

6 Reading Patterns For Your Unique Decks!

Welcome to our explanatory PDF on Tarot Reading Patterns or Oracles.

We'll walk you through six different templates, each designed to give you a unique and detailed perspective on your tarot readings.

With an understanding of these patterns, you'll be able to conduct more in-depth and meaningful readings for yourself and others.

Also, I remind you that you can customize these reading patterns for every single deck you create!

Simply ask ChatGPT to create a reading pattern for you that is specific to your deck.

For example, if you've created a particular deck, such as one based on mythological creatures or natural landscapes, you can adapt one of our templates, such as the Tree of Life, to best reflect the energy and meaning of your unique deck.

And to finish it all off, we have prepared 6 Files on Canva for you, where you will find the Image for each Reading Pattern and a blank space where you can write the name of your Deck and the Unique descriptions for your readings!

You can find the file here: CANVA FILE

Without further ado, let's explore the six models together!

Celtic Cross Model

The Celtic Cross template is one of the most popular and complex layouts, ideal for detailed answers and insights. This template uses ten cards and can cover various aspects of the consultant's situation, such as the past, present, future, external influences, hopes, and obstacles.

Always start with a Question and then follow this Reading Outline to deepen the answers

Card positions include:

- 1. La current situation
- 2. External influences
- 3. The hopes or fears of the consultant
- 4. Il recent past
- 5. Il near future
- 6. Il basis of the situation
- 7. The Influences of the Consultant
- 8. Obstacles
- 9. Future hopes and fears
- 10. Il final result

Three-card model

The Three Card template is simple and straightforward, perfect for reflecting on the past, present, and future, or for examining the mind, body, and spirit. It is versatile and easy to use, ideal for beginners.

Always start with a Question and then follow this Reading Outline to deepen the answers

Card positions include:

Past

Present

Future

This template gives you a clear and concise overview of your current situation and how it will develop over time.

Star model

The Star model can be used to explore a specific issue in more detail. The cards are arranged in the shape of a star, and each position can represent a different aspect of the matter, such as underlying causes, expected effects, emotional factors, etc.

Always start with a Question and then follow this Reading Outline to deepen the answers

Card positions include:

- 1.Underlying causes
- 2.Current factors
- 3.Desired Goals
- 4.Future results
- 5.External factors
- 6.Internal factors
- 7.Counsels of the Universe

This template offers a detailed, multifaceted view of the situation, allowing the consultant to explore different aspects of their life or question.

Model of the Tree of Life

Based on the Kabbalah, the Tree of Life model uses ten cards to explore deeper spiritual aspects of the consultant's life. Each card is associated with one of the paths or sephiroth of the Tree of Life, offering a very spiritual and philosophical reading.

Always start with a Question and then follow this Reading Outline to deepen the answers

Card positions include:

- 1.Kether (Crown) - Connection with the Divine
- 2.Chokmah (Wisdom) - Intuitive Knowledge
- 3.Binah (Understanding) - Intuition and Inner Wisdom
- 4.Chesed - Generosity and Compassion
- 5.Geburah (Strength) - Courageous Decisions and Action
- 6.Tiphareth (Beauty) - Harmony and Integration
- 7.Netzach (Victory) - Creativity and passion
- 8.Hod (Glory) - Intelligence & Analysis
- 9.Yesod (Foundation) - Dreams and Insights
- 10.Malkuth (Kingdom) - Physical Manifestation and Realization

This model offers a deep and spiritual perspective on matters in the counselor's life, helping them connect with their inner spirituality and gain a deeper understanding of themselves and their path.

Model of the Wheel of the Year

Ideal for annual reflections or exploring how energies will change in the coming months, the Wheel of the Year model uses a chart for each month, providing an overview of an entire year.

Always start with a Question and then follow this Reading Outline to deepen the answers

Card positions include:

1.January

2.February

3.March

4.April

5.May

6.June

7.July

8.August

9.September

10.October

11.November

12.December

This model allows the consultant to explore the dominant themes and energies in each month of the year, offering a comprehensive view of the changes and challenges that may arise over time

Relationship Model

In some situations, you may need a test bench to make sure you and your partner are on the right track. There's nothing wrong with wanting to know if everything will go smoothly or it's better to change direction. What matters is that you are using your intuition and setting an intention to deepen your relationship. Draw 8 cards and draw an inverted pyramid to see if the foundations of your relationship are solid

Always start with a Question and then follow this Reading Outline to deepen the answers

Card positions include:

Card 1: What energy is there between us?

Card 2: How do I really feel about my partner?

Card 3: How do I feel when we are together?

Paper 4: What is the greatest strength of our relationship?

Paper 5: What is the biggest challenge we are facing?

Card 6: What does my partner need from me?

Card 7: What do I need from my partner?

Card 8: What can I do to strengthen our bond?

This template helps the consultant to comprehensively evaluate the available options and make an informed and informed decision.

Conclusions

Now that you've explored the six tarot reading patterns, you're ready to deepen your practice and offer richer, more meaningful readings.

I remind you that on Canva you will find the 6 editable images for these reading patterns

You can find it all here: GO TO CANVA

Always remember to use these guides as tools for self-reflection and personal development, and to practice with respect and compassion towards yourself and others.

Happy reading!

Staff

The Deck Maker