns and limitations, integrate your inner FEMININE and MASCULINE. Re-establish the force of LOVE as your Inner Guide.

Join us if you feel the call to take part in this collective and planetary upliftment. Enjoy the richness of Nature, the healing power of your voice and the company of open, like-minded, spiritual travellers.

PLEASE NOTE:

The primary language for the guided tours, group meetings and rituals is ENGLISH.

Beyond the corner pillars of accommodation, we will create this adventure in a rolling planning model and follow our guidance and inspiration. This calls for openness and flexibility from everyone.

There will be free time in some evenings and half-days for resting, integration and enjoying Nature.

The weather can be beautiful, but also wet and cold. Warm and waterproof gear and clothing are necessary.

The travel route and programmed activities may be subject to change in the case of adverse weather or other circumstances. We wish to meet any restrictions and requirements connected to the then prevailing situation with respect and an open heart for the people and the land.

Experience this journey as a reflection of your own life's journey

On top of great comradeship, beautiful places, sites and gorgeous nature experiences, this journey also includes transformational vocal sounds, group chanting and rituals. Be prepared to embrace the joys and uplifting moments, as well as any challenges arising from outer or inner circumstances. Reflection, writing and sharing can support you to integrate these internal shifts. We also invite you to share your voice, expertise and spiritual gifts with the group and contribute in individual support, collective healings and group rituals, shining your unique Being.

This journey is for you if you:

- are open to exploring new places and power places with special energies and history
- are a mature personality, ready take responsibility for your own inner challenges and processes
- are curious and willing to explore the transforming sound of your voice, chanting, toning and easy to sing-along songs
- enjoy silent meditations and rituals and are open to profound experiences
- are healthy and fit enough to take part in intermediate level walks and hikes up to 3 hours
- are willing to travel in a group, contributing and sharing with respect and kindness
- are open to contributing to the planetary evolution and transformation
- allow yourself to be an ever-evolving human BEING

"Hello, my name is DanaGita.

I am a singer, sound healer, consciousness coach and travel guide. I offer journeys to independent, spiritually mature travellers like you, who want to explore ancient cultures and connect more deeply with their soul and heart.

An integral part of these transformational journeys is working with the power of sound, chanting, improvising, nature chants and overtones, energy work and meditations to support spiritual growth. More and more, I am asked to serve Nature and Mother Earth – GAIA. I channel sounds, activate and open spiritual spaces with my voice, so co-creative healing and transformation can happen on multiple levels and realms. I empower people to activate or deepen their transformation with their voices. I have travelled and explored Ireland and given workshops in the early 1990s. Now, I was called to come back and co-create with the land, its people and mystical beings... and YOU.

My mission is to gather spiritual travellers who are willing to embark on this inner and outer journey and share their gifts and service with the whole."

Is this your calling? You are very welcome to co-create with us...!

"To be on a journey with DanaGita is a joyful and magical adventure. It fills me with awe again and again. She has the ability to find power places where she sings fascinating transformative sounds and melodies, and she fills sound chambers and cathedrals with her otherworldly overtone chanting. Her sounds have the power to open channels and inner spaces within me, especially when we sing and chant together. Thank you lots and looking forward to more."
