

Erie Marketplace Digital Services Private Use License Agreement

This license governs the use of all digital materials provided by Erie Marketplace Digital Services (“Materials”). By accessing or using these Materials, you agree to the following terms:

1. Grant of License

You are granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the Materials for your own private business or personal use.

2. Permitted Uses

You may:

- Edit, modify, and customize the Materials as needed
- Use the Materials within your own business, marketing, or internal projects
- Incorporate the Materials into your personal workflows, content, or systems
- Add your name to the Materials and present them as your own, provided they are not sold, redistributed, or transferred to others

3. Restrictions

You may NOT:

- Resell, redistribute, sublicense, or give away the Materials in any form, whether modified or unmodified
- Transfer ownership or rights of the Materials to any third party
- Use the creator’s name, brand, or identity in association with the Materials

4. Ownership

All rights, title, and interest in the original Materials remain with Erie Marketplace Digital Services. This license grants usage rights only and does not transfer ownership.

5. Private Use Only

These Materials are intended strictly for private use. Any commercial redistribution, public sharing, or resale is strictly prohibited.

6. Termination

This license is effective until terminated. It will terminate automatically if you violate any terms. Upon termination, you must cease all use of the Materials.
