MOST Delicious Parts of the Brain:

- Frontal Lobe
  - Delicately textured with a hint of richness.
- Occipital Lobe
  - Satisfying chew and robust flavor.
- Cerebellum
  - Exceptional tenderness and good mouthfeel.

In your new reality, resourcefulness isn't just a skill—it's a matter of life and death.

Abandoned Buildings

The perfect spot to build your little den of horrors! Keep an eye out for multi-story buildings! You'll be able to spot your next meal from miles away. Why not warm up your space with an area rug from an abandoned IKEA?

Noise-Makers

Some living things may fall for this one! Make some noise and the grub comes right to ya!

Lotion

Even the undead need a skincare routine! We recommend non-comedogenic water-based lotion and toner.

Discarded Limbs

One zombie's discarded hand is another zombie's treasure! These are great for back-scratching or replacing one of your own missing limbs. They also make great accent pieces in your home and super handy brain scoops.

Graveyards

With their quiet solitude and abundance of fresh corpses, these hallowed grounds will offer you both sustenance and solace! It's a great spot to gather, scavenge, and find a sense of belonging with your fellow ghouls.

Good luck in your new Undead Lifestyle!
